Gracious Father, as we come together in prayer this morning, we pray for your divine guidance in all things. This is the day you have made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. We are grateful to you for the gift of this day. Help us to make the best decisions that we can make and to entrust the rest up to you.

Give to these, our leaders, a faith in our way of life, that they may do whatever is good and right for the common good. May we have courageous leadership, great wisdom, and wise decisions based more on faith than fear.

Father, we pray for all the people of our great state. We are a melting pot of peoples. Help us to appreciate the contributions of all and the rich heritage that is ours. May we all be aware that freedom is not the right to do as we please, but the opportunity to do what is right. Give us a clear vision to know what we stand for and with whom to stand. Guide these who lead us to speak, vote, and live so as to merit your blessings. Bless all they love and serve. And through them, bless every man, woman, and child of this great state. In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

HB 1486 ON THIRD READING (by Galindo and Fallon)

HB 1486, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to a prohibition on a vendor contact with a member of the board of trustees of certain independent school districts during the procurement process.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Galindo offered the following amendment to HB 1486:

Amend HB 1486 on third reading by striking added Section 44.0353(a) and substituting the following:

(a) This section applies only to an independent school district:

(2) that has been a party to one or more causes of action involving a dispute over a vendor contract within the years 2000-2014.

HB 1486 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Coleman raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1486.

The point of order was withdrawn.

Representative Galindo moved to postpone consideration of HB 1486 until 11:45 a.m. today.

The motion prevailed.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

REPRESENTATIVE LEACH: For the body, can you say again what just happened?

CHAIR (Sheets in the chair): What just happened was that Representative Coleman raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1486. We are currently in the process of determining what course of action should be taken. So that we can move things along, both parties—Representative Galindo and Representative Coleman—agreed that we would temporarily withdraw the point of order and that we would postpone Mr. Galindo's bill until 11:45 a.m. so that we would have time to look at the point of order. Both parties have agreed that they will come up here before any further action is taken.

LEACH: So both Representative Galindo and Representative Coleman have voluntarily agreed to withdraw, not only the point of order, but the bill, temporarily, while the parliamentarian analyzes the point of order and ultimately rules on the point of order, correct?

CHAIR: That's correct. Well, the speaker rules on the point of order.

LEACH: The speaker, while he analyzes the point of order—okay. Is it the practice of the parliamentarian or the speaker to communicate with the author of the bill and the member who raised the point of order before the parliamentarian or the speaker rules on the point of order?

CHAIR: Mr. Leach, because of everything that happened yesterday, we made it very clear to both parties that we would call them up before any actions were taken regarding that bill.

LEACH: Is a member and author of a bill whose bill is subject to a point of order—let's just assume that it's a sustainable point of order—is the author of the bill, going forward, to be allowed the opportunity to withdraw and recommit the bill before a point of order is sustained?

CHAIR: That's up to the agreement of the members that are involved in the point of order on the bill.

LEACH: I think this is important. The reason I'm asking these questions is because what happened yesterday and what's happening now. It's important for the members to understand specifically what did happen and the ramifications going forward. If a member has a point of order that he or she believes is a good, sustainable point of order, are they going to be allowed the opportunity, before the speaker rules on the point of order, to allow the author the opportunity to recommit the bill and otherwise save the bill? Because that opportunity was not given yesterday. I just want to know, going forward, what the practice of this house is going to be.

CHAIR: Members, we just responded to what just happened in this particular case, and that will be the practice going forward.

REPRESENTATIVE MARTINEZ FISCHER: Just so that we're clear. My recollection of the practice of the house is that a point of order supersedes a matter on the floor when a point of order is properly called. Is that correct?

CHAIR: That is correct, sir.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Okay, and then I think it's been the practice of the house that in those instances when points of order require time and research—and we all know that the parliamentarian needs that opportunity, and no one's trying to deny that—it's been the practice of the house that both bills and points of order are temporarily withdrawn. Am I right there?

CHAIR: That is absolutely correct, sir.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: I think it's also fair to say that when the matter comes back up, that it comes back up in the manner by which it came down temporarily. I want to be careful and mindful. I know that accidents happen, mistakes get made, and we're on a new legislative day. There's nothing that can be done about yesterday. I'm not trying to reargue yesterday. It's just been my general understanding that when something's been temporarily withdrawn, when it comes back up, it comes back the very same way. In other words, no member has to do anything different. If the chair is ready to rule and dispose of the matter or bring the matter back up, it comes up the same way it was withdrawn.

