The invocation was offered by Dr. Stephen Trammell, executive pastor, Champion Forest Baptist Church, Houston, as follows:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for giving us a new day to experience your abiding presence and to join you in your activity. We acknowledge our dependency upon you. We appreciate you including us in your master plan and helping us to align our lives with your agenda. In unity we claim your promise in Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Thank you, Lord, for this historic day as we participate in the 60th annual observance of the National Day of Prayer. We bless you for providing us with this sacred communication with you called prayer. We also thank you for blessing us with the wonderful opportunity and the awesome privilege of being citizens of the United States of America. Thank you for giving us the freedom to know you personally and to make you known globally. You have blessed us beyond measure so that we can live a life that honors you and benefits others.

Father, we pray blessing and favor over Governor Rick and First Lady Anita Perry as they model servitude and commitment to marriage and family. Give them favor in the eyes of the people of this great state. Surround them with godly men and women who will help them implement the vision you have given them.

I pray especially for each representative here this morning. Would you give them divine strength and supernatural muscle as they serve you and give their lives to adding value to others. Protect their covenant relationship with their spouse and inspire them to make room for marriage and to have special connecting moments with each other and to finish together. Shield their children and their grandchildren from the flaming arrows of the evil one and enable them to reach their God-given potential as they grow and develop and seek to benefit the next generation. Anoint each representative with the oil of your wisdom and splash each one with the living water of your word. Lord, thank you for becoming like us, so that we could become like you. We submit to you our lives, our families, our state, and our nation. Use us for your glory. Now speak, Lord; your servants are listening. And we pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Perry who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

CAPITOL PHYSICIAN

The speaker recognized Representative W. Smith who presented Dr. P. J. Mock of La Porte as the "Doctor for the Day."

The house welcomed Dr. Mock and thanked him for his participation in the Physician of the Day Program sponsored by the Texas Academy of Family Physicians.

SECTION 1.____. Sections 53C(a) and (b), Texas Probate Code, are amended to read as follows:

(a) This section applies in a proceeding to declare heirship of a decedent only with respect to an individual who[~~:-~~

~~(1) petitions the court for a determination of right of inheritance as authorized by Section 42(b) of this code; and~~

~~(2)] claims to be a biological child of the decedent[~~,- but with respect to whom a parent-child relationship with the decedent was not established as provided by Section 160.201, Family Code,] or [who] claims inheritance through a biological child of the decedent[~~,- if a parent-child relationship between the individual through whom the inheritance is claimed and the decedent was not established as provided by Section 160.201, Family Code].~~~~~~

(b) The presumption under Section 160.505, Family Code, that applies in establishing a parent-child relationship also applies in determining heirship in the probate court using the results of genetic testing ordered with respect to an individual described by Subsection (a) of this section, and the presumption may be rebutted in the same manner provided by Section 160.505, Family Code. [Unless the results of genetic testing of another individual who is an heir of the decedent are admitted as rebuttal evidence, the court shall find that the individual described by Subsection (a) of this section is an heir of the decedent if the results of genetic testing ordered under Section 53A of this chapter identify a tested individual who is an heir of the decedent as the ancestor of the individual described by Subsection (a) of this section.]

(2) On page 11, line 23, strike SECTION 1.11 of Article 1 of the bill, substitute the following appropriately numbered SECTION, and renumber subsequent SECTIONS of the article accordingly:

SECTION 1.____. Sections 29 and 53C(c), Texas Probate Code, are repealed.

(3) On page 12, between lines 18 and 19, insert the following:

(e) The changes in law made by this article to Sections 53C(a) and (b), Texas Probate Code, apply only to a proceeding to declare heirship commenced on or after September 1, 2011. A proceeding to declare heirship commenced before that date is governed by the law in effect on the date the proceeding was commenced, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(4) Add the following appropriately numbered SECTION to Article 2 of the bill and renumber subsequent SECTIONS of the article accordingly:

SECTION 2.____. Sections 204.151 and 204.152, Estates Code, as effective January 1, 2014, are amended to read as follows:

Sec. 204.151. APPLICABILITY OF SUBCHAPTER. This subchapter applies in a proceeding to declare heirship of a decedent only with respect to an individual who[=

~~[(1) petitions the court for a determination of right of inheritance as authorized by Section 201.052(c); and~~

~~[(2)] claims[=~~

~~[(A)] to be a biological child of the decedent or claims[=, but with respect to whom a parent-child relationship with the decedent was not established as provided by Section 160.201, Family Code; or~~

~~[(B)] to inherit through a biological child of the decedent[=, if a parent-child relationship between the individual through whom the inheritance is claimed and the decedent was not established as provided by Section 160.201, Family Code].~~

Sec. 204.152. PRESUMPTION; ~~[REQUIRED FINDINGS IN ABSENCE OF]~~ REBUTTAL ~~[EVIDENCE]~~. The presumption under Section 160.505, Family Code, that applies in establishing a parent-child relationship also applies in determining heirship in the probate court using the results of genetic testing ordered with respect to an individual described by Section 204.151, and the presumption may be rebutted in the same manner provided by Section 160.505, Family Code. ~~[Unless the results of genetic testing of another individual who is an heir of the decedent who is the subject of a proceeding to declare heirship to which this subchapter applies are admitted as rebuttal evidence, the court shall find that the individual described by Section 204.151:~~

~~[(1) is an heir of the decedent, if the results of genetic testing ordered under Subchapter B identify a tested individual who is an heir of the decedent as the ancestor of the individual described by Section 204.151; or~~

~~[(2) is not an heir of the decedent, if the results of genetic testing ordered under Subchapter B exclude a tested individual who is an heir of the decedent as the ancestor of the individual described by Section 204.151.]~~

(5) On page 19, line 6, strike "49(a), 77," and substitute "49(a), 53C(a) and (b), 77,".

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.
