Representative Anchía raised a point of order against further consideration of the motion to instruct conferees by Representative Olcott under Rule 13, Section 8, of the House Rules.

(Speaker in the chair)

The speaker overruled the point of order, announcing his decision to the house as follows:

Mr. Anchía raises a point of order against further consideration of the Olcott motion to instruct House conferees on SB 1 under Rule 13, Section 8, on the grounds that the instructions would cause the conferees to exceed their bounds.

Mr. Anchía argues that the motion would instruct House conferees to go outside their bounds since the riders referenced in the Olcott motion are not funded in either the Senate or House version of the bill. However, Mr. Anchía acknowledges that the subject matter of the two riders is not included in the Senate version of the bill. Thus, the motion to instruct relates to matter that is in disagreement.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

CSHB 20 ON SECOND READING

(by Gates, Buckley, K. Bell, Longoria, Martinez Fischer, et al.)

CSHB 20, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to establishing the Applied Sciences Pathway program.

CSHB 20 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE ANCHÍA: I just have a couple questions about your bill, Mr. Chairman. I'm looking at—and I just want to understand these applied sciences. So I'm looking at Section 29.914, Subsection (c), okay? The commissioner that you're talking about in that part of the bill is the Higher Education Coordinating Board commissioner, right?

REPRESENTATIVE GATES: 29.914, (c)?

ANCHÍA: 29.914, Subsection (c). Are you there?

GATES: Yes.

ANCHÍA: It's on the first page, line 16.

GATES: Yes.

ANCHÍA: Okay. So the commissioner that you're talking about there, that's the commissioner of the Higher Education Coordinating Board?

GATES: That's the commissioner of TEA.

ANCHÍA: The commissioner of TEA. Okay. So the commissioner of TEA, in this subsection, you're requiring—because you use "shall" language, right? You're requiring approval for participation in the program partnerships. So am I to understand that the commissioner does not have discretion to disapprove partnerships—that this "shall" language makes it a requirement that any partnership that comes before the commissioner of the TEA shall be approved? Is that your intention?

GATES: No, I think the intent is if you want to be approved for a program, you have to go to the commissioner to get the approval through TEA.

ANCHÍA: But is it your intent that the commissioner has latitude to either approve or disapprove of a partnership? Is that your intent?

GATES: If you want to have a program approved, you're going to have to go to the commissioner to have it approved.

ANCHÍA: Okay. That part I understood from your prior answer. Does the commissioner also have latitude to disapprove of a program that does not meet some standard? Because the way it's worded here is that the commissioner "shall approve." And I just want to understand if that includes the inverse, which is to not approve something.

GATES: It gives a list of things that are needed. And so you're going to have to meet those stipulations to get approval by the commissioner.

ANCHÍA: Again, this is not a trick question. I just want to understand your intent. If some of the things in (c), Subsection (1) and Subsection (2)—(2)(A), (B), (C), down to (T)—are not complied with or are outside of these industries listed in (c), Subsection (2), then you're saying that the commissioner does have the discretion to disapprove an application. Is that correct?

GATES: I word it as if you wanted to have something that's not on the list approved by the commissioner—if it's not on this list—then it can't be approved.

ANCHÍA: Okay, gotcha. That was the answer I was looking for—that, in fact, a commissioner can disapprove of a program that does not comply with Subsection (1) and Subsection (2).

Now, there's one line in Subsection (c) that I just don't understand, and I'm hoping you can explain it to me. It says "to provide courses in a non-duplicative sequence of progressive achievement." What does that mean? "To provide courses in a non-duplicative sequence of progressive achievement." What does that language mean?

GATES: I want to be cautious here because I'm not an attorney.

ANCHÍA: No, but ostensibly you drafted the bill, right?

GATES: And I don't want to say something that sets up something. I really don't know what you're getting at.

ANCHÍA: What I'm getting at is to understand what is on line 19. What is "a non-duplicative sequence of progressive achievement"? I assume you drafted this language intentionally, correct?

GATES: That's correct.

ANCHÍA: So what does that mean?

GATES: I would want to get back with you on that.

ANCHÍA: Okay. You can't answer that now?

GATES: I want to be very cautious on what I say to you.

ANCHÍA: Why? Why does this—explaining your bill—require caution?

GATES: Because I don't know what you're trying to get at.