CHAIR: Members, what the chair can say is once a bill is withdrawn from consideration and it's taken back up, there can be interactions on that bill that can be presented to the body.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: I would think, though, that I would ask the chair to—

CHAIR: For instance, there have been points of order raised in this session, in previous sessions, where the bill has been recommitted to committee before the bill is laid out again. There have been times when the bill has been completely withdrawn from the calendar or postponed to a later date.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: Mr. Speaker, if I may, let me just be very clear here. I think that the purpose and intent for members to temporarily withdraw matters is to extend a courtesy to the chair and the parliamentarian and those concerned to adequately have time, because we know that simply if a member who lodges a point of order and refuses to temporarily withdraw that point of order—then the body doesn't move. So I don't think it is the desire of the chair to bring everything to a grinding halt when I think, as a matter of practice, if a matter is temporarily withdrawn, then that matter will come up exactly the same way it was withdrawn so that everybody knows what's happening. There could be instances when a movement of a point of order could be temporarily out of the chamber, and somebody uses that as an opportunity to get a bill back out and recommit or to do whatever that member wants, which I don't think is really the practice of the house. I'm not asking the chair to tell me right now, if the chair wants to think about this, but I think we should be very careful. Otherwise, I think anybody who calls a point of order will have no incentive to temporarily withdraw it and then the calendar doesn't move. I don't think that's the intent of folks when they call points of order, should they wish to allow business to proceed.

CHAIR: Thank you, Mr. Martinez Fischer. To make it clear, what just happened up here on the dais was that both parties agreed that no further action would be taken on this bill until both parties were present, up here at the dais, to discuss what the next step is.

MARTINEZ FISCHER: I appreciate that—with all due respect, I do—but I also know that we shouldn't have an inconsistent standard for anybody, on any day, who decides to call a point of order. I think we have a house practice, and when people know what the practice is, then I think everybody's most comfortable. As I understand the chair, from their position, that this has happened this session. I just want the chair to understand that from my position, over the course of several terms, I very, very succinctly recall that bills that come down temporarily come back up in the same manner in which they were temporarily withdrawn. So there is a point of order that will sit on top of the bill so that all parties can be present to negotiate, get a ruling, agree to withdraw—so that bills can be recommitted. And that's just my recollection of events. I think that would be the more prudent course of action going forward. I'm not trying to reargue, relitigate what happened yesterday. We are on a new day. But just for my operation going forward, I want to be able to think that should I choose to temporarily withdraw a point of order, I don't lose that moment, if I'm out of the chamber or doing something else.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Canales moved to print remarks between Representative Martinez Fischer and the chair and between Representative Leach and the chair.

The motion prevailed.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE JOE E. MORENO

The chair recognized Representative Hernandez who addressed the house, speaking as follows:

Today marks the 10-year anniversary of the passing of the late Representative Joe Moreno. Joe served in the house from 1998 to 2005, so today we remember him and celebrate his life. And in the gallery today we have his family, his sister, Sarah Moreno Blancett. Please join me in welcoming her to the house. Joe had many friends in the chamber, the gallery, and throughout the Capitol. We invite you all to join us for lunch today from 12 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. at 1005 Congress Avenue, Suite 1000. I know there were some others that would like to share some words.

Representative Farrar addressed the house, speaking as follows:

Joe was my very best friend. And it's very hard to live on without your best friend, and there's a huge hole that will never, ever, ever be filled. I will never have a friend like Joe. You know, we had so many good times, and as I was getting dressed this morning, I was thinking about things that Joe and I did. A lot of you here say that—Garnet said he was the glue among us, and others have said just how much fun we had. We even got Garnet out to watch movies with us at some point. I remember, this morning, I was thinking of the time that Barry Miller—Barry calls us down to his office, and we're thinking, oh my God, we're in trouble. The speaker is mad at us about something. It really was that he wanted us to reach out to different freshmen members and just help them to get along. I remember another call from Barry Miller asking us if we would go down, and we did—Joe and I got in the car and drove down to Alice, and we helped candidate for office Gabi Canales. So that was my first experience down in Alice, Terry. And we had a great time. I remember Joe getting a 15-passenger van full of our hardest working block walkers, and we just took off down to South Texas and the Valley to help other members that were running there as well. We just had such a great time, and those times are sorely missed.

