The invocation was offered by the Very Reverend Daniel Liu, Diocese of Austin, Austin, as follows:

Dear Lord, you are gracious and compassionate. You are our rock. Your work is perfect, for all your ways are just. You are a God of truth and without iniquity. How just and upright are you, how wonderful your love. You give to the beast and bird alike their food, you do not delight in the strength of the horse. You do not take pleasure in human power but in a humble and contrite heart that fears you, that hopes in your mercy. Guide our work today with an attitude of humility and cooperation for the common good we seek that may glorify you. We ask this in your holy name today. Amen.

The chair recognized Representative K. Bell who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

Message No. 1

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE
SENATE CHAMBER
Austin, Texas
Thursday, March 23, 2023

The Honorable Speaker of the House
House Chamber
Austin, Texas

Mr. Speaker:

I am directed by the senate to inform the house that the senate has taken the following action:

THE SENATE HAS PASSED THE FOLLOWING MEASURES:

HCR 70 Hefner SPONSOR: Hughes
Commemorating the 150th anniversary of Mineola.

SB 3 Bettencourt
Relating to an increase in the amount of certain exemptions from ad valorem taxation by a school district applicable to residence homesteads, an adjustment in the amount of the limitation on school district ad valorem taxes imposed on the residence homesteads of the elderly or disabled to reflect increases in the exemption amounts, and the protection of school districts against the resulting loss in local revenue.

SB 4 Bettencourt
Relating to the maximum compressed tax rate of a school district.

SB 5 Parker
Relating to an exemption from ad valorem taxation of a portion of the appraised value of tangible personal property that is held or used for the production of income and a franchise tax credit for the payment of certain related ad valorem taxes.

SB 222 Nichols
Relating to paid leave by certain state employees for the birth or adoption of a child.

SB 347 Zaffirini
Relating to the extension of a driver's license suspension or disqualification following certain convictions.

SB 904 Springer
Relating to the offense of the unauthorized use of parking designated for persons with disabilities.

SCR 37 Hughes
Commemorating the 150th anniversary of Mineola.

SJR 3 Bettencourt

Proposing a constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to exempt from ad valorem taxation a portion of the market value of tangible personal property that is held or used for the production of income, to increase the amount of certain exemptions from ad valorem taxation by a school district applicable to residence homesteads, to adjust the amount of the limitation on school district ad valorem taxes imposed on the residence homesteads of the elderly or disabled to reflect increases in the exemption amounts, and to except certain appropriations to pay for school district ad valorem tax relief from the constitutional limitation on the rate of growth of appropriations.

Respectfully,
Patsy Spaw
Secretary of the Senate
