The invocation was offered by Dr. Michael S. Lewis, senior pastor, Great Hills Baptist Church, Austin, as follows:

Dear Heavenly Father, we humbly bow before you as we open this session on this 11th day of January in the year of our Lord 2007.

We lovingly acknowledge you as the all-wise and all-powerful God. You are the sovereign king of the universe, and you are the one who established all principalities, powers, rulers, and government bodies under your authority. You are the father of lights from whom every good and perfect gift comes from above. You are our creator and maker who spoke and the universe came into existence. You are our redeemer who gave your son, Jesus Christ, as the Savior of the world and who reigns as the king of kings and lord of lords over this world.

We call humbly upon you to guide us in all of the decisions and discussions of this session today. We recognize that we are finite beings with limited understanding; therefore, we ask for your infinite wisdom. We confess we are sinners who are like straying sheep; therefore, we need you, the shepherd of our souls, to guide us in all our ways. May righteousness and compassion fill our hearts with light from above. May the laws and decisions that are established in this session bring glory and honor to your name. May we be pleasing to you by promoting peace and spiritual prosperity for the residents of this great State of Texas. We acknowledge that all that we are and all that we have comes from you. O God, bless Texas! O God, bless America! Be with our men and women who are serving our country in our military forces in Iraq and foreign lands this day.

Lord, with respect to all those of diverse religious faiths, we humbly submit this prayer to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Strama who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

CAPITOL PHYSICIAN

The speaker recognized Representative Hardcastle who presented Dr. T. David Greer of Henrietta as the "Doctor for the Day."

The house welcomed Dr. Greer and thanked him for his participation in the Physician of the Day Program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians.
