Eternal Father, we give you thanks for the gift of life, for the life of each representative in this house of the great State of Texas. You have beautifully reminded us of your humble sovereignty. You indeed are Lord of all creation. Lord, as we begin this day, we ask your blessing that your holy hand may enlighten and firmly guide us as we seek to preserve and promote the dignity and life of all of our people. May this body of legislators always recognize it is their sworn vocation to assist you in administering your benevolence, that an atmosphere of true peace and liberty may prevail in our great State of Texas and throughout the world. Help us to always recognize that it is pride that creates barriers of hate but humility that builds bridges of love and communication. We ask this grace, as we do all favors, in your most holy and loving name. Amen.

The motion prevailed.

HR 1393 - ADOPTED
(by Cain)

Representative Cain moved to suspend all necessary rules to take up and consider at this time HR 1393.

The motion prevailed.

The following resolution was laid before the house:

HR 1393, Recognizing April 2019 as Autism Awareness Month.

The chair recognized Representative Cain who addressed the house, speaking as follows:

April is National Autism Awareness Month, a time the nation draws its attention to the special gifts of millions of Americans with autism spectrum disorder. Throughout the month of April, we join countless families to recognize those who are on the spectrum and spread the word about the importance of research, awareness, and advocacy. According to the CDC, autism spectrum disorder is a reality for an estimated one in 59 individuals in America. While each person experiences it differently, life on the autism spectrum is usually characterized by a struggle to communicate with others, interpret social cues, and adapt to behavioral norms. For some, life with this condition is immeasurably difficult, if not seemingly impossible. Yet for others, being on the spectrum is not necessarily a barrier to leading a productive and successful life. In fact, being on the autism spectrum can be a valuable part of our identity. I say our identity because I, too, am one of the millions of Americans on the autism spectrum.

For the first time I'm publicly speaking up about my own experience with Asperger's syndrome, a condition on the autism spectrum. Members, right now I suspect many of you are thinking to yourself, so that explains it. And yes, your assumptions are correct—that's why I'm highly intelligent. For the last line, you can blame the speechwriter. The media doesn't often get it right, Fox News included. But when they portray every person with Asperger's as some sort of eccentric genius, well, then they probably got it right. I, along with countless others who experience these challenges brought on by Asperger's and autism, communicate and express myself in a way that is different from others. If I don't maintain eye contact with you, it's not an intentional nonverbal cue of disrespect. Body language—reading it and appropriate use of it—does not come naturally for those on the spectrum. Sometimes the things I say or do may come off completely different than what I intended, but I'm sure you've never noticed that. The bottom line is, if I have to go to the back mic with a point of order that might potentially derail your bill, it's probably just a big misunderstanding. So just go with it.

In all seriousness, with April being Autism Awareness Month and with the Texas House having open and honest conversation about the realities of learning disorders such as dyslexia, I was inspired to come forward and share my story in hopes of changing the conversation surrounding autism. For the Texas children struggling to come to terms with their autism, I want you to know that I've been in your shoes. My experience is not universal, and many Texans have it much, much harder than I do. But I also believe I have the opportunity and the platform to empower younger generations who have to work every single day to overcome those same obstacles that I do. The unfortunate reality is that autism never takes a day off. It has no cure. As far as we know, we can't make it go away. Instead, our focus should be on maximizing the potential and improving the quality of life for every person on the spectrum. That starts with raising awareness and having an honest conversation about our own experiences. April is yet another opportunity for us to do that. I hope y'all will join me in recognizing the month of April as Autism Awareness Month in Texas. Thank you.

HR 1393 was adopted.

HR 1269 - ADOPTED
(by Gervin-Hawkins)

Representative Gervin-Hawkins moved to suspend all necessary rules to take up and consider at this time HR 1269.

The motion prevailed.

The following resolution was laid before the house:

HR 1269, In memory of former state representative Ruth Jones McClendon of San Antonio.

The chair recognized Representative Gervin-Hawkins who addressed the house, speaking as follows:

Members, this is a great day for us in honoring one of our own as we honor the memory of Representative Ruth Jones McClendon, who passed on December 19, 2017, at the sweet age of 74. Ruth served as the state representative for Texas House District 120 from 1996 to 2016. As a member of the house, she was dedicated to doing whatever she could do to make our community a better place to live. She passed numerous bills and filed countless others all with the intention of bettering District 120. She also served for two terms as the chair of the House Committee on Rules and Resolutions during the 83rd and 84th Legislative Sessions.

Ruth was far more than just a politician. Before being elected to the house, she served for 17 years as a juvenile probation officer. She made it part of her life's work to work with children who had made mistakes and to help them to turn their lives around. Ruth also served on the City of San Antonio City Council as the mayor pro tempore from June 1993 until August 1996. Ruth cared about ensuring that students learn about the political system and established the Ruth Jones McClendon Legislative Scholars Program with The University of Texas at San Antonio. The program offers students an internship in the Texas Capitol during legislative sessions from January through May, and I have continued this program. In November 2015, Ruth's service to our community was commemorated by the opening of the Ruth Jones McClendon Learning Academy at the George Gervin Academy. Named in her honor, this middle school focuses on setting children on the right path from a young age. This past year, the school received an A letter grade, all in the name of Ruth. In February 2016, St. Philip's College, the only historically African American- and Hispanic-serving college nationally recognized, opened the Honorable Ruth Jones McClendon Collection as the final highlight of their African American Heritage Month celebration. The collection holds hundreds of artifacts accumulated during Ruth McClendon's years of service. Ruth McClendon believed that St. Philip's was a jewel of the East Side, and it is appropriate that her collection find its home at the school.

