AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

ROMERO: The reason for this amendment, members, is you heard there's a discussion that HB 24 would require the child witness' physical presence for the enhancement to apply. This amendment would effectively address concerns that simply requiring a child to hear an act of domestic abuse could potentially allow for prosecutorial overreach. So what we're doing is we're removing the language "to hear." They would have to be in the physical presence. This bill, as amended, still recognizes the victimization of child witnesses, attributes responsibility for that victimization where it belongs, and allows us to build a system to connect children who witness domestic violence to the services that they need.

REPRESENTATIVE WU: Representative Romero, I'm going to ask you some questions about your legislative intent. Is that okay?

ROMERO: Yes.

WU: First of all, I want to start off with saying I really appreciate your willingness to work with us. I sincerely appreciate your passion and your diligence on this issue. I know in talking to you that this is something that's very, very important to you, and I really, really appreciate how much diligence you've given this bill.

ROMERO: Well, I know it's equally important to you. Otherwise, we wouldn't have spent hours talking about it this morning.
WU: Absolutely. You’ve spoken with other members, and you’d listened to some of the comments on the floor yesterday about concerns that the bill, as written, would wrap up cases where children might be even outside of the home. Correct?

ROMERO: That’s correct.

WU: And what your amendment does is it strikes the second subprovision of the bill and requires that the child must be actually present in the room. Correct?

ROMERO: That’s correct.

REPRESENTATIVE CANALES: Representative, first I want to thank you for some of the dialogue that you and I had, that you actually listened and that you were trying to craft some better legislation. And I agree that the amendment does make it better. My question is this: Is there any evidence whatsoever that you can point to that can show that enhancing this crime by a child seeing it is actually going to have any deterrent effect on family violence or domestic violence? Because deterrence is one of the primary functions of the criminal justice system.

ROMERO: Chairman Canales, what I can tell you is that in the City of Burleson, they’re already gathering this information. The City of Burleson issues a ticket now, and what it’s allowed for that city to do is allow their police department to communicate with their local ISD and let the police department and the school district know—hey, Johnny or Billy or little Terry witnessed this act of domestic violence. So there’s value in that communication. Currently, as it is right now, a separate act isn’t recognized, so there’s not a separate charge for that child witnessing that act. So it’s not seen. I think you mentioned yesterday that there isn’t anything that’s physically there—you can’t see the harm.

CANALES: And I understand that, but my question is is this—and there’s no question, you saw the vote on your bill yesterday, and there’s nothing in my mind that believes that this house is not going to vote for it—I just want to have a dialogue between you and I that really establishes this. As I’ve been here in the legislature, my fourth term, we’ve moved away from enhancements—and there is no question that this is an enhancement.

ROMERO: There is no question.

CANALES: Okay, so if it’s an enhancement, what does it do for us? Is it going to slow down domestic violence in any form or fashion? Is there any evidence? Because all evidence, to the contrary, shows that enhancements have no general reduction in actual crime and they have no general effect on recidivism, which are the general purposes of the criminal justice system. We want to deter people from doing it, and we want to keep them from doing it again, and we want to punish them. But punishment is only one leg. So two legs—this doesn’t accomplish any of them.

ROMERO: Well, what it will accomplish, Chairman, is for the first time ever, police officers will be allowed to be trained in how to, when they get to the crime, ask the spouse, were the children witnesses to this crime? If they were, if the answer is yes, then hopefully document that. I want to say that this is what this is about as well. So you’re looking for—are we going to deter domestic violence—how could I potentially answer that? I'm not a prosecutor to tell you what has happened in the past. But what I can tell you is that at that act when it's the first time, they will now know that hey, if this happens and it happens in the presence of your children, you might be locked away for a greater period of time. I would hope that's a deterrent. If it isn't a deterrent, at the very least those children are going to have an interaction with that local police officer. And that local police officer—if we have responsible police departments—they're going to be trained in how to communicate with little Ramon or little Terry or little Johnny. And that interaction, in my belief, is going to be a positive interaction between them.

CANALES: That would be after the occurrence, Representative.

ROMERO: That's correct.

CANALES: What I'm talking about is that the functionality of your bill is to enhance a crime. And having sat on the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee for six years, I can tell you that there is nothing—nothing—that shows enhancements stop or slow down the frequency by which crimes are committed. That's not the driving force. And enhancements do not slow down recidivism once a person's been released. My only point here is this: This is just an enhancement, and it serves as no—no—deterrent, and it serves as nothing that stops recidivism. If you want to stop domestic violence and this house wants to stop domestic violence, then we've got to figure out how to foster a culture outside of enhancing crimes. I appreciate you working with us. I appreciate the intent.

ROMERO: I appreciate your passion as well, Chairman.

CANALES: Like I said, there's no question in my mind this body will vote for it because we have no choice but to vote for it. Because if you vote for something against this, you just look terrible. But with all due respect, this is the kind of legislation that is actually going to harm more people than help them. Thank you.

ROMERO: Chairman, I thank you for those questions. And for the body, currently, if there's an act of domestic violence that occurs where the children are present, it's comparable right now to public lewdness, vehicle burglary, perjury. I think those things aren't even in the same ballpark.

