The invocation was offered by Don R. Long of Austin, as follows:

Almighty and glorious Heavenly Father, on this day we thank you for those men in 1776 who declared their allegiance to freedom and liberty by preparing and signing the Declaration of Independence. May we never forget. And we thank you for the young men and women who are, on this very day, in harm's way protecting those privileges and freedom our forefathers gave us over 230 years ago.

Guide these elected representatives in this special session to enact such legislation that will be beneficial to all of the citizens of Texas. We thank you for their service to this great state.

Let those of us who call on your name remember your words to that wise king of Israel, Solomon, and the Hebrew nation: "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." (2 Chronicles 7:14) Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Chisum who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.
