The speaker recognized Representative Simmons who introduced Dr. Brent Taylor, senior pastor, First Baptist Church, Carrollton, who offered the invocation as follows:

Gracious God, we thank you for your many blessings in our lives and for your continual demonstration of your kindness and mercy. Thank you that you have blessed our nation with liberties and freedoms few know around the world. Thank you for the abundance of provision you have provided this nation.

I thank you for the great State of Texas. For the leaders who have gone before us, we thank you for their commitment, dedication, and faithfulness. For the people of this great state, we pray for your protection, peace, and blessings.

I pray for these members of the Texas House of Representatives, that you would grant them courage, firmness, vision, and faith. I pray you would richly bless them with wisdom, clarity, and strength as they lead our state. I pray you would protect each individual who is a part of this house as well as their families. I pray for your divine hand to be upon each member and their staff as they lead our state and make important decisions. May your grace be theirs, your wisdom fill their minds, and your peace support their hearts and lives.

Bless the work that will take place not only this day, but throughout this session. May you, O God, be blessed by the work of your servants. Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Toth who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.