(Goldman in the chair)

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

REPRESENTATIVE TOTH: Members, I just want to thank Mr. Romero. I know his heart is in the right place. I served with Mr. Canales on the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee, and I was a big believer in all these enhancement bills. I thought they were great, and then you start seeing the statistics and the outcome. I served both Corrections and Criminal Jurisprudence. Criminal Jurisprudence is policy. Corrections is the outcome of that policy. And the outcome of these enhancement policies has been bad all the way across the board. They don't help us. They don't lower recidivism rates; they increase them. This is a bad bill. I think we should vote against it.
REPRESENTATIVE ANCHIA: I just wanted to visit a little bit because I think part of the discussion has been about penalty enhancements, but I wanted to talk to you a little bit more about, kind of, that cycle of violence. I spent a little time looking at the medical journals on this issue and the psychological journals on this issue. And isn't it the case that when children observe domestic violence in their home, that it exponentially increases the chance of that occurring in their generation and in their children's generation? It becomes a cycle of domestic violence where people who observe this abuse commit this abuse. Is that not right?

ROMERO: Not only is that correct, but those children are also 1,500 times more likely to be victims of abuse within that household. Six times—we talk about suicide prevention? They’re six times more likely to become victims of suicide. Yet we don't take it seriously when that police officer shows up. We don't even ask them to take the child's name down. And this is the beginning of asking that law enforcement—take these kids' names down. Have an interaction with that child. Don't just be the officer that takes mom and dad away. Be there and talk to that child and say, it's going to be okay, and this is why it's going to be okay.

ANCHIA: And it also opens up the door for interventions for that child, right? If that child has viewed this traumatic event, viewed this family violence, then by recording the incident properly, some social services or even on a private basis—they can seek the type of interventions that child's going to need to not become either abused or an abuser in the future. Is that not correct?

ROMERO: That’s correct. We spend lots of dollars on these social service programs, and a lot of times they’re not even accessed just because of fear. This is going to remove the stigma from police to child, between the abused to the police department. There’s so much value here. This is just a start. I know that there’s a lot of concern about enhancements, and I get it. But I think that beating your spouse in front of your children is a lot more severe than theft of a car—not a whole car, even, but just stealing something out of someone’s vehicle or some of the other lesser offenses that currently are Class A offenses. So thank you for your questions, Chairman.

ANCHIA: Yes, I just wanted to make sure. I understand and I believe the questions earlier were definitely heartfelt and important public policy questions, but I also wanted to bring the focus back to the children who are seeing this and experiencing the trauma.

ROMERO: So it’s three times—to be specific, Chairman Anchia—it’s three times more likely to repeat the cycle in adulthood themselves.

POSTPONED BUSINESS

The following bills were laid before the house as postponed business:

HB 3345 ON SECOND READING
(by Price, Lucio, Paul, Guillen, Lambert, et al.)

HB 3345, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to health benefit coverage provided by certain health benefit plans for telemedicine medical services and telehealth services.
HB 3345 was read second time on April 24, postponed until May 1, and was again postponed until 10 a.m. today.

HB 3345 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE SCHAEFER: Chairman Price, in your bill where you talk about a platform, are you trying to incorporate that platform definition into the definition of a health benefit plan?

REPRESENTATIVE PRICE: No, what we're trying to do is make sure that there's flexibility so that the health care provider is given the freedom to use whatever modality, whatever platform they want, in order to provide telehealth services. Because the problem that some of the providers have encountered is that insurance companies are restricting them to a certain platform, and so that's been very restrictive. So what we're saying is that if they're going to cover a service and it can be provided through telehealth or telemedicine, that that provider in their own independent medical judgment can choose the platform to deliver that service.

SCHAEFER: Would this in any way interfere with physicians who are providing direct primary care?

PRICE: No.

SCHAEFER: And would it in any way restrict physicians that are using a platform—like you describe it—to provide, say, a concierge program or a subscription-based program for their own direct primary care?

PRICE: No.

SCHAEFER: Okay, so this is more freedom for health care providers?

PRICE: Absolutely.

MAJOR STATE CALENDAR
HOUSE BILLS
SECOND READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read second time:

CSHB 4621 ON SECOND READING
(by Huberty)

CSHB 4621, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the state sales tax rate and the use of certain revenue from state sales and use taxes to reduce school district maintenance and operations ad valorem tax rates; increasing the rate of a tax.

CSHB 4621 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HUBERTY: Before I start, and I’ve talked to many of you already about this, it’s my intent to postpone both of these bills. However, I want an opportunity to explain how we got here. First of all, I would be remiss not to start with thanking all the members of Ways and Means that were supportive of the process of trying to figure out a way to continue to pay for education on a go-forward basis. Many of you know that I’ve spent my entire career working to try and solve the system that we have, that is, we know, to be broken. We go back home and our school boards tell us that they expect us to pay more of the cost of education. With Chairman Zerwas' leadership this legislative session, the appropriators found the ability for us to find $9 billion to go back with that actually provides meaningful tax relief in HB 3. However, we also said we have to find a meaningful way to continue to pay for education on a go-forward basis, and I know there's going to be some colleagues of mine that are going to be asking some questions. I want to also just thank the body here in the house who have allowed me and our membership to work together to find the right way to do this. I see Chairman C. Turner back there, and I’ve talked to Representative Martinez Fischer and other members of the democratic caucus along the way to try to come up with solutions. And I appreciate that opportunity to be able to be thoughtful and open and honest about our discussions. I think that that’s important.

