HB 3 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE NORIEGA: You heard my particular questions as they were addressed to Representative Gallego, and I just wanted to continue because I think it's fairly important that as this, or if this particular legislation moves forward, and it gets into the courts as it applies to those districts that are protected by the Voting Rights Act that we're in fact—we're not—there's not retrogression, which it's in my opinion that there's a high probability this particular proposal that there is retrogression. Is it your position that CSHB 3 creates additional Hispanic districts?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I'm not sure when you're saying Committee Substitute to HB 3—HB 3 the bill, 1268C, make sure we're talking about the same one, I do not think, I think it complies with the Voting Rights Act. I believe that—why don't you restate the question because I don't think it affects any minority districts. I in no way think it dilutes minority voting, but again, my opinion is just my opinion. I do not think it constitutes any retrogression whatsoever, and I believe it will pass DOJ muster very easily.

NORIEGA: But, there have been quotes in the press on many occasions from yourself as well as others, if I'm not mistaken, please correct me, that suggested that this particular map increases minority districts, is that correct?

KING: I think that we will have the same number of minority—minority majority districts, the same total, under this map that we have today.

NORIEGA: Okay, I understand that it's a break even, essentially with HB 3 and the current map.

KING: One reason it's kind of hard to say is because we've got some districts that would be classified by some as being a minority district that is not electing minority, but I think we probably got—

NORIEGA: But those districts that you just suggested though, for the purposes of the law, they're still considered opportunity districts.

KING: Absolutely.

NORIEGA: So, that is not a creation of a new district—

KING: That is correct.

NORIEGA: —i.e., District 29, District 25, etc. Now let me ask you, are you aware that in at least five of the current districts that many minority voters will be disenfranchised by HB 3 and the maps and placing them in such a threatened position where they won't have an impact on the election?

KING: I believe that's incorrect.

NORIEGA: Why is that?

KING: You have the same information available that I do, and as I read the printouts, I do not believe it will have any negative impact on minority voting rights.

NORIEGA: Well, let me ask you from the standpoint, let's just say Tom DeLay for instance. If he represents African American voters in Galveston County where he has, within NAACP or with other Hispanic organizations, has a 20 something percent voting record versus the current Congress person who has over 80 something percent voting record with these organizations and the interests of these persons, would you say that those persons now in Galveston County are not being disenfranchised by this map?

KING: I'm not sure I understand your question. I think—

NORIEGA: Well, by moving them into a district now where they are not deciding the election by moving them into East Texas where they're able to build coalitions to decide who their Congress person is and decide the outcome, and East Texas, and Galveston and McLennan County, and in West Texas in areas like Abilene and San Angelo and so forth, where they're deciding the outcome of those elections, now they will not decide the outcomes of those elections. Are they not now being disenfranchised by HB 3?

KING: No, they're not.

NORIEGA: Why is that? Are you saying that persons like Tom DeLay will now vote with the NAACP?

KING: No, you're confusing voting rights with the issue of whether someone is a Republican or Democrat and it's two distinct things.

NORIEGA: I don't believe so. We're talking about one person, one vote, are we not?

KING: Well, you're talking, you got two things, you're talking about one, is there any dilution, is there any retrogression of minority voting strength, then the other one you're saying will a Republican or a Democrat better represent any particular individual or a group of people.

NORIEGA: But the correlation we have between one person, one vote, deals with that person's voting record and how they affect those respective communities. Would you not agree with that?

KING: No.

NORIEGA: So, you're saying then that Tom DeLay's voting record as it applies to NAACP is irrelevant?

KING: I can't speak for Tom DeLay's voting record. I've never looked at it.

NORIEGA: So, you're saying that you believe that HB 3, there's not any retrogression—that's your position.

KING: That is my position. Yes, I believe that to be true.

NORIEGA: Okay, well, I'll have to share with you that groups such as MALDF and others testified—NAACP of Texas have testified that HB 3, in their professional opinion, that have worked through countless redistricting maps and so forth and that are going to—we're going to wind up in court with them—stealing taxpayers' dollars, when we don't have textbooks and a whole host of other things, we're going to spend countless dollars now, and they're saying this map represents retrogression on the part of minority voters.

KING: If you believe that, then I would assume you would vote for the map because then it would be thrown out at a later date, which would be what I understand you would hope to happen.

NORIEGA: I would prefer not wasting the taxpayers' dollars. Thank you, Mr. King.

REASONS FOR VOTE

I support congressional redistricting, but this map is the same map that was passed twice in July and is not in the best interests of my rural East Texas constituents. This is of course a fluid process, and I am optimistic that future maps will preserve my district's rural identity while addressing the need to redraw congressional districts that reflect the voting patterns of Texas. I look forward to the opportunity to vote for such a map.

