We ask for your blessing on all of us who serve in any capacity, especially our elected representatives as they take on the business of the great State of Texas. Surround them with your favor, and help them to approach their work with humble servant hearts. When faced with making difficult decisions, may they turn to you and find you faithful to guide them. Share with them the abundant wisdom that is spoken of in your word. May they always seek to obey your will and do good. Keep their motives pure, and bestow upon them your righteousness, love, and mercy through your gift of grace.

Lord, you have blessed the State of Texas, and we all thank you for your provision. May those charged with governing be faithful stewards and never lose sight of the fact there are those less fortunate and in need. May they be gracious to them and to all whom they serve.

Spread your protection over these who serve, their staff, and most of all, their families. Keep their marriages and families strong, especially as their service takes them away from home. May we all find shelter in your presence, as you are our fortress, our rock, our stronghold, and our deliverer. In Jesus' name. Amen.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The chair recognized Representative Murr who introduced family members of Master Sergeant Rodney Lee Buentello (Ret.) and representatives of Bandera County, speaking as follows:

Members, the resolution you just heard spoke of retired Master Sergeant Rodney Buentello. He was a father, a son, a Marine, a friend, and a hero. I am joined today by Representative Minjarez, who is the state representative for the Buentello family.

Just to summarize what you heard so that it's clear. On June 8, 2016, in Bandera, Texas, the Medina River was at 100 percent capacity following a flood event just days before. It was brown and full of debris; it was churning. The Buentello family was visiting Bandera City Park where a dam is located across the Medina River. An unidentified teenage girl attempted to walk across the top of the dam in violation of city ordinance. She was swept over the dam and trapped and caught in the hydraulic undertow at the foot of the dam from the floodwaters. A teenage boy jumped in the water in an attempt to rescue her, and he, too, was succumbed to the hydraulic undertow and trapped. Retired Master Sergeant Buentello, without hesitation, went into the water. Struggling among the debris in this brown and dirty water, his actions saved the lives of those two teenagers. His actions were and are nothing but heroic.

For his sons, Ryan and Roman, who have lost their parent, I give you this. When I was 13 years old, my father also died, trying to rescue a drowning man after jumping from a helicopter to reach him. It is a loss for which no words can properly describe. But I will remind you that we are made who we are by adversity and challenges, both big and small, that we face in our lives. Your father faced these under some of the most grueling and indescribable conditions in four tours of duty, and he succeeded. You, too, will face obstacles in life, and I know in my heart that you will find strength and patience and resolve and perseverance when you focus on your father and all that he accomplished. When you feel at your weakest, his spirit will be there to encourage, reassure, and guide you.

Our prayers are with the Buentello family today. They are with us on the dais behind me: widow, Lisa; sons, Ryan and Roman; father, also a retired Marine, Raul; and mother, Yolanda. Also joining them are Mr. Jeff Jilson with the Bandera County River Authority and Groundwater District, who was integral in transferring information to my office, and Mr. John Stith, the Bandera fire marshal and leader of the team of first responders that helped save the two teenagers.

Representative Minjarez addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I met Rodney Buentello when I was in my last election. I actually block walked his home, and we spoke at length about his dreams for his children and how he wanted to make the district and the world a better place for them. He is a solid example of heroism, and he gave himself always throughout his life. He gave himself to protect us as a member of the Marines. He gave himself to the students at his alma mater, John Jay, where he taught and coached track and football. And he gave of himself to save the lives of two teenagers. So I ask, members, that you continue to keep his family in y'all's prayers.
