GALLERY RECOGNITION

REPRESENTATIVE CAIN: It's my distinct pleasure to take a moment to recognize the incredible work of Mrs. Helen Morales, the wife of state Representative Eddie Morales, who planned and executed this year's Taste of Texas event for the Legislative Ladies Club with truly exceptional grace and skill. As many of you know, the Legislative Ladies Club has long been a cornerstone of community and support for the spouses and families of our state legislators. It's a group rooted in tradition, fellowship, and service. And Helen upheld that tradition beautifully throughout this event. From thoughtful details to seamless coordination—every element—it's my understanding that the Taste of Texas reflected Helen's dedication to excellence and grace and the spirit of the club. Events like these don't just happen. They require vision and leadership, talent. Helen, you've got all of that and more. You created an atmosphere that was welcoming, joyful, and fun for all involved. So on behalf of our spouses—my wife being the president of this organization this year—we want to say thank you for your hard work. It was a memorable event. Bravo.

HB 3099 ON SECOND READING

HB 3099, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to adult high school charter program funding.

HB 3099 was read second time on May 6 and was postponed until 2 p.m. today.

Representative Gerdes moved to postpone consideration of HB 3099 until 9 a.m. tomorrow.

HB 3556 ON THIRD READING
(by Vasut, Metcalf, et al.)

HB 3556, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the construction of structures exceeding a certain height in certain counties containing National Wildlife Refuges and in adjacent counties; authorizing injunctive relief.

HB 3556 was read third time earlier today and was postponed until this time.

HB 3556 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE ZWIENER: Representative Vasut, is this the bill that Representative Darby amended yesterday?

REPRESENTATIVE VASUT: Yes, this is Chairman Darby and I's bill.

REPRESENTATIVE ANCHÍA: I know we've spent a lot of time on your bill—the house has, I should say. It's been, I guess, a couple weeks' worth of work and quite a few hours by this body. Given that the house has spent so much time on this bill and that once it leaves this body, it is the house's bill and no longer yours or Chairman Darby's, is it your intention to defend the house version of this bill when it goes to the senate?

VASUT: It is my intention to pass the best public policy to protect birds in my district.

ANCHÍA: You would agree that when bills leave this body, they become the house's bills, right? We're merely sort of messengers from the house at that point. We engage in vigorous discussions with the senate—to the extent their version of the bill is different or if they try to amend this version. Is it your position that you will not defend the position of the house vis-à-vis the senate?

VASUT: I will always seek to negotiate in good faith with the senate and the other members. But in full transparency, my goal—as stated as the bill is filed—was to ensure that we are properly mitigating the harm to wildlife, particularly in my district and along the coast. That is what I'm most—in full transparency—most focused on.

ANCHÍA: And I appreciate the transparency. Just to put a fine point on it, a supermajority of this house voted in favor of the bill as amended. It is not your intention to defend that supermajority's position when the bill goes to the senate, is that correct?

VASUT: My position is and always will be to pass the best public policy.