But I do want to say a couple of things that are important. Number one, in HB 3 that we passed over to the senate—now we got it back and we’re going to hopefully go to conference—we did have a statewide compression and it lowered taxes by 5.5 percent. So you have members of the senate—in fact, if you watched the debate yesterday, there were members of the senate that have been demanding property tax relief for their entire legislative careers but did not vote for the only bill that provided tax relief this legislative session. And people have asked about long-term property tax relief in their local properties. This is an idea that was brought up, and I filed the bill to talk about this. I believe in a consumption tax versus property taxes. I always have and never walked away from that in the 10 years. But I want to let you all know that we have been working with the governor, the lieutenant governor, and the speaker. The three of them stood out and said this is important for us to provide meaningful tax relief as you go forward. And they stuck their necks out there and said this is something that we think is important, that we think we need to do. We need to have the discussion about how we’re going to pay for this on a go-forward basis.

And so while these bills and the HJR would do a one percent increase, the intent of that is that 100 percent of that revenue would go to schools. It’d go to your local districts to pay for maintenance and operation—every school in the State of Texas. And if you looked at that, the values would drop by 18 cents in 2020 and 24 cents statewide, which is a 16 percent and 22 percent decrease in the cost. It would have increased our share of education by up to 50 percent, which is something that we’ve all said. Chairman Geren filed a bill that said we should pay for 50 percent of the cost of education in the State of Texas. This would be one way for us to accomplish that goal. So I appreciate all of you allowing me to work with you and as we go forward. But what I realize is that we have the opportunity to do something meaningful with SB 2, which was passed and Chairman Burrows is working on, and certainly with HB 3 in actually providing meaningful school finance reform and actually meaningful tax relief as we go forward. And so I look forward to working with Chairman Taylor, and I respect the work that they’ve done. Again, we may have some questions, and we can talk about how we got here. But I think it’s important for people to know that.

REPRESENTATIVE K. KING: Chairman Huberty, you just stated that one of the tasks of this legislative session wasn’t just to reform school finance but to come up with a sustainable way of funding. Is that correct?

HUBERTY: That is correct.

K. KING: Chairman Huberty, isn't it also true, though, that conversation of reforming school finance as well as sustainable funding has been going on a lot longer than this session.

HUBERTY: Absolutely. Yes, sir, Mr. King.
K. KING: In fact, in the last session, in the special session following the 85th, didn't we create a school finance commission to study just that thing?

HUBERTY: We absolutely did. Yes, sir.

K. KING: And weren't you and I both a member of that commission?

HUBERTY: Yes, sir, we were.

K. KING: Do you recall, Chairman Huberty, how many times we met during 2018 to discuss this very issue?

HUBERTY: Well, yes. I actually have the facts here. We actually met 15 times in public meetings—and that was the full commission—met 15 times in public meetings, January through December of 2018.

K. KING: And didn't you chair one of the subcommittees?

HUBERTY: Yes, sir. I chaired the expenditures work group.

K. KING: Do you remember how many subcommittees there were?

HUBERTY: There were three.

K. KING: Do you know what the other two were? Can you tell the body?

HUBERTY: Yes, sir. It was outcomes and then the revenues work group.

K. KING: That is the same information I remember, Mr. Chairman. Do you remember which subcommittee I was a member of?

HUBERTY: I believe you were in the subcommittee on revenues.

K. KING: Do you know who chaired that subcommittee?

HUBERTY: Senator Bettencourt.

K. KING: That is correct. Would it surprise you to know that the most important, in my mind, the most important subcommittee only met four times during the entire year of 2018? Would it also surprise you to know that one of those meetings was merely a conference call that lasted minutes? The second meeting happened in June, where the entire subcommittee was allowed to give recommendations that Senator Bettencourt then would add to this report, which is the School Finance Report, as recommendations to the legislature. Further, Mr. Chairman, would it surprise you that we did not have another meeting until the end of November?

HUBERTY: I was aware of that. Yes, sir.

K. KING: And when we had the meetings and we had all the recommendations to Senator Bettencourt, are you aware that he did not take up any of those?

HUBERTY: I am aware of that. Yes, sir.

K. KING: And did you also know, Mr. Chairman, of the almost 60 pages of this report that includes recommendations, your subcommittee recommended 15 ways to improve how money is spent? Are you aware that the revenue subcommittee only recommended three?

HUBERTY: Yes, sir. I am.
K. KING: And just a couple more things, Mr. Chairman. Of the recommendations, the number one recommendation was the increase in general revenue. Can you tell this body how much we increased general revenue in HB 3?

HUBERTY: $9 billion.

K. KING: That's correct. And how much of that was spent to reduce property taxes?

HUBERTY: $2.7 billion.

K. KING: Absolutely. That's the information I have. The next recommendation was to use money from the economic stabilization fund, or the rainy day fund. Mr. Chairman, did HB 3 use any money from the ESF?

HUBERTY: No, it did not.

K. KING: The third recommendation that came from Senator Bettencourt was expanding the sales tax base. Did we expand the sales tax base this session?

HUBERTY: We did not.

K. KING: Mr. Chairman, did Senator Bettencourt file one piece of legislation to create sustainable funding for the issue of school finance?

HUBERTY: No, he did not.

K. KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I find it very odd that the expenditures committee can come up with 15 recommendations, but the Texas Senate doesn't want to pay for it. I appreciate your leadership and your work. With that, thank you for the questions.