I wish some of you would have had a chance to know him. He would have been your friend. We sat across the aisle from each other, and I remember Kim Brimer had gone on to the senate, and he came over and said—where's Joe? And he says well, let him know that I need to find a watch for my wife for Mother's Day, and a lot of things like that. He was just full of all kinds of great times. So thank y'all for recognizing him. I do also want to let you know that I've been working with Sarah on a golf tournament to commemorate the 10 years, and the funds would go to help disabled kids. Joe has an elementary school named after him in Houston, in HISD, so the funds would go there as well. I've got the forms. I'll have them on my desk here on out. We planned it after the session, and there are still some major sponsorships that are available. There are holes to get your name on and also opportunities to play. So thanks, and come have some more fun with us in the name of Joe.

Representative Martinez Fischer addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I think all the words are very, very true about Joe. I was Joe's deskmate, and Joe was in my wedding. They don't make them like Joe any more, and if you didn't know him, you missed out. I think about him all the time, every time I get into my old pickup truck that I still have, those 20-inch wheels I bought from him—gave me a good deal. I think most of us miss getting that good deal from Joe because he always found something that came off the truck. He represented the port area of Houston. Hopefully, you can come by and have lunch with us and meet his family. If you didn't know him, you'll see Joe through his sister, his parents, and his brother. And like I said, I witnessed—I won't out the member because she didn't know about this, but I listened to her yesterday offer another member who just came here her second bedroom because this member doesn't have a place to stay. And that's exactly the way Joe Moreno was. He was the kind of person that if you were his friend, he'd give you the shirt off his back. He'd let you stay in his place, and he always took care of you. We could use a little bit more Joe Morenos around here these days.

Representative S. Thompson addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I hate to tell you all this but Joe was a good friend, and he and I were very close together. We broke up every relationship that Jessica involved herself in, except the one that she married. Joe would search out the guys, and he would call me and tell me this is not the right one, and we've got to do something about it. And sure enough, we would find a way to get to Jessica and break up the relationships. And finally, she met this military gentleman. And he called me and said, Ms. T, this is the guy. We've got to make sure that she gets this one. He was a great guy. He was bigger than life. He loved life, and he lived every day to his fullest. We miss him, but I can tell you this—he lived his life well.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Hernandez moved to print remarks by Representative Farrar, Representative Martinez Fischer, Representative Hernandez, and Representative S. Thompson.

The motion prevailed.

HB 1018 was read second time on May 1 and was postponed until 9 a.m. today.

Representative Geren moved to postpone consideration of HB 1018 until 10 a.m. Saturday, July 4.

The motion prevailed.

HB 1486 ON THIRD READING

(by Galindo and Fallon)

HB 1486, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to a prohibition on a vendor contact with a member of the board of trustees of certain independent school districts during the procurement process.

HB 1486 was read third time earlier today, an amendment was offered, and HB 1486 was postponed until this time. Amendment No. 1 was pending at the time of postponement.

HB 1486 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Coleman raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1486 under Rule 4, Section 40; Rule 8, Section 10; Rule 11, Section 2 of the House Rules and Article III, Section 56(a) of the Texas Constitution on the grounds that the committee substitute attempts to create a local bill by amendment and is not germane to the bill.

The speaker overruled the point of order and submitted the following statement:

Representative Coleman raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1486 under Rule 4, Section 40; Rule 8, Section 10; and Rule 11, Section 2 of the House Rules and Article III, Section 56(a) of the Texas Constitution on the grounds that the committee substitute attempts to create a local bill by amendment and uses an artificial bracket with no reasonable relationship to the purpose of the prosed legislation. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

A "committee may adopt and report a complete germane committee substitute. . . ." Rule 4, Section 40 of the House Rules. However, Rule 8, Section 10(b) of the House Rules prohibits bills limited by population brackets or other artificial devices unless the bill "classifies political subdivisions according to a minimum or maximum population or other criterion that bears a reasonable relation to the purpose of the proposed legislation. . . ." Rule 8, Section 10(b) of the House Rules. The Texas Constitution generally prohibits local laws, with some exceptions that are subject to public notice requirements. TEX. CONST. art. III, § 56(a) ("The legislature shall not, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, pass any local or special law. . . ."). Finally, Rule 11, Section 2 of the House Rules bars any "motion or proposition on a subject different from the subject under consideration" from being admitted as an amendment or substitute for a measure under debate. Rule 11, Section 2 of the House Rules.

