But we understand, O Lord, that much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more. In holy fear, we ask that you grant us the grace to rise to so noble a task, the wisdom to know right from wrong, the prudence of discernment in action, and the perseverance to see the good to completion. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The proclamation submits the subject of "legislation prohibiting COVID-19 vaccines by private employers." The amendment would apply the bill's mandate prohibition to any person, regardless of whether the person is performing work for a private employer. Amend CSSB 7 (house committee report) on page 4 by striking lines 2 through 21 and substituting the following:

Sec. 81D.006. ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY. If, following an investigation under Section 81D.004, the commission determines that the employer violated this chapter, the commission:

(1) shall:

(A) impose on the employer an administrative penalty in an amount equal to $10,000 for each violation; and

(B) require the employer, as applicable, to:

(ii) reinstate the employee or contractor and provide the employee or contractor with back pay from the date the employer took the adverse action and makes every reasonable effort to reverse the effects of the adverse action, including reestablishing employee benefits for which the employee or contractor otherwise would have been eligible if the adverse action had not been taken; and

(2) may recover from the employer reasonable investigative costs incurred by the commission in conducting the investigation.

Amendment No. 7 - Point of Order

Representative Zwiener raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 7 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules. The speaker sustained the point of order, announcing his decision to the house as follows:

Representative Zwiener raises a point of order against further consideration of the Tinderholt Amendment under Rule 11, Section 2, on the grounds that the amendment is not germane to the bill.

The bill would authorize an employer to avoid the imposition of administrative penalties by reinstating a fired employee with back pay. The Tinderholt Amendment would require the workforce commission to both impose administrative penalties and reinstate the employee with back pay.

An amendment may not completely negate a grant of discretion provided by a bill. 88 H. Jour. 4880 (2023). Under the bill, the employer had discretion in addressing the effects of an adverse action. The Tinderholt Amendment would remove the discretion entirely by requiring the commission to order mandatory action. Id. Thus, the amendment is not germane.

Accordingly, the point of order is well-taken and sustained.

The ruling precluded further consideration of Amendment No. 7.

A record vote was requested.

CSSB 7, as amended, was passed to third reading by (Record 12): 90 Yeas, 57 Nays, 1 Present, not voting.

HB 6 ON SECOND READING (by Jetton, Bonnen, DeAyala, et al.)

HB 6, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to making an appropriation for the construction, operation, and maintenance of border barrier infrastructure.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

REPRESENTATIVE GATES: Is it correct that the rules of the house as adopted in our rules resolution during the regular session continue to apply during a special session?

CHAIR (C.J. Harris in the chair): Yes.

GATES: Why does a body adopt rules at the beginning of a session rather than at any other point of a session?

CHAIR: That is not a proper parliamentary inquiry.

GATES: Do our house precedents also apply during a special session to the same extent as during a regular session?

CHAIR: Mr. Gates, that is not a proper parliamentary inquiry.

GATES: This session, members have and will file bills and resolutions that are subject to points of order under our house rules. So I want to make sure what rules and precedents will apply to those measures. For example, House Rule 14, Section 1, is part of our rules, is it not?

CHAIR: Mr. Gates, the chair has given previous guidance on proper parliamentary procedure. Please bring your inquiry down front and visit with the parliamentarians.

GATES: Mr. Speaker, I believe that these are important questions that the body of the house needs to have an opportunity to hear. May I just go on to the next question?

CHAIR: No, sir, you may not. Please come down front and visit with the parliamentarians.

HB 6 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Ortega raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 6 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(1), of the House Rules on the grounds that the background and purpose statement in the bill analysis is substantially or materially misleading. The point of order was withdrawn.

HB 4 ON SECOND READING
(by Spiller, Hefner, Hunter, K. Bell, et al.)

HB 4, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to prohibitions on the illegal entry into or illegal presence in this state by a person who is an alien, the enforcement of those prohibitions, and authorizing the removal of persons who violate certain of those prohibitions in lieu of arrest; creating criminal offenses.

HB 4 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Zwiener raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 4 under Rule 8, Section 1(a)(1), of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill caption failed to give reasonable notice of the subject of the bill. The point of order was withdrawn.

HB 4 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Ortega raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 4 under Article III, Section 40, of the Texas Constitution on the grounds that the subject matter of the bill is not included in the governor's proclamation. The point of order was withdrawn.