REPRESENTATIVE BURROWS: Chairman Huberty, I want to make sure the full picture is painted. There was actually a second work group that was formed at the behest of the governor leading on this issue early in session. Is that right?

HUBERTY: This is correct.

BURROWS: And if I remember correctly, it was not only the governor but the speaker, lieutenant governor—everyone working together—you, myself, Chairman Zerwas, and our counterparts in the senate. Is that correct?

HUBERTY: That is correct.

BURROWS: And I think the goal of the meeting was to find a sustainable revenue source to drive down school property taxes M&O funding. Was that the goal?

HUBERTY: That was the goal.

BURROWS: And we wanted to do that to lower every Texans' property tax bill?

HUBERTY: That's correct.

BURROWS: And also to increase the state share of funding for our schools?

HUBERTY: That is correct.

BURROWS: And we had a number of meetings, is that right?
HUBERTY: That is right.

BURROWS: And I think we considered multiple options.

HUBERTY: That's correct.

BURROWS: And I think at least my counterpart in the senate was at every single meeting, every single minute, best I could remember. Is that your memory as well?

HUBERTY: That is my memory as well.

BURROWS: Did you hear anyone at those meetings object a single time to the idea of the swap?

HUBERTY: No, sir, I did not.

BURROWS: Did you hear anybody breathe a word that this might not be something they couldn't live with?

HUBERTY: I did not.

BURROWS: Did you hear them advocate loudly or with any sort of vigor that maybe we should do something else other than the swap when we started to come up with this idea?

HUBERTY: I did not. We had other ideas like the ASF, which we passed the house joint resolution for—which, by the way, they included that—which increases the contribution from the land board and the GLO. That was included in part of their proposal that Senator Watson actually offered as an amendment to the committee substitute for HB 3 out of the senate. So they did take a couple of the recommendations. But that was another bill that I carried that provides additional revenue.

BURROWS: But with respect to using sales tax to drive down M&O school property taxes, was there a single word uttered at those meetings where someone had any bit of concern over going that potential route?

HUBERTY: No. In fact, as you recall, in the discussions that centered around that, we had a white board talking about different ideas and concepts. The governor was leading that working group in connection with the lieutenant governor and the speaker, who were all very engaged, and Senator Nelson and Representative Zerwas and yourself and Chairman Taylor, and it was collaborative. We were all working together to try to find a solution. That is correct, yes, sir.

BURROWS: And we left those meetings going forward with this idea. In fact, you filed the bill to do this, and our governor, lieutenant governor, and speaker got out in front of it because everybody in those meetings was in agreement that this was the path forward, and we needed to bring it to the body to accomplish the things we set out as a goal. Is that fair?

HUBERTY: That is exactly right. Yes, sir.
BURROWS: All right. You know, I want to thank you. I want to thank the speaker. I want to thank Chairman Zerwas, the lieutenant governor, Senator Nelson, Senator Taylor, and everybody on the team who actually cares about this issue and trying to work forward to finding solutions. I know this is not going to be the solution for this session. I know we’re going to continue to work on it. But I appreciate you working in good faith, with candor and honesty, to try to come up with ideas to drive down property taxes and to bring the state share up. I think your objective is very noble, and I appreciate your hard work. Sorry we didn’t get there this time.

Representative Huberty moved to postpone consideration of CSHB 4621 until 12 p.m. Tuesday, January 12, 2021.

CSHB 37 ON SECOND READING
(by Minjarez, Larson, Zedler, Pacheco, Kuempel, et al.)

CSHB 37, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the creation of the criminal offense of mail theft.

CSHB 37 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE MINJAREZ: Mail is one of the most accessible ways to obtain someone's personal information. Theft of this sensitive information could lead to more serious crimes such as identity theft, check forgery, credit card abuse, and account takeover. Currently in the Texas Penal Code, mail theft is not defined. CSHB 37 seeks to define mail theft in statute. Mr. Speaker, I have an amendment.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Minjarez offered the following amendment to CSHB 37:

Amend CSHB 37 (house committee report) on page 1, lines 14 and 15, by striking "appropriates mail" and substituting "intentionally appropriates mail from another person’s mailbox or premises".

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

MINJAREZ: This clarifying amendment simply strikes "appropriates mail" and substitutes "intentionally appropriates mail from another person’s mailbox or premises." This removes any vagueness in the offense itself and strengthens the requisite intent to commit the offense.

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Wu offered the following amendment to CSHB 37:

Amend CSHB 37 (house committee report) by striking page 1, lines 12 and 13, and substituting the following:

or other sealed article that:

1. is delivered by a common carrier or delivery service and not yet received by the addressee; or
2. has been left to be collected for delivery by a common carrier or delivery service.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE WU: A bunch of us actually carried this similar type of bill. This is the porch pirate bill. This is people stealing packages that have been delivered to your home. I don't know if this is a big concern for y'all, but I know when I go home, the one thing people keep asking me about—after school finance—is, have you guys done something about the porch pirates yet? This is an addition that would basically put my bill into hers. It's just a one-line change that says it's not just deliveries that are being dropped off, but also, if you're leaving a package to be picked up by UPS or another carrier, that should be included as well.

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

REPRESENTATIVE TINDERHOLT: I want to clarify something. Amazon packages, any packages getting dropped off at my doorstep, doesn't matter what it is—does it have to be in my mailbox or does my front doorstep count?