Representative Coleman notes that HB 1486 originally applied to all school districts in the state. He asserts that the committee substitute impermissibly added an artificial population bracket to Section 1 of the bill. The bracket in the committee substitute makes the bill apply "only to an independent school district any part of which is located in a county with a population of more than 1.5 million in which more than 75 percent of the population lives in a single municipality." Representative Coleman argues that HB 1486, which everyone agrees is a general law, was transformed by the bracket contained in the committee substitute into a local bill in violation of Rules 4, 8, and 10 of the House Rules and the Texas Constitution. See Rule 4, Section 40 of the House Rules; Rule 8, Section 10(b) of the House Rules; Rule 11, Section 2 of the House Rules; TEX. CONST. art. III, § 56(a). He further asserts that this bracket bears no reasonable relation to the purpose of the bill.

HB 1486 would prohibit communication in certain circumstances between members of the board of trustees of an applicable independent school district and "an actual or prospective bidder or offeror relating to a request for proposals or an advertisement for bids. . . ." Although the bracket contained in the committee substitute was not included in the bill as originally filed, the bracket's classification scheme applies uniformly, is broad enough to include a substantial class or geographic area and the membership of the class may expand or contract over time, and is based on characteristics that legitimately distinguish, in relation to the public purpose to be served, the class or area from other classes or areas. See 83 H.J. Reg. 2065 (2013) (Stickland point of order on HB 127); cf. 83 H.J. Reg. 2828 (2013) (Dutton point of order on Amendment No. 3 to CSHB 1790). Having reviewed the bill and the committee substitute, the chair determines that CSHB 1486 is germane to the bill as filed, is not a local bill, and is not limited in its application by an impermissible artificial device. See Rule 4, Section 40 of the House Rules; Rule 8, Section 10(b) of the House Rules; Rule 11, Section 2 of the House Rules; TEX. CONST. art. III, § 56(a).

Amendment No. 1 was adopted. (Rinaldi recorded voting no.)

Yeas — Allen; Alonzo; Alvarado; Anchia; Anderson, C.; Anderson, R.; Ashby; Aycock; Bell; Bernal; Bohac; Bonnen, D.; Bonnen, G.; Burkett; Burns; Burrows; Button; Canales; Capriglione; Clardy; Coleman; Collier; Cook; Craddick; Crownover; Cyrier; Dale; Darby; Davis, S.; Davis, Y.; Deshotel; Dutton; Elkins; Faircloth; Fallon; Farias; Farney; Farrar; Fletcher; Flynn; Frank; Frullo; Galindo; Geren; Giddings; Goldman; Gonzales; González; Guillen; Gutierrez; Harless; Hernandez; Herrero; Howard; Huberty; Hughes; Hunter; Isaac; Israel; Johnson; Kacal; Keffer; Keough; King, K.; King, P.; King, S.; King, T.; Klick; Koop; Krause; Kuempel; Landgraf; Larson; Laubenberg; Longoria; Lozano; Lucio; Márquez; Martinez; Martinez Fischer; McClendon; Metcalf; Meyer; Miles; Miller, D.; Miller, R.; Minjarez; Moody; Morrison; Muñoz; Murphy; Murr; Nevárez; Oliveira; Otto; Paddie; Parker; Peña; Phelan; Pickett; Price; Raney; Raymond; Reynolds; Riddle; Rinaldi; Rodriguez, E.; Rodriguez, J.; Romero; Rose; Sanford; Schofield; Schubert; Shaheen; Sheets; Sheffield; Simmons; Simpson; Smithee; Spitzer; Springer; Stickland; Thompson, E.; Thompson, S.; Tinderholt; Turner, C.; Turner, E.S.; Turner, S.; VanDeaver; Villalba; Walle; White, J.; White, M.; Workman; Wray; Wu; Zedler; Zerwas.

HB 996 ON SECOND READING
(by Parker)

HB 996, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the effect of certain agreements with a collective bargaining organization on certain state-funded public work contracts.

HB 996 was read second time earlier today and was postponed until this time.

HB 996 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Martinez raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 996 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is incorrect.

