The invocation was offered by Tom Buck, senior pastor, First Baptist Church, Lindale, as follows:

Almighty God and Father, we give you thanks for another day you have given us to serve you. You are the source of goodness and mercy, so we pray today that you would touch the minds and hearts of those who lead our great State of Texas. Grant them wisdom and insight to make effective decisions that are for the common good of our state. May they remember that you, O Lord, have appointed them to govern our people. Let them be steadfast, unmovable, and abounding in this work of the Lord, knowing that their governance is not in vain in the Lord. As we walk crooked paths through perilous times, may your light be a lamp unto our feet. May each of us walk together with humility and meekness, forbearing one another in love, keeping the unity of the spirit in the bond of kindness, until we all come into the harmony of faith and the knowledge of God unto a more perfect union, till we are no longer children tossed and carried about by every wind of thinking. Teach us to number our days and apply our hearts unto wisdom. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and unless the Lord builds this house, our governance is for naught. Lord Jesus, build this house. Amen.

The chair recognized Representative K. Bell who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

HB 347 ON THIRD READING

(by P. King, Huberty, C. Bell, Larson, et al.)

HB 347, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to eliminating distinctions in the application of consent annexation requirements.

Amendment No. 1

Representative P. King offered the following amendment to HB 347:

Amend HB 347 on third reading by striking the SECTION of the bill adding transition language and substituting the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill:

SECTION _____. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, the changes in law made by this Act apply only to an annexation of an area that is not final on the effective date of this Act. An annexation of an area that was final before the effective date of this Act is governed by those portions of Chapter 43, Local Government Code, that relate to post-annexation procedures and requirements in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(b) The changes in law made by this Act do not apply to the annexation of an area for which the governing body of a municipality has adopted a resolution to direct the municipality's city manager to prepare a service plan for the area on or before the effective date of this Act. An annexation of an area for which the governing body adopted a resolution to direct the municipality's city manager to prepare a service plan for the area before the effective date of this Act is governed by Chapter 43, Local Government Code, as it existed on January 1, 2019.
