Our Eternal God of grace and Divine Lawgiver, we come to you for the grace another day will require to discharge our duties and responsibilities. Help us to recognize our own inadequacies, that we may not lean on our own understanding, but acknowledge you in all our ways that you would direct our paths. Preserve our understanding from the subtlety of error, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom. Grant us strength to walk in the truth and light of your word. Guard us from being swayed by the allurements of power and popularity that would hinder us from doing the noble thing. Remind us that we are stewards of the power invested in us by those whom we serve and, though we are accountable to the people for decisions made, that we will ultimately stand before you and give an account as well.

On this National Day of Prayer, we gratefully acknowledge your providential hand in the founding of this republic and in our own State of Texas. We thank you for those men and women who have made the supreme sacrifice securing and maintaining our freedoms. May we remain vigilant in preserving those freedoms.

We confess to our shame that we have neglected you. We have called evil good and good evil. We have put darkness for light and light for darkness. We have been wise in our own eyes. Forgive us of our wicked ways and restore us to paths of righteousness.

Grant the men and women of this chamber divine wisdom, that the decisions made in this house would lead to greater prosperity and true freedom for the people of Texas. We make these requests in the blessed name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

HB 3748 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE KLEINSCHMIDT: Representative Farrar, I am curious about this bill. It is creating attorney's fees for events for dealing with cruelty to animals, is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE FARRAR: It allows—this was brought to me by Harris County—and it allows Harris County, well, and other counties too, to be able to recoup attorney's fees so that they will go after more of these cases, because they can't afford to.

KLEINSCHMIDT: Well, I'm curious—in human assault cases, I'm not aware that we can even recover attorney's fees if a human assaults a human, that their attorney's fees can be recovered, yet you are providing statutorily for attorney's fees to be recovered if there is, essentially, an assault on an animal or cruelty to animals charge?

FARRAR: Well, animals are property, and so I can't speak—this is a totally different area of the law, so, I can't speak to that.

KLEINSCHMIDT: But you are creating a new set of attorney's fees for this particular action?

FARRAR: We're allowing them to find a source of revenue so that they can go after these cases, because they are very important, because these offenders typically will graduate to hurt humans. And, so, we want to stop that.

KLEINSCHMIDT: But you understand my worry here? My worry here—

FARRAR: I understand, yes.

KLEINSCHMIDT: Is it your intent to elevate an action involving a damage to an animal; is it your intent to elevate that above an injury to a human?

FARRAR: Absolutely not. That wasn't even considered when the county brought me this bill.

KLEINSCHMIDT: Okay, so—

FARRAR: I understand your concern, but that's not a part of this.

KLEINSCHMIDT: That's not your intent?

FARRAR: Absolutely not.
