Father God, this morning we thank you for the honor of serving you. As we begin this session today, we look to you for wisdom and a clear spirit of discernment to think on things that are excellent, powerful, right, true, and worthy of a good report. We give our whole selves away to be leaders who are strengthened and filled with courage. Instill in us the spirit of victory as we remember those who fought valiantly for Cinco de Mayo. Allow us to stand tall in our convictions and never to quit until the battle is won. So may God's grace empower us, may his mercy sustain us, and may her love illumine us as we are reminded in all we do that everyone in the great State of Texas matters and that everyone counts. In Jesus' name, I pray. Amen.

The speaker recognized Representative Springer who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.