MINJAREZ: Front doorstep counts. Both count.

REPRESENTATIVE LARSON: So the motivation behind this—San Antonio Police came to me, and they've talked to you. I've had two packages stolen on my front porch while we were in session. It was some sportswear that I bought, and basically the police don't follow up. You've lost whatever those folks have stolen. In our neighborhood, we've got a group of people that follow the UPS truck, the FedEx, the postal service, and when they see packages being dropped off, especially if the property isn't fenced and is unattended, we're having issues. So with this bill, you're trying to raise the profile up and make it something that the police will get out and pursue. Is that what your motivations are?

MINJAREZ: Yes, Representative Larson. In fact, this gives our local law enforcement officers the tools they need to help stop this type of behavior, especially by professional mail thieves, and actually gives teeth to the statute so they can actually prosecute at the local level.

CSHB 37, as amended, was passed to engrossment.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Wu moved to print all remarks on CSHB 37.

The motion prevailed.

CSHB 1116 ON SECOND READING

CSHB 1116, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the limitations periods for certain suits against real estate appraisers and appraisal firms.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Wray offered the following amendment to CSHB 1116:

Amend CSHB 1116 (house committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Subchapter D, Chapter 154, Civil Practice and Remedies Code, is amended by adding Section 154.074 to read as follows:
Sec. 154.074. RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES BY CONTRACTUAL APPRAISAL PROCESS. A party must invoke a contractual appraisal process that resolves disputes over the amount of loss not later than the 60th day after the date the party receives or submits, as applicable, written notice of the dispute. The parties may invoke the appraisal process after the period described by this section by mutual agreement in a separate written agreement.

CSHB 4448 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Cain raised a point of order against further consideration of CSHB 4448 under Rule 8, Section 1(c), of the House Rules. The point of order was overruled and the speaker submitted the following ruling:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

on House Bill 4448

Announced in the House on May 7, 2019

Representative Cain raises a point of order against further consideration of CSHB 4448 under Rule 8, Section 1(c), of the House Rules on the grounds that the caption fails to include the required statement concerning the general effect of the bill on a criminal offense created by the bill.

Representative Cain argues that the bill creates a new criminal offense because the bill alters a statutory definition that is an element of the offense of operating an unmanned aircraft over certain critical infrastructure facilities. Under current law, a person commits an offense if the person operates unmanned aircraft over six classes of critical infrastructure facilities only if those facilities are fenced or surrounded by another physical barrier to entry. The bill amends the definition for these six classes to provide that a person commits an offense if the person operated unmanned aircraft over those facilities if they are conspicuously marked by signs. Representative Cain argues that changing the statutory definition makes unlawful what was once lawful and thus creates a new criminal offense that is required to be noticed in the caption.

The Chair notes that, in Texas, statutory definitions underlying the elements of an offense do not control, and are not required to be set out in, charging instruments. Crim. Proc. Code arts. 21.03, 21.17; Sollers v. State, 664 S.W.2d 726, 727-728 (Tex. App.–Dallas 1983, pet. ref’d). When the Legislature amends a statutory definition underlying or constituting the elements of an offense, Texas courts look to whether the new definition requires something more than the old definition. See Sollers, 664 S.W.2d at 727-728. Under both current law and the bill, the prohibited conduct is operating an unmanned aircraft over the six classes of facilities. While perhaps unclear, the purpose of the fence and physical barrier is to provide notice that the conduct is prohibited. The addition of the sign provisions serves the same purpose of providing notice of the prohibited conduct.

Because the bill does not require a prosecutor to show anything more than a cause and effect relationship between the defendant's conduct and the prohibited result, the change in definitions does not materially alter the elements of the offense. See id. Thus, the bill does not create a criminal offense requiring notice in the caption.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Tinderholt moved to print remarks between Representative Springer and Representative Cain on CSHB 4448.

The motion prevailed.

Amendment No. 1

Representatives Cain and Canales offered the following amendment to CSHB 4448:

Amend CSHB 4448 (house committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumbering the SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION ____. Section 28.03, Penal Code, is amended by adding Subsection (l) to read as follows:

(l) It is a defense to prosecution under this section that the actor used a shotgun to damage or destroy an unmanned aircraft that was being operated in violation of Section 423.0045, Government Code.

SECTION ____. Section 28.03, Penal Code, as amended by this Act, applies only to an offense committed on or after the effective date of this Act. An offense committed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose. For purposes of this section, an offense was committed before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurred before that date.

HB 1888 ON SECOND READING
(by G. Bonnen, Noble, Springer, et al.)

HB 1888, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to temporary branch polling place hours of operation.

