STATEMENT OF VOTE

Laubenberg

REASONS FOR VOTE

This increase is in line for the inflation rate average for 2007 and 2008 combined with the average population growth for the past two years. This total is 11.86 percent the previous amount of $11,750. Add the 11.86 percent, which is $1,393.55, which is $13,143.55. The $13,250 is in line with inflation and population growth combined.

Legler
Sheffield

I voted for HR 3 today because the increase in members' budgets authorized by HR 3 is $2.7 million less than the increase proposed by the previous administration during the House Rules working group meeting on December 5, 2008. I believe a modest increase in the members' monthly budgets for session months is justified to account for the state employee pay raise authorized by the 80th Legislature. I also believe that, at a time when the legislature is asking state agencies to tighten their belts, the house should follow suit. It is my hope that the Committee on House Administration will be mindful of the state's economic condition when considering whether to authorize an extension of the increase in our monthly budgets.

Gallego, Hamilton, Hopson,
Kolkhorst, Martinez, Menendez, and Merritt

I voted yes because this is a $2.7 million reduction from the original proposal by the previous administration on December 5, 2008.
