The invocation was offered by Norman Howell, senior pastor, Laredo Church of the Crossroads, Laredo, as follows:

Loving and just God, breathe upon us today. Help us to love good and hate evil, to establish justice within the gates of Texas. From the Red River in the north, the Rio Grande to the south, from the Sabine to the east, and the Panhandle to the west, may our borders both be safe and yet welcoming of people to the land you have entrusted into our hands. May our hearts be generous to the foreigner and diligent against those who would mean us harm.

I pray we will find your light and hold it in our hearts. Help us even this day to make good choices. May our eyes see with faith toward our future and may our hands be clean and untouched by bribery. Grant us wisdom as we call upon your name. May the words of Jesus be true in that golden rule that benefits all mankind, that we would treat others the way we desire to be treated.

Guide us with your grace and forgive us for not listening to you as often as we should. Lord, as your servant I pray that at the end of the day, may each person here find the peace that comes from your loving heart. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Sheffield who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

SB 525 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE D. MILLER: Representative Phillips, is this your first bill?

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: This session, maybe.

D. MILLER: Okay, you ask that question a lot, I just thought—anyway, when you brought this bill to Natural Resources, you made it very clear to us that it affects only the Bois d'Arc Reservoir and only that area. In your opinion, it has no effect on any other part of the State of Texas—this is absolutely a local bill on your part.

PHILLIPS: That's exactly right. The only way that it'd affect—and again, I want to be clear, there are a couple of other reservoirs that had already been in the statute. What we are doing is we're adding lower Bois d'Arc into that statute, and we're taking away the exploration of the other lake or the other proposed reservoir. Both of those are wholly in Fannin County, so they have no impact in your county, his county, their counties around. This is a local bill.

D. MILLER: So it's your opinion, then, that this is a local bill.

PHILLIPS: For legislative intent, this affects only local reservoirs in Fannin County.

D. MILLER: Thank you, Representative Phillips, and I congratulate you on bringing this bill.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative D. Miller moved to print remarks between Representative Phillips and Representative D. Miller.

The motion prevailed.

Representative Phillips moved to lay HB 935 on the table subject to call, and the motion prevailed.

HB 960 (by Turner), A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the powers of the Central Harris County Regional Water Authority.

HB 962 (by Hartnett), A bill to be entitled An Act relating to rules regarding return of service. (Isaac and Weber recorded voting no.)

HB 962 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE WEBER: Will, you know we've had this discussion about your bill, and I just wanted to get this so we can get legislative intent in the record. The purpose of your bill is not, I want to restate what you said, not to somehow ratify the creation or the existence of the process server review board, is that right?

REPRESENTATIVE HARTNETT: Correct.

WEBER: And what you're doing, in your view, is to create a situation where you're streamlining part of the process?

HARTNETT: Correct.

WEBER: Okay, and you're not wanting to put a stamp of approval on one system of people to the detriment of others, is that correct?

HARTNETT: Correct.

WEBER: So, you're just wanting to streamline the process. And basically what your process is going to do is to say that when a process server does the process and he or she is certified by the supreme court, is that correct?

HARTNETT: Yes.

WEBER: Certified by the supreme court, then that process coming back does not have to be notarized?

HARTNETT: Correct.

WEBER: Currently, is it your understanding that all of the processes have to be notarized?

HARTNETT: Yes.

WEBER: Okay, and so, you're not attempting to choose winners or losers in this system, you're simply saying you want to streamline part of the process?

HARTNETT: Correct.

WEBER: Is it fair to assume that most all of the process servers would have the same opportunity to get certified by the supreme court if they so chose to do so?

HARTNETT: Yes.

WEBER: Okay, and just for reclarification, you're not attempting to somehow ratify the existence of the board.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Weber moved to print remarks between Representative Hartnett and Representative Weber.

The motion prevailed.