HB 1888 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE G. BONNEN: Members, this legislation deals with a practice known as rolling polling. The flexibility of polling locations was designed to accommodate more voters near their homes and their workplaces. But some subdivisions of the state have abused this flexibility, targeting desirable voting populations at the exclusion of others. This practice known as rolling polling has resulted in selective vote harvesting. HB 1888 confronts this problem by requiring that each polling place during any election be located at a set location for the duration of the early voting period. This will ensure that no polling location may target certain populations over others. Additionally, HB 1888 will deter confusion by establishing that polling locations remain at a single accessible place throughout the early voting period. The predictability in voting places following the implementation of this bill would provide reliability and accessibility for all voters.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Bucy offered the following amendment to HB 1888:

Amend HB 1888 (house committee printing) on page 1 by striking lines 13 and 14 and substituting the following:

SECTION 3. Section 85.062, Election Code, is amended by adding Subsection (c-1) and amending Subsection (e) to read as follows:

(c-1) The early voting clerk may establish temporary branch polling places that may be changed not more than once each day during the early voting period, if the polling places:

(1) are established only for the primary election and the general election for state and county officers;

(2) are adopted by the commissioners court not later than January 15 of the election year; and

(3) are located to ensure access to early voting:

(A) for residents of places that are geographically situated outside the city in which the main early voting polling place is located;

(B) for residents of nursing homes or other long-term care facilities, or retirement centers or similar residences; or

(C) for students enrolled in institutions of higher education.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE BUCY: Members, this amendment permits that for primary and general elections for state and county officers an early voting clerk may establish temporary early voting locations if they are adopted by the commissioners court by January 15 of the election year. This amendment simply will ensure access to early voting for rural voters, for residences of nursing homes, retirement centers or other long-term care facilities, and for students enrolled in institutes of higher education. This amendment does not give new authority to early voting election clerks in terms of establishing temporary early voting locations, also known as mobile voting. Instead it seeks to narrowly address a specific problem we heard about when this bill came before the Elections Committee from stakeholders and citizens who came to testify. This amendment does not affect the purpose of the bill. This amendment simply maintains access to early voting for the primary and general elections especially for our seniors, our rural voters, and our students.

REPRESENTATIVE ANCHIA: Representative Bucy, you walked through the need for your amendment, but I’d like to understand it a little bit better. Can you explain exactly how your amendment fits into the bill and why it’s needed?

BUCY: So we’ve heard a lot of these types of bills in the Elections Committee, and one of the concerns is how mobile voting can be used in certain bond election stuff. We heard a lot of that testimony. This amendment, though, specifically is ensuring—

ANCHIA: Well, can I ask about that testimony? How ubiquitous do you think these abuses are, by the way? Just based on the testimony you heard, is this an isolated case that would cause us to change state law or do you think it’s widespread?

BUCY: I’ve heard about it in a couple of instances. In my county we haven’t had any cases of this to my knowledge, and this is why I really bring this amendment. Our county consistently relies on mobile voting, and we use it for our most rural areas and for our colleges and our senior citizen homes. So it’s a way to really get out to our small counties that average about 300 to 400 votes—our small cities where we can’t really maintain a full-time election center, but we’ll take it for a day or two—and it’s consistent how we do it to make sure those people have easy access to voting.

ANCHIA: So why did you choose primary elections and general elections only for this amendment?

BUCY: I mean, honestly, I was trying to come up with something that I thought the body would see as a compromise to make sure we’re ensuring that those without vehicles and other mobility access could still have easy access to the ballot. This amendment only went so far, with the attempt of trying to find compromise.

ANCHIA: And any fiscal note, any fiscal impact?

BUCY: No, there wouldn’t be any on this.

G. BONNEN: I want to say first off, I really appreciate Representative Bucy. He came to me with this earlier in the day, and we had a really good dialogue about it, and he’s been very professional and respectful of the process. I certainly appreciate his perspective. However, I want to be clear that in this legislation any Representative G. Bonnen moved to table Amendment No. 1.

BUCY: I want to thank Dr. Bonnen as well for meeting with me on this issue. I will ask you to vote against tabling. As I said earlier, in Williamson County, just using my own county, we use this as a way to make sure our rural voters and our senior voters, and our students—people without mobility access—can get out and vote.

REPRESENTATIVE SPRINGER: When you talk about rural—you know, the guy who has 22 counties, I can tell you that is absolutely not a problem in our district. This amendment is not needed to be able to do that. It has been used. We've actually had a challenge where they've tried to move these things around specifically trying to decide local election type of deals. I just see this as being a problem, and it'll be a worse problem in rural Texas.

BUCY: Well, I appreciate you bringing that up. I would say, as you highlighted, they're local elections. This is limited to the primaries and the generals. This doesn't impact—this amendment doesn't impact local elections. And as we heard testimony in committee, it was about issues with local elections. That's why I made this amendment with the intention of it being a compromise tailored to our general and our primaries and does not impact the local elections. As I said earlier and just using my county as an example, we have some of these small cities which will have 300 total voters. If we don't get this amendment on, our elections office will have to pay to keep that site open for two weeks of early voting as opposed to two days or one day as they do now. It's been very consistent. You can go back and look at the records that this is a consistent way that they've done it to make sure these individuals have access to the ballot.

REPRESENTATIVE FIERRO: Representative, can you tell me why your amendment specifically brings out or mentions community colleges and nursing homes?

BUCY: Just as we're trying to hit rural communities—and if you look at the amendment it has to be one of those areas—so it's for our rural communities; it's for our community colleges where a lot of time kids don't have access to mobility, meaning a car or public transportation access; and it's for our senior citizen homes with the same issue. We're trying to hit the three communities where it's harder to get to a place to vote because of lack of transportation to make sure that they still have the right to vote.

FIERRO: Thank you, Representative.

