Our God and Father in heaven, we bow before you today in praise and thanksgiving. We praise you because of who you are. You are the creator of all things. You are the creator of nations. You are the creator of the states that make up this great nation. Indeed, you are the creator of government. This house, O Lord, has a great responsibility on its shoulders to represent the citizens of our beloved state in matters of life, liberty, and property. May your grace, wisdom, and understanding be upon each member and officer as they carry out the legislative responsibilities before this session.

I thank you, Father, for all these men and women who have given of themselves, their time, their talents, and their treasures to serve the people of this state. I thank you for the members' families represented in this house and the sacrifices they make.

I thank you, Father, for this great state and, in agreement with the preamble of its constitution, do humbly invoke the blessings of Almighty God upon her. I pray that the members of this house will faithfully uphold the 17 articles and the statutes of the constitution of the state in all its deliberations and legislation.

We also thank you for and ask your protection over the citizens of this state who serve in our armed forces. We do hereby the abundant supply of your grace and mercy pledge allegiance to you and the great State of Texas—one state under God, one and indivisible. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.
