The invocation was offered by Bob King, pastor, Hill Country Bible Church, Austin, as follows:

Gracious God, we come before you today seeking your wisdom, your direction, and your insight into the governance of the State of Texas. Most of all, Lord, we seek you. You have entrusted this body of men and women with the responsibility and privilege to lead this state well. But we know, Father, that this task is beyond any one individual's capacity to handle. It is even beyond all of the collective wisdom and experience in this room. The magnitude of the calling upon these men and women requires us to call upon the intervention of our God, whose thoughts are higher than our thoughts and whose ways are higher than our ways.

Thank you, God, that you do not leave us to our own devices or require us to operate in the dark. You have given us access to you 24/7—an open door to come before you seeking wisdom and direction. Your word tells us that if we seek you with all our heart, we will find you. God, this body is earnestly seeking you. Give them a glimpse today of the way you think. Open their eyes to see into the wisdom of your ways. What is important to you, God? Help them to make your priorities their priorities. What are the hard things you're asking them to do? Give them the courage to confront challenges and the perseverance to find solutions. Who are the people with whom they need to resolve conflict? Help them to be humble and seek peace with each other so that they can be efficient and effective leaders. In what ways are they distracted, frustrated, or discouraged? As they trust you, Father, make their paths straight so that they can see clearly where you want them to go and to lead well the people of this state as they follow you.

Father, thank you for these men and women who have dedicated themselves to serve the people of this great state. I pray that you bring them a sense of fulfillment, accomplishment, and confidence as they lead under your guidance. Lord, thank you for being not just our guide, but our God. There is none like you. We give you this day, Father; may it be for your glory and the glory of your son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Madden who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

CAPITOL PHYSICIAN

The speaker recognized Representative Beck who presented Dr. Mary Helen Morrow of North Zulch as the "Doctor for the Day."

REASON FOR VOTES

Due to the lack of time to fully debate and consider Record Nos. 581, 582, and 583, I erroneously voted "no" on the motion to table, and intended to vote "yes" as I did on Record Nos. 584 and 586. However, my "yes" votes, both actual and intended, on the aforementioned record votes are due to the fact that the amendments reflected in Record Nos. 581 - 586 were not amended in the exact same manner as the amendment reflected in Record No. 580, as amended by Representative Martinez Fischer's amendment to the amendment, and also due to the lack of time to fully vet those amendments.
