Our Father in heaven, we gather together this morning with thanks in our hearts for this day, for the chance to serve you, and for the chance to serve our neighbors, near and far—both by the choices we make and the actions we follow. We thank you for our country and for those who have worked to secure our rights to govern ourselves as we do. We thank you for the pause of this moment, a chance to remember who you are and to what you have called us.

Lord, please grant those gathered here your wisdom and discernment for their tasks at hand. May they see these halls of power as halls of service. May they seek to fairly and justly discharge the responsibilities for which they were chosen and elected. Please give them the needed strength, health, and endurance as the hours grow longer in the later days of this session. Be with their loved ones who maintain extra home duty to enable those here to serve this session.

Then, Lord, may all we do praise you, the just and righteous God, the kind and loving Father, the merciful Lord who has guided us with an almighty hand, calling us each by name. I offer this prayer through Jesus Christ. Amen.
