Absent, Excused — Flynn; Harless; Kolkhorst; Laubenberg; Reynolds; Smith, T.; Walle.

The invocation was offered by Bob Alderman, pastor, First Baptist Church, Rio Grande City, as follows:

Dear Heavenly Father, as we gather here in this solemn chamber today we stand before your presence in the precious and powerful name of your son, Jesus Christ. Lord, we pray for your grace and wisdom to be upon every member of the Texas House of Representatives. I pray that each of their decisions be guided by your spirit and centered in your holy will for them and the state they serve.

Father, I pray for their families today. I pray that you, in your divine grace and mercy, would protect their families, bless their children, and build closer relationships with their spouses. May each family represented here today know your presence and experience the fullness of your joy.

Lord God, today Texas faces many challenges. We are concerned about our finances, our future, and our families. Never before has the prayer, "Give us this day our daily bread" been uttered with such fervency and importance. We call on you, O Lord, to be our protection and our provision. Build the economy of this wonderful state and provide both employment and opportunity to our fellow Texans. Build strong, healthy families who live in freedom and not fear. Build Texas into the great state of your holy vision and plan.

Lord, bless the men and women who serve you by serving in the Texas House of Representatives. Bless their staff that works so diligently and everyone who serves day by day in their roles to support the mission of this body of government. We cry out for your presence in this chamber, O God of wisdom, and ask you to direct the decisions of this honorable assembly; Lord, enable them to settle the business of Texas on the best and surest foundation, giving you glory all along the way. Preserve the health of their bodies and vigor of their minds; shower down on them and the millions they represent, the true blessings from above. Build respect and unity among them so that they might reflect your kingdom.

O God, we ask for your divine protection upon the sons and daughters of not only Texas, but from all across our great country, those who have volunteered to serve in the armed forces of these United States. We pray for the success of their missions and their safe return to their homes and families. Build a hedge of protection around them, hold them safe in your hands, and be their strong shield.

Lord, today we also pray for the Texas Senate as they conduct their business and for our governor, Rick Perry, and his family. We thank you for them and their service. Today, Father, I pray that you would wrap your arms around the Texas House of Representatives and draw them in close to you. May they know your presence, seek your will, and find your peace. All this we ask in the name and through the merits of Jesus Christ, your son and our Savior. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative S. Davis who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

HB 2866 ON SECOND READING (by Harper-Brown)

HB 2866, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the electronic submission of certain documents to the attorney general and the submission of certain documents by the attorney general; imposing certain fees.

HB 2866 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HUGHES: Representative Harper-Brown, for purposes of legislative intent, I'd like to ask you a few questions. Is the fee in your bill a broad-based fee?

REPRESENTATIVE HARPER-BROWN: The fee in the bill is strictly paid for the convenience of filing the documents electronically. If you do not file the documents electronically, you do not have to pay the fee.

HUGHES: So that is not a broad-based fee?

HARPER-BROWN: No, it is not.

HUGHES: So, to file a document with the AG's office, under your bill, you don't have to file electronically and pay the fee if you don't want to. You could file by mail, by FedEx, however you want to file, just like current law, right?

HARPER-BROWN: That's exactly right, and the bill doesn't mandate that you file electronically. It simply sets that out as an option.

HUGHES: And, if you choose some other method of filing other than electronic, you don't have to pay a fee. Is that right?

HARPER-BROWN: That's right.

HUGHES: So the only people who will ever pay a fee under your bill are folks who want to pay it, because they will pay for their convenience to file electronically, is that right?

HARPER-BROWN: That's exactly right.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Hughes moved to print remarks between Representative Harper-Brown and Representative Hughes.

The motion prevailed.

HB 2866 was passed to engrossment by (Record 397): 134 Yeas, 5 Nays, 2 Present, not voting.

Amend HB 992 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) On page 1, strike lines 6 and 7 and substitute "amending Subsections (a), (b), (d), and (e) and adding Subsections (g) and (h) to read as follows:".

(2) On page 1, strike lines 12 through 16 and substitute the following:

(b) A policy adopted under this [This] section applies only to an undergraduate student who drops a course at an institution of higher education and who [only if]:

(1) [the student] was able to drop the course without receiving a grade or incurring an academic penalty;

(2) has an official [the student's] transcript that indicates or will indicate that the student was enrolled in the course; and

(3) ~~[the student]~~ is not dropping the course in order to withdraw from the institution.

(d) The governing board of an institution of higher education may adopt a policy that limits [under which] the [maximum] number of courses a student is permitted to drop under circumstances described by Subsection (b) [is less than the maximum number of courses that a student may drop under Subsection (c)].

(e) The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board shall adopt rules under which an institution of higher education that adopts a policy under Subsection (d) shall permit a student to drop more courses under circumstances described by Subsection (b) than the number of courses permitted to be dropped ~~[under Subsection (c) or]~~ under the [a] policy adopted under Subsection (d) if the student shows good cause for dropping more than that number, including a showing of:

(1) a severe illness or other debilitating condition that affects the student's ability to satisfactorily complete a course;

(2) the student's responsibility for the care of a sick, injured, or needy person if the provision of care affects the student's ability to satisfactorily complete a course;

(3) the death of a person who:

(A) is considered to be a member of the student's family under a rule adopted under this subsection for purposes of this subdivision; or

(B) is otherwise considered to have a sufficiently close relationship to the student under a rule adopted under this subsection that the person's death is considered to be a showing of good cause; or

(4) the active duty service as a member of the Texas National Guard or the armed forces of the United States of:

(A) the student; or

(B) a person who is considered to be a member of the student's family under a rule adopted under this subsection for purposes of this subdivision.

(3) On page 2, line 4, strike "An institution of higher education shall" and substitute "An institution of higher education that adopts a policy under Subsection (d) shall".

(4) Add the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumber the remaining SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Section 51.907(c), Education Code, is repealed.

SECTION _____. (a) Until the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board adopts the rules required by Section 51.907(e), Education Code, as amended by this Act, the rules adopted under Section 51.907 in effect on the effective date of this Act continue in effect, and a student who shows good cause for dropping a course as provided by those existing rules may do so notwithstanding a policy adopted by an institution of higher education under Section 51.907 before, on, or after the effective date of this Act.

(b) This section expires May 1, 2012.
