INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

Today's HR 96 is to honor one of my constituents, Master Sergeant Michael C. Peña. On the dais behind me, I have Sergeant Michael Peña's nephew, Miguel Peña and his wife, Ida, along with Miguel's nephews, Edward Peña, Jr., and Michael Peña. To say the least, Michael Peña was an extraordinary man. He served in the Pacific during World War II with honor prior to volunteering to return to action in Korea where he was later killed in action. On September 4, Sergeant Peña commanded his platoon to fall back and he single-handedly held back the enemy until the morning when he was overrun and fatally wounded. Sergeant Peña gave his life during the Korean War to save the rest of his platoon.

He has received numerous decorations and awards for his sacrifice, such as: the Distinguished Service Cross, the Bronze Star, the Purple Heart with two oak leaf clusters, the Army Good Conduct Medal, and a bronze clasp with two loops. All the military people will understand those. However, it was not until March 18 last year, a year and a month ago, that the master sergeant's heroism was recognized with a Congressional Medal of Honor—the highest award of valor against the enemy force—at the White House. His photo is with the other Congressional Medal of Honor recipients from Texas down in the ground floor, north wing display.

It is a great honor that this Texas hero is from my district. He is actually one of three Congressional Medal of Honor winners from my county of Wharton. Later today, on the local and consent calendar, I will present HB 481 to designate FM 1301 in the county as Master Sergeant Michael C. Peña Memorial Highway to honor his legacy. I ask all members of the house to recognize Master Sergeant Michael Peña and his family with us on the dais and the gallery, and we want to thank his family for the great sacrifice that he made for our country.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The chair recognized Representative Hughes who introduced Sean Carter and his mother, Jenny, speaking as follows:

I can't tell you how proud we are to have on the floor of the Texas House today, Sean Carter from Winnsboro, my constituent, and his wonderful mother. Sean has a really compelling story that he's been telling all over the place. A few years back as a college student planning to go into law school, he was involved in a serious car wreck caused by a drunk driver. It was a life-changing experience—serious injuries, internal fractures, an actual injury, brain trauma. After a coma that lasted 39 days, he came out and continued his recovery. His mother took over guardianship of him at that time. Starting in 2007, as he was regaining his ability to speak through this software, he began to talk to people about the dangers of drunk driving, and that's grown and grown. Now they've taken their message to tens of thousands of young people all over the place—15 venues in 2013, 50 in 2014. So they formed the group WhenSeanSpeaks, dedicated to this mission. We're also really encouraged for another major milestone that Sean reached. In 2013, he recovered to the point that he was able to remove the guardianship, and he continues to work toward full independence.

Representative G. Bonnen addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I just wanted to share with you that in visiting with Sean and with his mom, they've said some really meaningful things in just the brief time that we've actually gotten to visit. I asked about their travels and how that must be difficult, and she said, if you just sit at home and focus on what you've lost, that really just tears you apart. They actually have embraced what has happened, and they have made the most of it. And in case you wonder the difference we can make in other people's lives, I'm going to read to you—so just indulge me for a minute here—an e-mail. The background here is that Sean was at a school, just recently, within the last few weeks, and he spoke to the school and to a group of students, and then afterward he received this message.

It says, "Today you came to my school and spoke about what has happened to you. This morning, before you got here and I heard your presentation, I cleaned out my locker and just said that it was because I needed to take some stuff home that I don't use. The real reason behind it was that I was going to commit suicide tonight. I figured it would be better since my parents wouldn't be home. When I walked into the auditorium, I had no idea what I was in for. I thought the school was putting on one of those lame presentations with the awful graphics, animations, and wording, but what I saw today changed my whole view on my life. No, I don't drink or drive yet. I don't trust anyone on the road, unless it's my best friend or parents. After your presentation, I realized that we don't have a lot in common. You're way older, male, drank, and got into a car with someone that had been drinking. But, in a sense, we are alike in one way—suicide had crossed our minds. I really appreciated the fact that you said that crossed your mind, because a lot of people won't tell you that it did. You showed me that every single minute and choice you have matter to who and what you are. Thank you for saving my life, literally. And thank you for saving my family, and best friend, and boyfriend the grief that was sure to come with the suicide. You are truly an inspiration. Thank you for everything. Stay strong, Sean."

That's a real e-mail that was just sent literally less than two weeks ago.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE GRANTED

The following member was granted leave of absence for the remainder of today because of a death in the family:

Price on motion of Geren.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Simpson moved to print remarks by Representative Hughes and Representative G. Bonnen.

The motion prevailed.