Hughes

In 2001, the Republican Caucus of the Texas Senate, led by Senator David Sibley, blocked consideration of a congressional redistricting bill under the traditional senate procedure which requires two-thirds of the members present to bring up a bill out of its regular order.

The purpose of blocking legislative consideration of congressional redistricting was to ensure that a congressional redistricting plan would be drawn by a federal court panel. Governor Rick Perry subsequently refused to call a special session to ensure that the goal of the Republican Caucus was accomplished.

The federal panel did draw a congressional plan. The Republican Party of Texas and the State of Texas then defended that plan through appeals to the U.S. Supreme Court. Governor Perry praised the new map as fair.

The plan drawn by the courts and defended by the Republican Party created 20 congressional districts in which Republican statewide candidates won majorities. The voters in five of those districts, however, chose to split their votes and elect a Democratic Party candidate for Congress. For that reason, leaders of the Texas Republican Party, in conspiracy with House Majority Leader Tom DeLay, concocted a scheme of misrepresentations to re-redistrict the Texas congressional map to carefully remove enough ticket-splitters to ensure an electoral outcome more to their liking.

Thousands of Texans have testified at hearings, called legislative offices, or written letters opposing any redistricting effort in 2003.

I was out of town on business when HB 3 passed the house on second reading. For the reasons listed above, if I had been here, I would have voted against HB 3.

CSHB 1 ON SECOND READING
(by Denny, Madden, and Howard)

CSHB 1, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the dates of certain elections, the procedures for canvassing the ballots for an election, and the counting of certain ballots voted by mail.

STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE SEAMAN: Chairman Denny, I would like to ask a few questions concerning HB 1 for the record. First, it is my understanding that HB 1 does not affect any special election dates previously authorized through legislation for various cities in Texas. Is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE DENNY: Representative Seaman, that is correct. HB 1 does not affect any special election dates otherwise authorized by legislation.

SEAMAN: For example, Election Code Section 41.0051 permits certain cities to use an April date for their general election rather than the May uniform date and HB 1 would not change that?

DENNY: That is correct.

SEAMAN: And a city which uses the April date under Section 41.0051 would not also be permitted to use the May uniform date under HB 1 for an election on a measure, but would have to use its April date or a uniform date other than May, is that correct?

DENNY: That is correct.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Seaman moved to print remarks between Representative Denny and Representative Seaman.

The motion prevailed without objection.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Alonzo offered the following amendment to CSHB 1:

Amend CSHB 1 by adding the following appropriately numbered section and by renumbering the remaining sections as appropriate:

SECTION _____. (a) Chapter 276, Election Code, is amended by adding Section 276.011 to read as follows:

Sec. 276.011. CIVIL ACTION: DILUTION OF VOTING RIGHTS. (a) A law of this state or a regulation, rule, order, ordinance, practice, or procedure of a political subdivision of this state may not be enacted, adopted, or applied in a manner that results in the denial or abridgement of the right of an individual to vote on account of race, color, ethnicity, or membership in a language minority group. For purposes of this section, an individual's ethnicity includes the individual's membership in a group that shares a common primary language.

(b) An individual affected by a law or other measure described by Subsection (a) may bring a civil action to enforce Subsection (a). A violation of Subsection (a) is established if, based on the totality of the circumstances, it is shown that the political processes leading to nomination or election in this state or a political subdivision of this state are not equally open to participation by individuals of a particular race, color, ethnicity, or language minority group, in that the members of that group have less opportunity than other members of the electorate to participate in the political process or to elect representatives of their choice.

(c) In determining whether a political process is not equally open to individuals of a particular race, color, ethnicity, or language minority group, a court may not consider the citizenship of members of the group, including considering the citizenship in any manner that excludes individuals who are not citizens from an estimate of the potential voting strength of the group.

(d) An action under this section may be brought only:

(1) by a resident of the state in a district court in the county in which the person resides, for a state law; or

(2) by a resident of the political subdivision in a district court in a county in which the political subdivision is located, for a regulation, rule, order, ordinance, practice, or procedure of a political subdivision.

(e) A finding of the district court under this section may be appealed in the same manner as provided by general law for other civil cases in district courts.

(b) This section takes effect February 1, 2004.

Amendment No. 3

Representative Merritt offered the following amendment to HB 2:

Amend HB 2 by adding the following appropriately numbered article and renumbering subsequent articles accordingly:

ARTICLE __. BORDER REGION HIGH-SPEED RAIL AUTHORITIES

SECTION __.01. Chapter 13, Title 112, Revised Statutes, is amended by adding Article 6550c-4 to read as follows:

Art. 6550c-4. BORDER REGION HIGH-SPEED RAIL AUTHORITIES

Sec. 1. DEFINITIONS. In this article:

(1) "Authority" means a border region high-speed rail authority created under this article.