BUCY: Absolutely. Well, I ask you to vote no on tabling, as I think this amendment will ensure that we can make sure that individuals still have access to vote while also not intervening with—what I believe to be the intent of the bill is—the local issue, since this amendment has nothing to do with local elections.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Zwiener offered the following amendment to HB 1888:

Amend HB 1888 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) Strike page 2, line 9, and substitute "SECTION 5. Section 85.064, Election Code, is amended by amending Subsection (b) and adding Subsection (b-1) to".

(2) On page 2, line 11, strike "Early" and substitute "Except as provided by Subsection (b-1), early [Early]".

(3) On page 3, between lines 1 and 2, insert the following:

(b-1) Notwithstanding Subsection (b), the authority establishing a temporary branch polling place in a county located wholly or partly in an area that at any time during the preceding three-month period was declared to be a disaster area by the governor or by the president of the United States shall determine the hours during which the voting is to be conducted at the polling place.
AMENDMENT NO. 2 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE ZWIENER: Members, this is a straightforward amendment that makes sure that our counties and other political subdivisions that have experienced a disaster have more flexibility in implementing elections. It exempts them from the terms of this bill so that they have the flexibility they need to be able to effectively hold an election with facilities that are potentially not entirely operable. I urge you to support this amendment because it allows our counties to hold elections despite any issues.

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: Your amendment deals with declared disaster? What situations are we talking about? Do we define that in the amendment?

ZWIENER: Yes, it is an area that has experienced a declared disaster as declared by either the governor or the president of the United States. So it's actually quite a high bar.

MOODY: For the body, what instances are we grabbing with that language? What are we getting after?

ZWIENER: Hurricanes, severe tornadoes, severe flooding, severe wildfires.

MOODY: So are there any instances, in the area that you represent that would have qualified for this exemption if it were the law back then?

ZWIENER: Yes, potentially the Halloween floods in Wimberley and the rest of Hays County in 2015 could have triggered this language. It actually could have triggered it for Travis County as well because they were impacted by that flooding, too.

G. BONNEN: And again, I wanted to thank Representative Zwiener for coming to me earlier and having a really good discussion about this. So again, to be clear—and my community has lived through natural disasters so we know what that experience is like—but this bill does not preclude any location from being used. It doesn't preclude any number, more or less, of locations being used. It simply says choose your location and use it throughout the early voting period. I think that's something that is quite manageable.

Representative G. Bonnen moved to table Amendment No. 2.

ZWIENER: Members, I want to thank Dr. Bonnen as well for working with me on this amendment despite the fact that we do disagree. Of course, there is nothing in his bill that precludes a location from being open that full two weeks. However, there is also no ability for a county or other jurisdiction holding an election to compel a location to be open for a full two weeks. So the situations I'm concerned about are ones where government buildings are damaged and the only facilities available for the full early voting period are private facilities that may not be willing to be open during that time. So members, I hope that you will vote against the motion to table this amendment, and vote in support of members of our communities being able to vote after a disaster that has damaged traditional polling locations.

Amendment No. 3

Representative Zwiener offered the following amendment to HB 1888:

Amend HB 1888 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) Strike page 2, line 9, and substitute "SECTION 5. Section 85.064, Election Code, is amended by amending Subsection (b) and adding Subsection (b-1) to".

(2) On page 2, line 11, strike "Early" and substitute "Except as provided by Subsection (b-1), early [Early]".

(3) On page 3, between lines 1 and 2, insert the following:

(b-1) Notwithstanding Subsection (b), the authority establishing a temporary branch polling place located more than five miles from a publicly owned building shall determine the hours during which the voting is to be conducted at the polling place.
AMENDMENT NO. 3 - REMARKS

ZWIENER: Members, this is an amendment I'm bringing because of the way my district uses temporary polling locations. We use temporary polling locations because there are areas where we have population centers but we do not have government buildings that are consistently available for the full two-week early voting period. Instead, the community utilizes churches in particular—churches that are not willing to give their space up for a full two weeks but are willing to give it up for three or four days. So what my amendment does is it exempts a location from this requirement if that location is at least five miles away from the closest public building. I want to say that I wish every single voting location could be open a full two weeks, but I think we have to recognize some of the practical barriers to that, including centers of population that do not have county buildings that the county can compel to be open for that full time.

BUCY: Representative, could you give us a few examples from your district where this would come into play?

ZWIENER: One example is the entire area of my district that's east of I-35. In particular, the City of Kyle has struggled to find early voting locations east of the interstate. And the one they finally found was a church called Icon Church that has graciously opened its doors to the community, but they don't want to have voting there for a full two weeks. It's disruptive to their services. Another example is east of Dripping Springs. It's an area where everyone in that area commutes into Austin, but the closest polling location is west of there. They would have to drive 45 minutes to an hour out of their way to vote. Instead, a local community center owned by a neighborhood has been gracious enough to open, again, for three days during the early voting period.

BUCY: Are these rural areas or suburban areas?

ZWIENER: These are suburban areas. Though there is actually—in my small towns, Blanco County ends up opening for just two days in the city of Blanco over the weekend because it's not practical for them to be open the full two weeks.

G. BONNEN: To be clear, there's no requirement in this bill that a polling location be a public location. It may be any location. The only requirement is that it be available to the voters throughout the early voting period.

Representative G. Bonnen moved to table Amendment No. 3.

