Absent — Sanford.

The speaker recognized Representative Toth who introduced Jason Shepperd, lead pastor, Church Project, The Woodlands, who offered the invocation as follows:

Almighty God, we praise because you are eternal, all-powerful, all-knowing, all good, the creator of all things. You are not like us, you are beyond us, and we bow before you in worship and humility. We pray to you because we depend on you, we need you, we desire your leading in our lives. We thank you for what you have given us as a people of this great State of Texas. You have given us a history of courage, leadership, and integrity. You have given us resources beyond our own ability to create. You have protected us from circumstances that have negatively affected others. You have greatly provided for us. You have given us rich and diverse land, strong and proud people, steady and sure growth, and a reputation of courage worldwide.

But now, we need you. Perhaps more than ever before, we need you. We need your wisdom, your protection, your direction, your provision, your peace. We ask you to direct us. Would you give your wisdom to these men and women who are our leaders? Would they seek your guidance and wisdom in every decision they make? As our future is uncertain, would you be their constant as we move forward? Would you show us your ways for us, and would we not divert from your path?

We ask you to protect us. Please help us see things that we cannot see for ourselves. Would you protect us in ways that we cannot protect ourselves? Intervene for us, intercede for us. Would you give us strength and courage? Would we have such confidence before you that we would not fear criticism or condemnation of men? Would we live with boldness, deciding and doing what is right, regardless of the consequences? Would you purify us? Would you convict us of any aspect of our lives that is not pleasing to you? Would you unsettle us until we confess our sin to you and until we repent? Would you rid us of sin and direct us away from sin so that we do not have to endure the consequences of our sinful choices?

Would you lead our leaders? Affect and direct the hearts of our leaders to desire only to please you. Would they first desire more to please their Creator before their constituents? Would they aim to please their God more than their governmental duties? Would our leaders be the godliest, most courageous, most honorable people in our state? Would they lead us with integrity, character, and confidence? Would they seek you alone in their closets, in their cars, walking and talking with you?

Would you preserve our great state's ability to lead in our nation? Would you increase our influence among other states? Would other states, and even other nations, look to us as leaders and examples of how to live and how to lead our people? Would the answer that we give to others of our success always give you glory and honor as the one who has provided for us, and always point to our submission to you, your ways, and your will?

Please help our leaders feel loved by you. Help them understand how intimately you know them and how deeply you love them. Please help them enjoy being loved and known by their God and Savior.

You are God. You are our God. Jesus, we live our lives for you because you gave your life for us. Because you set an example of laying down your life in obedience to God for the good of others, we too will lay down our lives in obedience to you for the good of those we serve. We love you because you first loved us, and we live for you because you died for us and gave us life. We pray all of these things in your name, Jesus. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Muñoz who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.