ANCHÍA: Just the meaning of that sentence.

GATES: Well, this thing's been out here for a long time. And I don't know why you're—if that was really a concern of yours, then I wish—

ANCHÍA: Because you're laying it out before the house.

GATES: —you could have brought it in the hours that we've been sitting here on the floor, and I could have gotten you a better answer.

ANCHÍA: Right.

GATES: So I'm going to be very cautious in how I answer that.

ANCHÍA: So do you not know what it means?

GATES: I want to be a little cautious on how I answer that with you.

ANCHÍA: Okay, that's interesting. All right. So you don't know what it means or you will not tell the body what it means. Let's go down to the bottom of page 2 in the partnership participating programs and what they must do. Okay? They must enable the school district or open-enrollment charter school to provide at least one course of study described by the partnership with an institution of higher education. Is that right?

GATES: Which line are you reading from?

ANCHÍA: Let me repeat that for you.

GATES: Could you give me the line numbers?

ANCHÍA: Yeah, yeah. Bottom of page 2, Subsection (d), line 25. Do you see that language? "A partnership participating in the program must"—this is what the partnership must do. And by partnership, I imagine you're talking about the public-private partnership, right?

GATES: "The partnership participating in the program must: (1) enable the"—

ANCHÍA: But what is the partnership is my question. What is the partnership?

GATES: The partnership would be with the school district and with whoever they're wanting to partnership with—if it's a TSTC campus or a community college.

ANCHÍA: Could it also be a private employer?

GATES: It could be a charter school. As it says here, "enable the school district or open-enrollment charter school to provide at least one course of study."

ANCHÍA: Right, I can read that, but I'm trying to get at—partnership is not defined earlier. So I'm trying to understand what a partnership is.

GATES: Under Section 29.914, Subsection (2)(c), lines 16 through 20: "The commissioner shall approve participation in the program partnerships between school districts or open-enrollment charter schools and institutions of higher education to provide courses in a non-duplicative sequence of progressive achievement."

ANCHÍA: Gotcha. So the partnership is between school districts or charter schools and higher ed. Is that just two-year institutions or TSTC, or does it also include four-year institutions?

GATES: "Commissioner shall approve participation in the program partnerships between school districts or open-enrollment charter schools"—

ANCHÍA: Sorry. What are you reading from? Can you orient me really quickly what you're reading from?

GATES: Lines 16 through 18—"and institutions of higher"—

ANCHÍA: Thank you. Mr. Chairman, you were reading something before you started caucusing. You were reading what appeared to be an answer—that you believe that the partnerships were between school districts or charter schools—traditional school districts—and institutions of higher education. My question was: Does that include two-year institutions and four-year institutions?

GATES: Repeat that question again.

ANCHÍA: Does that include two-year institutions and four-year institutions when you say "institutions of higher education"?

GATES: I read to you lines 16 through 20.

ANCHÍA: Yeah, and my question is: When it says "institutions of higher education," does that mean two-year and four-year? I don't know. I'm asking you as the author of the bill.

GATES: Right now, I'll stick with as it's being read on lines 16 through 20, under Section 29.914.

REASON FOR VOTE

Representative Vasut submitted the following reason for vote to be printed in the journal:

I voted PNV on the Olcott Amendment because it is not clear to me exactly how the amendment would function in practice. I generally support removing students from the classroom who assault staff or make terroristic threats, as the amendment purports to cover. But the amendment as worded could be construed to apply to a 3-year-old pre-K student biting a teacher, which seems a bit of a harsh response to that narrow circumstance. I would like to know if this language only applies to: (1) children who can form a mens rea for assault/terroristic threat, or (2) all children. If the former, it seems fine. If the latter, it seems problematic. Since I do not yet have the answers to these questions, I abstained.

Amendment No. 7

Representative Bowers offered the following amendment to CSHB 6:

Amend CSHB 6 (house committee report) on page 14, between lines 12 and 13, by inserting the following:

(a-1) If the board of trustees of a school district, the board's designee, or a juvenile court places a student in a virtual disciplinary alternative education program under this section, the board shall:

(1) ensure that the student has suitable home computer equipment and reliable Internet access and provide the equipment and access if necessary; and

(2) provide in-person or telehealth behavioral support services to the student.

Amendment No. 7 was withdrawn.
