God of all creation, following a weekend when hundreds of houses of worship enjoyed celebrations of life, we join here for another daily session of our Texas House of Representatives. We are united in our reverence, faith, gratitude to you, and also united in common goals for all of our communities.

Our great Lone Star State with over 26 million residents is truly a growing and colorful garden of diversity served by men and women elected by the people. Obviously, the challenges this body of legislators face are ever-increasing, but we are persuaded that divine grace and wisdom are both sufficient and available.

May your unseen hand of kindness guide in all the thoughts and actions of business that will continue to impact our state. To you, the giver of every good and perfect gift, we offer this prayer. In your mighty name. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Simmons who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.