(2) "Authority property" means all property an authority owns or leases under a long-term lease.

(3) "Border region" means the Texas-Louisiana border region or the Texas-Mexico border region, as defined by Section 2056.002, Government Code.

(4) "Commission" means the Texas Transportation Commission.

(5) "Department" means the Texas Department of Transportation.

(6) "High-speed rail" means the rail technology that permits the operation of rolling stock between scheduled stops at speeds greater than 70 miles per hour.

(7) "High-speed rail facility" means any property necessary for the transportation of passengers and baggage between points in a border region by high-speed rail. The term includes rolling stock, locomotives, stations, parking areas, and rail lines.

(8) "System" means all of the high-speed rail and intermodal facilities leased or owned by or operated on behalf of an authority.

Sec. 2. CREATION OF AUTHORITIES. The commission by order may authorize the creation of an authority in each border region for the purposes of financing, acquiring property for, constructing, maintaining, and operating a high-speed rail system in each border region.

Sec. 3. GOVERNING BODY. (a) The governing body of an authority is a board of directors consisting of representatives of each county in the border region for which the authority is created. The board is composed of 11 members appointed by the governor.

(b) The members of the board shall elect one member as presiding officer. The presiding officer may select another member to preside in the absence of the presiding officer.

(c) The presiding officer shall call at least one meeting of the board each year and may call other meetings as the presiding officer determines are appropriate.

(d) A member of the board is not entitled to compensation for serving as a member but is entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred while serving as a member.

(e) The board shall adopt rules for its proceedings and appoint an executive committee. The board may employ and compensate persons to carry out the powers and duties of the authority.

(f) Chapter 171, Local Government Code, applies to a member of the board.
Sec. 4. POWERS AND DUTIES OF AUTHORITY. (a) An authority is a public body and a political subdivision of the state exercising public and essential governmental functions and has all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this article. An authority, in the exercise of powers under this article, is performing only governmental functions and is a governmental unit within the meaning of Chapter 101, Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

(b) An authority is subject every 12th year to review under Chapter 325, Government Code (Texas Sunset Act).

(c) An authority may sue and be sued in all courts, may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs, and may appeal from a judgment without giving a supersedeas or cost bond. An action at law or in equity against an authority must be brought in the county in which a principal office of the authority is located, except that in an eminent domain proceeding involving an interest in land, suit must be brought in the county in which the land is located.

(d) An authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise and may hold, use, sell, lease, or dispose of real and personal property, licenses, patents, rights, and interests necessary, convenient, or useful for the full exercise of its powers.

(e) An authority may acquire, construct, develop, own, operate, and maintain intermodal and high-speed rail facilities to connect political subdivisions in the applicable border region. For this purpose and with the consent of a municipality, county, or other political subdivision, an authority may use streets, alleys, roads, highways, and other public ways of the municipality, county, or other political subdivision and may relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, or alter, at the expense of the authority, the construction of any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance, and operation of the system. An authority may not use or alter a road or highway that is part of the state highway system without the permission of the commission or a railroad without permission of the railroad. An authority may acquire by purchase any interest in real property for the acquisition, construction, or operation of a high-speed rail facility on terms and at a price as agreed to between the authority and the owner. The governing body of a municipality, county, other political subdivision, or public agency may convey title or rights and easements to any property needed by an authority to effect its purposes in connection with the acquisition, construction, or operation of the system.

(f) An authority has the right of eminent domain to acquire real property in fee simple or an interest in real property less than fee simple in, on, under, or above land, including an easement, right-of-way, or right of use of airspace or subsurface space. The power of eminent domain under this section does not apply to land under the jurisdiction of the department or a rail line owned by a common carrier or municipality. An authority shall, to the extent possible, use existing rail or intermodal transportation corridors for the alignment of its system. A proceeding for the exercise of the power of eminent domain is begun by the adoption by the board of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by an authority of the property or interest described in the resolution and that the acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement, or development of high-speed rail facilities and is in the public interest. The resolution of an authority is conclusive evidence of the public necessity of the proposed acquisition and that the real or personal property or interest in property is necessary for public use.

(g) With the consent of the property owner, instead of paying for real property with a single fixed payment, an authority may pay the owner in the form of:

(1) an intangible legal right to receive a percentage of identified fees related to the applicable segment of the system; or

(2) an exclusive or nonexclusive right to use or operate a part of the system.

(h) An authority may make agreements with a public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, state agency, or transportation system for the joint use of facilities, installations, or properties inside or outside the border region and establish through routes and joint fares.