I think I speak for everyone when I say that Ruth is missed. She was a great member of the house and a dedicated servant. I am proud to call her a friend, and I am proud to serve with her as my predecessor. Her work touched and inspired so many throughout our community and will undoubtedly continue to do so far into the future. Ruth—I call her "the lady called Ruth"—worked tirelessly to serve the people of District 120, and again, I am proud to follow my predecessor.

HR 1269 was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

On motion of Representative Y. Davis, the names of all the members of the house were added to HR 1269 as signers thereof.

The chair recognized Representative Rose who addressed the house, speaking as follows:

As many of you know, Representative McClendon and I shared a special bond through our sisterhood in our sorority, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and I really thought about her today with all the red jackets. Because usually when we have Red and White Day, we have a room full of sorors who are here in their red attire, and I always tease about the fact that the Republican Party hadn't tapped into the African American community that much. I am so honored to be able to be here to recognize her and how special she was to me. One of the things that she did before she left—she did give me several tasks that she wanted me to complete—one of the things was Minority Cancer Awareness Month, which is April. I will be coming forth with a resolution on that, but the date that we were scheduled to have Minority Cancer Awareness Month was the day that my father passed, giving me a greater reason and for me to have a greater voice on the issue. I'm just thankful that I had the opportunity to know and love her.

The chair recognized Representative Y. Davis who addressed the house, speaking as follows:

I, too, want to join my colleagues in honoring the legacy of Ruth Jones McClendon. Ruth was a graceful woman, elegant in her own way but very forceful and very committed to what she was trying to achieve. And when Representative Gervin-Hawkins talks about her commitment to her district, she was committed to the State of Texas. She worked tirelessly in all efforts around the state as it relates to improving the quality of life for others, and so we're all benefiting from her efforts and her commitment to making life better for everyone. This honor is certainly something and this resolution is certainly something that we should recognize as befitting a leader like Ruth Jones McClendon. We want to thank her family who allowed us to have her as long as we had her here in this chamber making a difference for all of us. Because you know we all spend a lot of time away from our families, so they lose time when we gain time. So we want to thank them for allowing us to have Ruth with us and sharing her time and let them know that we continue to remember her legacy and the kinds of issues that she fought for. We all wake up trying to be as good as Ruth was on any given day, so thank you for that.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

The chair recognized Representative Gervin-Hawkins who introduced family members and friends of the Honorable Ruth Jones McClendon.

Speaker Bonnen addressed the house, speaking as follows:

Ruth was a classmate of mine. We came in together, and the only person cooler than Ruth Jones McClendon was Denver. Denver knows how much I loved Ruth, and I love Denver. I'll never forget the time that Denver was on the college board, and Ruth was opposing the college board's bonds. You remember that, Denver? That was a fun time. Ruth was unafraid and courageous, and for those of you who remember, she never missed a day in this body even though she was very, very, very hard battling cancer. Ruth is a friend I will never forget, and I will never forget her extraordinary service and her courageousness in her battle through cancer. There were days that I didn't understand how she was getting to and from the floor, but she did it, and she got back the next day. Denver, we love you, and we miss Ruth.

MAJOR STATE CALENDAR
HOUSE BILLS
SECOND READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read second time:

CSHB 1545 ON SECOND READING
(by Paddie)

CSHB 1545, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the continuation and functions of the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission, including the consolidation, repeal, and creation of certain licenses and permits; changing fees.

CSHB 1545 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE LAMBERT: First of all. I want to thank you for all the hard work you've done on this bill during the interim and during this session. As a fellow member of Sunset who also participated in the process, I wanted to ask you just a couple of questions about legislative intent for CSHB 1545. As I recall, among the Sunset recommendations that were incorporated into CSHB 1545, one of significance involves the consolidation of a variety of alcoholic beverage permits and licenses, changing certain key terms and definitions for businesses that manufacture beer or ale, and it ultimately recommended combining those into one brewer's license for malt beverages. Is that an accurate statement?

REPRESENTATIVE PADDIE: Yes, that is correct.

LAMBERT: And as part of that adoption, was it your intent as the author to change, modify, or alter any portion of the Tax Code or to change how manufacturers of beer or ale are currently treated relative to their tax liability?

PADDIE: No, that was not my intent nor was it the intent of the Sunset Commission when adopting the consolidation of certain alcoholic beverage permits or licenses.

LAMBERT: So I'm correct in stating that it's your intent, in connection with the consolidation of license changes in CSHB 1545, that the proposed changes to the term "manufacturer's license" to a "brewer's license" does not alter the tax treatment by the comptroller or any other taxing jurisdiction so long as they remain operating in the same fashion as they have prior to the change in this term? Is that an accurate statement?

PADDIE: Yes, that is correct.

Amendment No. 7 - Point of Order

Representative Geren raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 7 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules. The point of order was sustained and the speaker submitted the following ruling:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

on Amendment No. 7 to House Bill 1545

Announced in the House on April 25, 2019

(Nevárez in the chair)

Representative Geren raises a point of order against further consideration of the Raymond Amendment to HB 1545 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules on the grounds that the amendment is not germane.

HB 1545 extends the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission under the provisions of the Texas Sunset Act. Under the expanded germaneness provisions of the cited rule, any amendment relating to the "organization, powers, regulation, and management" of the Commission is germane. The Raymond Amendment would authorize local option elections to approve the sale of liquor on Sundays.

In the opinion of the Chair, the subject of the amendment is the conduct of local elections. Even under the expanded germaneness rule, the amendment is not on the same subject as the bill.

Accordingly, the point of order is well-taken and sustained.

The ruling precluded further consideration of Amendment No. 7.

Amendment No. 8

Representative Rodriguez offered the following amendment to CSHB 1545:

Amend CSHB 1545 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) for responsible consumption on the manufacturer's premises; or
