REASON FOR VOTE

Given TxDOT's funding priorities, particularly its public and private toll road policy, I do not support legislation that would allow TxDOT to set its own spending rules unabated. Increasingly, TxDOT is unaccountable to the legislature. This bill will only exacerbate this problem.

HB 1034 ON THIRD READING

(by Riddle, Berman, Flynn, Hilderbran, Branch, et al.)

HB 1034. A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the pledge of allegiance to the state flag.

(Speaker in the chair)

HB 1034 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HOCHBERG: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, thank you, Ms. Riddle. I'm just trying to get clear in my own mind, because I'm going to have constituents ask me about my vote, of course, one way or another, and I voted with you last night.

REPRESENTATIVE RIDDLE: Thank you.

HOCHBERG: And I expect to vote with you today. Tell me why you picked out? You said last night that you were trying to essentially conform our pledge to the national pledge, and if I'm misstating what you said, please clarify that for me.

RIDDLE: No, that, I think, is what I made very clear, that in our national pledge, we say, "one nation under God." I felt like it was altogether right and appropriate for us to have in our state pledge, that we would say, "one state under God."

HOCHBERG: We also, in the national pledge, if I'm not mistaken, say, "with liberty and justice for all." You didn't include that in your bill, I don't believe. Was there some reason that you didn't include that but you did include the "under God" part?

RIDDLE: No.

HOCHBERG: No? Would you take a third reading amendment to add, "with liberty and justice for all?"

RIDDLE: No.

HOCHBERG: Because?

RIDDLE: I think that the way we have it now, it reads smoothly, it says what we wanted it to say, and I think that we voted on it yesterday, and I think that we have a consensus that basically says what we want it to say.

HOCHBERG: Okay, but you're basically trying to pick up the religious piece from the national pledge and just move it down to our state pledge. Is that fair?

RIDDLE: What I said yesterday is that it simply mirrors the national pledge in that area.

HOCHBERG: It mirrors the religious part of the pledge.

RIDDLE: This pledge is, in fact, unique to Texas, and we're not trying to replicate the entire pledge, but there are parts of the pledge that I thought we could put in it.

HOCHBERG: And why did you think that that particular part was appropriate to replicate rather than the other?

RIDDLE: That is the part that I thought of. I didn't even think about the other, sir.

HOCHBERG: And so why would you be opposed to the "with liberty and justice for all" part, isn't that important, too?

RIDDLE: We're in the third reading.

HOCHBERG: I just thought of it.

RIDDLE: You just now thought of it?

HOCHBERG: I did, ma'am.

RIDDLE: You just now thought of it?

HOCHBERG: I did, ma'am. I really did. It was a little late last night, ma'am, it really was. Had I thought of it then, I really would have brought it up to you then, but I didn't, and so I guess what I'm trying to understand, because I don't want to mess with the purpose of your bill, and I don't want to put a point of order on your bill, I don't want to do any of that stuff. If the purpose of your bill is you're just trying to do the religious part of it, I understand that. If the purpose of your bill was to mirror the federal pledge to the national flag to the star-spangled banner, then it's not getting that, because you're missing an important part. I want it to serve whatever purpose you said that you think it's supposed to serve.

RIDDLE: Well, I didn't think of the other. Our pledge is unique to Texas, and I think that we have it the way we want it, but next session, if you'd like to put that in it, then I welcome you to do that.

HOCHBERG: Okay, but why was this part a priority?

RIDDLE: I think I shared that last night.

HOCHBERG: Well, I'm sorry, it was late last night and it's hard to hear back here. You have a soft voice and sort of a smooth voice, and it's very hard for me to hear back here.

RIDDLE: I'm a horse woman, I live on 16 acres. I can holler from my house to the barn and have all the horses hear me. So I can raise my voice.

HOCHBERG: You should probably do this without microphones. I'd probably hear you better than with the sound echoing.

RIDDLE: It kind of tends to echo, does it not?

HOCHBERG: I'm sorry, okay.

RIDDLE: I think I made my point very clear last night, and I think I've made my point very clear today.

HOCHBERG: And your point is that the "under God" part is what you think is important to move over?

RIDDLE: That is what we put in there, sir. It mirrors the national pledge. It's a very simple concept and I feel like it's being redundant to have to say that over and over.

HOCHBERG: Thank you. I never mean to make anybody be redundant. Thank you, ma'am.

REASON FOR VOTE

I am and have been a Baptist all my life, and the concepts of religious liberty and separation of church and state are firmly ingrained in me. Roger Williams who lived in the 1600s is widely viewed as the father of Baptist life in America. He gave up a very powerful position in England and came to the colonies, fleeing religious persecution. However, even in the colonies he faced persecution because he wouldn't worship as the leaders prescribed. In fact, late in his life he was banished to an uninhabited island and expected to die there. When, by God's grace, he prospered there, the leader of the colony sent him a scathing letter demanding to know why he hadn't just gone ahead and died as expected.

Roger Williams risked everything for what he believed. I have not been asked to risk as much, but my belief in religious liberty is that it is worth fighting for. It would be very easy to vote yes on this bill to avoid being seen as voting against God but I am very confident in my Christian faith and my relationship with God. I will be voting no and voting for religious liberty.

SB 1832, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the billing of anatomic pathology services; providing penalties.

SB 1832 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE ZERWAS: Thank you, Representative Gattis. I appreciate the work you've done on this and the opportunity that we have had to work together on that. As I look at the bill, there are potentially some opportunities for somebody other than physicians, advanced practice nurses, and so forth. Could you relate to me whether if anything in this bill has anything to do with changing the scope of practice of these individuals?

REPRESENTATIVE GATTIS: Nothing in this bill is intended to change the ability of advanced practice nurses to perform procedures necessary to collect specimens for examination by a pathologist or to order an anatomic pathologist service. This is currently within the scope of advance practice nurses, and this bill does nothing to change that.

CSHB 2882 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE MCREYNOLDS: Let's talk a second or two about this because it's really important to Texas. I mean with the Panhandle aflame last year, and then the hurricanes hitting and so forth. The disaster contingency fund is an important thing, isn't it?

REPRESENTATIVE HAMILTON: Yes, sir.

MCREYNOLDS: And we really haven't ever as far as I know put dollars in it yet, have we?

HAMILTON: Not a whole lot of dollars.

MCREYNOLDS: I hope we do at some point in the future and it's certinally part of the debate we had in the appropriations meeting this time. I know you're schools in Mauriceville were closed a long time and that you went though a great deal of grief as did Orange, and Beaumont, and Port Arthur, and Jasper, and the other places with the hurricane. I represent Lufkin, and while the hurricane came through our area our injuries were as much as the fact that we're one of the designated shell hubs in the state and so much traffic from the golden triangle from the Houston area came up our way.

HAMILTON: I appreciate y'all opening up the doors for us and taking us in.

MCREYNOLDS: Absolutely. And I guess that's where I'm going here, I'd kind of like to get your intent here. A place that is sheltering, cause our population went from 35,000 to 135,000 virtually overnight and we had thousands and thousands of people show up there. I want to be sure that we all understand this disaster contingency fund could take care of problems like that.

HAMILTON: This would take care of your problem right there and help you out.

MCREYNOLDS: I really thank you for this bill. It's important, it's time we in Texas all need to be aware of what you're doing down there. It's a good piece of legislation, and I thank you very much.
