Gracious and eternal God, we gather today at the Texas State Capitol to give you thanks and praise. Lord, we praise you for Psalm 33:12, which says: Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. God, with so much going on in our nation, we pray that you would empower these state representatives who are making decisions that will ultimately determine the security, the stability, and the sustainability of the State of Texas.

Lord, we ask that you would protect Governor Greg Abbott, Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick, all the members of the senate, and all the members of the house of representatives. Grant them wisdom, and allow them to govern with integrity and lead in a way that always honors you. God, allow these elected officials to be on one accord. And even at times when they disagree, remind them that they have been elected to serve in the best interest of their constituents. Lord, there are people depending on these state representatives, and it is written in your word that the heart of the king is in the hand of the Lord, and you can turn it any way you desire. God, I believe that the hearts of these state representatives are in your hands, and you are directing all of their decisions. Lord, I pray that all people would experience equality and justice, regardless of their race, gender, or class.

Finally Lord, remind the Texas House of Representatives on a daily basis that you will be present with them and you never leave them or forsake them. And in spite of the numerous challenges facing the State of Texas, God, reassure them that with you all things are possible. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

GENERAL STATE CALENDAR
SENATE BILLS
SECOND READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read second time:

SB 28 ON SECOND READING
(Deshotel - House Sponsor)

SB 28, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the financing of ports in the state.

SB 28 was passed to third reading.

SB 303 ON SECOND READING
(S. Thompson - House Sponsor)

SB 303, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the continuation and functions of the Board of Law Examiners.

SB 303 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Stickland raised a point of order against further consideration of SB 303 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(3) of the House Rules on the grounds that the committee report is incorrect.

The speaker overruled the point of order and submitted the following statement:

Rule 4, Section 32(c)(3) of the House Rules requires the bill analysis to include "a statement indicating whether or not any rulemaking authority is expressly delegated . . . and, if so, identifying the sections of the measure in which that rulemaking authority is delegated." Representative Stickland specifically argues that the bill analysis fails to identify express rulemaking authority either by the Supreme Court of Texas or the State Board of Law Examiners. He argues that key components of the bill are not expressly or sufficiently described.

While the bill makes reference to "supreme court rules," this is not new authority granted to the Supreme Court of Texas but rather the authority already exists under Article V, Section 31 of the Texas Constitution and other law. Representative Stickland also alleges the bill analysis fails to identify the rulemaking authority of the Board of Law Examiners. We have scoured the bill and can find no reference to rulemaking power given to that board, nor have we been pointed to any.

Finally, Representative Stickland argues that the senate committee report set out rulemaking authority in the bill. He is correct—the senate report did so. However, the senate bill analysis would be in error under the House Rules. Neither Section 5 nor Section 6 of the senate bill, nor the house substitute, would require the rulemaking notation found in the senate bill analysis because none of the affected sections of the bill before the house contain an express, independent grant of new rulemaking authority. See 83 H.J. Reg. 2651 (2013) (Miles point of order on CSHB 500). Further, the bill analysis is neither inaccurate nor materially misleading. Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

Amendment No. 1

On behalf of Representative Krause, Representative Leach offered the following amendment to SB 303:

Floor Packet Page No. 2

Amend SB 303 by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

(a-1) In adopting rules on eligibility for examination for a license to practice law, the supreme court shall ensure that no rule limits, hinders, disadvantages, or otherwise adversely affects a person's admission to the practice of law on the basis of a person's sincerely held religious belief.

Amendment No. 2

Amend Amendment No. 1 by Krause to SB 303 (page 2, prefiled amendments packet) on line 8 by striking "limits, hinders, disadvantages, or otherwise" and substituting "substantially and".