The chair overruled the point of order and submitted the following statement:

Representative Martinez raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 996 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is incorrect, provides insufficient detail, and is materially and substantially misleading. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules requires each committee report to include "an analysis of the content of the bill or resolution. . . ." Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules. HB 996, in part, disallows both an institution of higher education and a governmental entity "awarding a public work contract funded with state money" from "prohibit[ing], requir[ing], discourag[ing], or encourag[ing] a person bidding on the public work contract, including a contractor or subcontractor, from entering into or adhering to" certain agreements. HB 996 also disallows these entities from discriminating against such a person "based on the person's involvement in the agreement, including the person's: (A) status or lack of status as a party to the agreement; or (B) willingness or refusal to enter into the agreement."

The bill analysis does not specifically address either the bill's description of "a person" as "including a contractor or subcontractor," nor does it address the bill's description of relevant bases of discrimination as including "status as a party to the agreement" or "willingness or refusal to enter into the agreement." Representative Martinez asserts that the failure of bill analysis to specifically reference these provisions renders the analysis incorrect, insufficient, and misleading in violation of Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules. HB 996 does not limit a person bidding on a public work contract to contractors or subcontractors; rather, subcontractors and contractors are referenced as non-exclusive examples of the types of people included in this category. Similarly, the prohibited bases of discrimination mentioned in the bill—status as a party to the agreement and willingness or refusal to enter into the agreement—also constitute non-exclusive examples of prohibited discriminatory bases. Because the language of HB 996 is broad enough to reasonably include more than the above-referenced examples, the bill analysis's reference to the broader category in which the examples were included sufficed to satisfy Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules. For these reasons, the chair determines that the bill analysis is neither incorrect, insufficient, nor misleading. See Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2) of the House Rules.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Walle offered the following amendment to HB 996:

Amend HB 996 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) On page 2, between lines 2 and 3, insert the following:

(b-1) Notwithstanding Subsection (b)(1), an institution of higher education may require a person bidding on a public work contract, including a contractor or subcontractor, to enter into or adhere to an agreement with a collective bargaining organization relating to the public work contract if the person is not insured and bonded.

HB 996 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE C. TURNER: I was listening to your dialogue with Representative Howard, and I just want to understand. Is there an example of a project, PLA, that you're trying to ban with this bill in Texas that has gone wrong, or caused a problem, or hurt the economy?

REPRESENTATIVE PARKER: As I said earlier, representative, in terms of PLA agreements there are PLA agreements that have been used on private projects here in Texas that have been successful in the private sector. So again, this bill is not prohibiting the use of PLA agreements in the future. We're just really allowing contractors to have the choice of whether or not they intend to bid a project using a PLA or not. We're giving them discretion in allowing the state, using state money on a state project, to determine what is best based on value and quality.

C. TURNER: Okay. For example, it's my understanding that the Toyota plant in San Antonio is an example of a project that has used a PLA. If this bill had been in effect, would they have been able to do that?

PARKER: Absolutely. Just like up in the North Texas area there's another Toyota facility as well that, it's my understanding, utilized a PLA agreement in the private sector. So this bill would have no effect on them. We're talking about projects that are using state resources, and we're just leveling the playing field. PLAs are not being disallowed.

C. TURNER: Obviously Toyota is a private project but there were state funds involved. As I recall, it was Texas enterprise funds involved. So if there were state economic development funds involved, then would it have been affected?

PARKER: Well, if state enterprise dollars were involved then the contractor would have the choice of bringing a PLA agreement or not. We wouldn't prohibit a PLA, by any means.

C. TURNER: Okay, I truly want to understand this. In the case of Toyota, even though there was state and probably local incentive funds involved in that plan in San Antonio, your bill would not prohibit a PLA in that case. It would still leave the option to—

PARKER: The option of a PLA could be used for the next—hopefully Toyota will want to build many other plants in the future.

C. TURNER: I hope so, too. We want one in Arlington. Actually, we're a GM town. I take that back.

PARKER: I grew up in Arlington, so I understand GM well.

C. TURNER: Going forward, if it's a Toyota in the future or any other major project—and my understanding is these are usually pretty complicated types of projects. These aren't like building a building. These are complicated projects, like the South Texas nuclear power plant and Toyota manufacturing facility, where these agreements come into play. They could still do those, under your bill, if they chose to, even if state incentive funds were involved?

PARKER: That's right. We allow the contractor to make the decision. That's correct, representative.
