We are grateful.

I pray that you will give wisdom to our leaders so their decisions will be in harmony with your divine design; understanding and patience to the people of Texas so that they may live quiet and peaceful lives; protection to our police, firefighters, and the freedom fighters around the world; and thank you for protecting our special ops this past weekend, as they ended the worldwide manhunt of Osama bin Laden, which began nearly a decade ago on September 11, 2001.

I pray that you will give us thankful hearts for the many blessings you have given us and health and wholeness to those in our state who suffer with sickness and infirmity, shortage and lack. God, forgive us of our pride, prejudice, intolerance, bigotry, and unbelief. Give us an attitude of gratitude, love, forgiveness, and acceptance.

God, please bless our government, our governor and our state legislature, with vision and passion for the future; school system with effective strategies for educating our children; business community with success and profitability; churches with spiritual fire and fervor as they minister hope to our families; and Dallas Cowboys with another Super Bowl championship. And we will thank you in the authority and awesome name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

HOPSON: Representative Branch, what about instances where an officeholder attends a conference, a seminar, or receives a meal, but does not provide services at that event?

BRANCH: The law that's currently written only requires that the officeholder provide more than merely perfunctory services at an event if the officeholder is going to receive transportation or lodging.
