Absent — Corte; Hilderbran; Krusee.

The invocation was offered by Dr. Duane Srader, district superintendent, Church of Nazarene, Spring, as follows:

Our Heavenly Father, our God in whom we trust; we are reminded of the words of King Jehoshaphat:

"O Lord, God of our fathers, are you not the God who is in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no one can withstand you. O our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land before your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend? They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary for your Name, saying, 'If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword of judgment, or plague or famine, we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us."

We humbly thank you for all your blessings. You have blessed us with a rich heritage. We recognize the sacrifice of those who have gone before us, those who have walked these halls and sat in this house. We thank you for the freedom we continue to enjoy because of wise decisions made on behalf of our children, grandchildren, and friends by those who have been elected to lead the State of Texas.

We implore your presence this morning as the men and women, those we have elected, seek to do what is right in your eyes during this session of the house on this day, the thirtieth of January 2007. May your wisdom govern the hearts and minds of each state representative during today's session.

We know there is no perfect government or state but after having lived outside of the states for 29 years we understand that you have provided the people of the United States and the State of Texas with a freedom which is worth more than money or power can buy. Freedom and hope have been provided through your presence. We pray that your presence would be our joy today.

We are reminded of the words of the apostle Paul, "Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with all of you. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all." In the name of Jesus I pray. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Flynn who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

PAIRED VOTES

Burnam (present), who would vote no, with Truitt (absent), who would vote yes.

REASON FOR VOTE

We, the undersigned, have sworn an oath to uphold the Constitution of Texas. We take this oath and our duties as State Representatives very seriously. In the past, many of us have voted to suspend Article III, Section 5 of the Texas Constitution that allows bills to be heard before the 60th day. Today is a different day. There is no commitment by the leadership of the Texas House of Representatives to create a bipartisan legislative process providing for the needs of all Texans. Evidence of this is that committee assignments do not reflect the actual membership of the Texas House of Representatives. There are more minority members in the Texas House of Representatives than in the 79th Session, yet there are two fewer minority chairs and four fewer female chairs. We are voting "no" because that is the only opportunity that we have been given to represent our constituents. Any member may still bring a bill to the floor. If the bill is good for the people of Texas and every member is allowed reasonable input, then we will vote to suspend on a per bill basis. Sound government requires inclusive deliberation and debate.

Martinez Fischer, Allen, Alonzo, Bolton, Burnam, Castro, Coleman, Y. Davis, Dunnam, Eiland, Farias, Farrar, Hernandez, Herrero, Hodge, Leibowitz, Miles, Moreno, Olivo, Ortiz, Rodriguez, Thompson, Veasey, and Villarreal
