Heavenly Father, we stand here today in agreement that all good things come from you. Therefore, we give you the glory for your son and the many good things we experience in our lives here in the great State of Texas. Help us to be good stewards of what we've been given and to make the most of every opportunity. Grant every man and woman in this room the wisdom to lead well. Help each of us to be humble and yielded as you guide our decision-making. Most of all, we ask for your continued blessing over our cities, our businesses, our schools, our churches, and our homes. We ask these things in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The chair recognized Representative Zwiener who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

CAPITOL PHYSICIAN