HB 4 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Neave Criado raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 4 under Article III, Section 40, of the Texas Constitution. The speaker overruled the point of order, announcing his decision to the house as follows:

Representative Neave Criado raises a point of order against further consideration of HB 4 under Article III, Section 40, Texas Constitution, on the grounds that the subject matter of the bill is not included in the governor's proclamation.

The proclamation submits the subject of "legislation to do more to reduce illegal immigration by," among other things, "creating criminal offenses for illegal entry into this state from a foreign nation and illegal reentry or presence following . . . removal" and "providing indemnification of public officials, employees or contractors in connection" therewith.

The application of Section 51.04, Penal Code, as added by the bill, is tied directly to the acts of a person who fails to comply with a peace officer's order of removal. Sections 117.003(d) and 117.004, Civil Practices and Remedies Code, as added by the bill, are tied directly to providing indemnification of the proclamation's covered classes.

The proclamation "confine[s] the business to a particular field which may be covered in such way as the Legislature may determine." 55 H. Jour. 1st C.S. 156 (1957). Thus, the proclamation is not required to detail every element of proposed legislation. Here, the complained-of sections are directly related to the major elements specified in the proclamation.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

HB 4 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Morales Shaw raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 4 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(1), of the House Rules. The speaker overruled the point of order, announcing his decision to the house as follows:

Representative Morales Shaw raises a point of order against further consideration of HB 4 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(1), on the grounds that the background and purpose statement is substantially or materially misleading.

Ms. Morales Shaw alleges that the statement that the bill creates "criminal offenses . . . that can be enforced by all law enforcement officials in Texas" is misleading because the term "officials" is vague and may or may not refer solely to elected officials.

The background and purpose statement may use terms colloquially as they are understood by a reader of average intelligence and that use is neither substantially nor materially misleading. 88 H. Jour. 5129 (2023). Here, the statement does exactly that. See id. Thus, it complies with the rule. See id.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

HB 4 - AMENDMENTS LIMITED

Representative C.J. Harris moved to limit amendments to HB 4 to those pending on the speaker's desk.

The motion was seconded by Representatives Cain, Gerdes, Leach, Oliverson, Buckley, VanDeaver, Burns, Landgraf, Meyer, Bumgarner, Klick, Hefner, C.E. Harris, Vasut, Holland, Burrows, Isaac, Thimesch, Troxclair, Orr, Harless, Cunningham, Noble, Cook, Frank, and Capriglione.

Amendment No. 12 - Point of Order

Representative Moody raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 12 under Article III, Section 40, of the Texas Constitution. The speaker sustained the point of order, announcing his decision to the house as follows:

Representative Moody raises a point of order against further consideration of the Tinderholt Amendment under Article III, Section 40, Texas Constitution, on the grounds that the subject matter of the amendment is not included in the governor's proclamation.

The proclamation submits the subject of "legislation to do more to reduce illegal immigration by," among other things, "creating criminal offenses for illegal entry into this state from a foreign nation and illegal reentry or presence."

The bill authorizes an affirmative defense to prosecution for a "defendant who was approved for benefits under the federal" DACA program before that program was effectively ended in 2021. The Tinderholt Amendment would strike that affirmative defense.

The proclamation "confine[s] the business to a particular field which may be covered in such way as the Legislature may determine." 55 H. Jour. 1st C.S. 156 (1957). The field in this case is confined to legislation affecting the class of persons who unlawfully enter or remain in this state. As conceded by both sides, DACA recipients are, for purposes of federal law, considered to be lawfully present in this state. Further, because of both the cutoff date for DACA enrollment and the two-year statute of limitations for misdemeanors, their entry is not covered by the bill. Thus, the amendment affects a class of persons not embraced by the call. 87 H. Jour. 2d C.S. 354 (2021).

Accordingly, the point of order is well-taken and sustained.

The ruling precluded further consideration of Amendment No. 12.

Amendment No. 13

Representative Ordaz offered the following amendment to HB 4:

Amend HB 4 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) Strike "peace officer" and substitute "commissioned officer of the Department of Public Safety" in each of the following places it appears:

(B) page 3, line 27.

(2) On page 4, line 13, strike "a peace officer's order" and substitute "an order issued".