(i) An authority may adopt rules to govern the operation of the authority, its employees, the system, service provided by the authority, and any other necessary matter concerning its purposes, including rules relating to health, safety, alcohol or beverage service, food service, and telephone and utility services, to protect the health, safety, and general welfare of residents of the border region and people who use the authority's services.

(j) An authority may enter into a joint ownership agreement with any person.

(k) An authority shall establish and maintain rates or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated, regulated, or maintained by the authority that is reasonable and nondiscriminatory and, together with grants received by the authority, is sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses necessary for the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;

(2) to pay the interest on and principal of bonds issued by the authority and payable in whole or in part from the revenues, as they become due and payable; and

(3) to comply with the terms of an agreement made with the holders of bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(l) An authority may make contracts, leases, and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States, this state, agencies and political subdivisions of this state, and other persons and entities and may perform any act necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The commission may enter into an interlocal agreement with an authority under which the authority may exercise a power or duty of the commission for the development and efficient operation of an intermodal corridor in the border region. An authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. A revenue bond indenture may limit the exercise of the powers granted by this section, and a limit applies as long as the revenue bonds issued under the indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) An authority by resolution may adopt rules governing the use, operation, and maintenance of the system and may determine or change a routing as the board considers advisable.

(n) An authority may lease all or part of the high-speed rail facilities to, or contract for the use or operation of all or part of the high-speed rail facilities by, an operator. An authority shall encourage to the maximum extent practicable the participation of private enterprise in the operation of high-speed rail facilities. The term of an operating contract under this subsection may not exceed 20 years.

(o) An authority may contract with a county or other political subdivision of this state for the authority to provide high-speed rail transportation services to an area outside the border region on the terms and conditions agreed to by the parties.

(p) An authority may purchase an additional insured provision to any liability insurance contract.

(q) Before beginning the operation of high-speed rail facilities, the board shall adopt an annual operating budget specifying the anticipated revenues and expenses of the authority for the remainder of the fiscal year. Each year the board shall adopt an operating budget for the authority. The fiscal year of an authority ends September 30 unless changed by the board. The board shall hold a public hearing before adopting a budget other than the initial budget. Notice of each hearing must be published at least seven days before the date of the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in the applicable border region. A budget may be amended at any time if notice of the proposed amendment is given in the notice of the meeting at which the amendment will be considered. An expenditure that is not budgeted may not be made.

(r) An authority is eligible to participate in the Texas County and District Retirement System.

(s) The board shall by resolution name one or more banks for the deposit of authority funds. Authority funds are public funds and may be invested in securities permitted by Chapter 2256, Government Code. To the extent funds of an authority are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or its successor, they shall be collateralized in the manner provided for county funds.

(t) To provide tax benefits to another party that are available with respect to property under the laws of a foreign country or to encourage private investment with a transportation authority in the United States, and notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an authority may enter into and execute, as it considers appropriate, contracts, agreements, notes, security agreements, conveyances, bills of sale, deeds, leases as lessee or lessor, and currency hedges, swap transactions, or agreements relating to foreign and domestic currency. The agreements or instruments may have the terms, maturities, duration, provisions as to governing law, indemnities, and other provisions that are approved by the board. In connection with any transaction authorized by this subsection, the authority shall deposit in trust, escrow, or similar arrangement cash or lawful investments or securities, or shall enter into one or more payment agreements, financial guarantees, or insurance contracts with counterparties having either a corporate credit or debt rating in any form, a claims-paying ability, or a rating for financial strength of "AA" or better by Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or by Standard & Poor's Corporation or "A-" or better by BEST's rating system that, by their terms, including interest to be earned on any cash or securities, are sufficient in amount to pay when due all amounts required to be paid by the authority as rent over the full term of the transaction plus any optional purchase price due under the transaction. A certification in advance by an independent financial expert, banker, or certified public accountant, who is not an employee of the authority, certifying compliance with this requirement constitutes conclusive evidence of compliance. Property sold, acquired, or otherwise transferred under this subsection is considered for all purposes to be property owned and held by the authority and used for public purposes.

Sec. 5. BONDS AND NOTES. (a) An authority may issue revenue bonds and notes in amounts the board considers necessary or appropriate for the acquisition, purchase, construction, reconstruction, repair, equipping, improvement, or extension of the authority's high-speed rail facilities. A bond or note is fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority and at the price and under the terms the board determines in the resolution authorizing the bond or note and may be sold at public or private sale, as the board determines.

(b) An authority shall submit all bonds and notes and the record of proceedings relating to their issuance to the attorney general for examination before delivery. If the attorney general determines that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this article and that they will be binding obligations of the authority, the attorney general shall approve them, and the comptroller shall register them. A bond or note issued under this article is incontestable after approval, registration, and sale and delivery of the bond or note to the purchaser.