ZWIENER: Members, I respectfully ask you to vote against the motion to table. Again, while I really admire the aims of this bill to ensure that every early voting location is open the full two weeks, unfortunately in some communities that just isn't practical because of the lack of government-owned buildings that the county can compel to be open and available for the full period. So with that, I respectfully ask you to oppose this motion to table.

Amendment No. 4

Representative C. Turner offered the following amendment to HB 1888:

Amend HB 1888 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) Strike page 2, line 9, and substitute "SECTION 5. Section 85.064, Election Code, is amended by amending Subsection (b) and adding Subsection (b-1) to".

(2) On page 2, line 11, strike "Early" and substitute "Except as provided by Subsection (b-1), early [Early]."

(3) On page 3, between lines 1 and 2, insert the following:

(b-1) Notwithstanding Subsection (b), the authority establishing a temporary branch polling place located on the campus of an institution of higher education shall determine the hours during which the voting is to be conducted.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE C. TURNER: The amendment would remove all institutions of higher learning from this bill, and let me tell you the reason why I’m bringing this amendment. In Tarrant County, which I represent, our Tarrant County elections department does a very good job running the early voting process, and part of what they do is they do have temporary locations at different college campuses around the county. Now, it's not practical to have an early voting location for the entire two weeks of early voting at every single college campus, but what is practical is to rotate temporary locations two to three days at a time throughout our colleges and community colleges. For instance, last year, October 23rd through 25th, which was Tuesday through Thursday, they had early voting available at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Texas Wesleyan University, and University of North Texas Health Science Center. Then on the 30th and 31st, they had early voting available at three Tarrant County College campuses—the northeast campus in Representative Stickland’s district, the northwest campus, and the south campus. On October 29th and 31st, then, they had early voting at The University of Texas at Arlington, where about 44,000 students attend on campus, and at Texas Christian University. And I gave you those examples because for those of you familiar with Tarrant County, that is all over the county geographically. This is not geographically centered in one part of the county. So everybody in the county is getting access to these temporary locations.

REPRESENTATIVE HINOJOSA: I'm sorry to interrupt you, Chairman Turner, but I'm curious as to why college campuses, in your view because of your amendment, are of particular concern when it comes to Texans voting?

C. TURNER: Sure, and I appreciate the question. I think they’re of particular concern and I think they should be treated differently in this bill because college students are different. College students oftentimes live on campus or right near campus. They may not own a vehicle or have access to a vehicle because they walk everywhere or ride a bike. So there is a convenience factor to make voting accessible to college students. When you're a student, you're on campus at class throughout the course of the day, and it may not be practical to get off campus and get to an early voting site down at the grocery store five miles away before they close at 5 p.m. or 7 p.m., whichever time it closes. Offering that convenience so all college students have the ability to vote if they choose to exercise their right, I think, is an important thing to do. And I think increasing opportunities for young people to participate in the electoral process is never a bad thing.

HINOJOSA: One of the things that I’ve experienced—and I'm not sure if you've experienced this in your district, too—at UT here in the district I represent is college students not being able to wait all that long in line because they have to catch a class. So witnessing college students leaving a polling place and hoping to come back later when it’s more convenient because they just can’t simply wait in line—is that your experience?

C. TURNER: Well, that’s exactly right. Those of us running for office like to see long lines. We like it when people are voting, but obviously we know lines can be a deterrent to some people participating in the election. And at permanent early voting locations, the ones that are there year after year, voters do get used to going to those. They become sort of the go-to places and those are the places that tend to attract long lines. That can be a deterrent to anyone but particularly to a college student that may have trouble getting there or may be limited on time. Whereas with these temporary locations you don't have a lot of non-college student voters coming to those locations, right? Those are there just for the people on that campus and maybe the employees that work on that campus.

HINOJOSA: And were you aware that young people—age 18 to 24—their voter turnout is not quite maybe what our generation’s turnout is now or was at that time. Did you know that?

C. TURNER: Well, that's right. The data shows that younger Americans, including here in Texas, do not participate in elections at the same rate as older Americans do. And that's a shame because the millennial generation is a huge demographic numerically. We need them to be engaged in the political process for the future of our country and the future of our state because they're going to be running this place before too much longer, and we need them engaged in the political process.

HINOJOSA: In fact, in the recent election there was a lot of controversy at Prairie View A&M over early polling places, and they had to decide whether they were going to have people voting. In fact, it has been an issue, and as a result I filed a bill to try to get access to more polling places for students. And it was not successful this session, but I know there have been some issues. I'm sorry, I misspoke. I said our generation, and I was actually comparing our current millennials to baby boomers, and I know you and I aren't quite the baby boomer generation.

C. TURNER: Not quite. You, definitely not. I'm not quite in that generation.

HINOJOSA: I think we're about the same. But yes, 18- to 24-year-olds. Did you know that baby boomer turnout was 26 percent? And in the recent Pew study that I see, it says millennials at that age only turnout at 20 percent?

C. TURNER: Yes, it is substantially lower, certainly compared to baby boomers but even Generation X, our generation, I guess. It is substantially lower. And part of that is access. We know millennials are much less likely to own a car than we were when we were 20 or 22 years old. They don't want to own a car for whatever reason, so transportation becomes an issue. The cost of housing, particularly on or around a college campus, is expensive. So a lot of times they're very much confined to where they can walk to or ride a bike to. Why would we not make an early voting place available to them for two or three days at a time during a major election?

G. BONNEN: Respectfully, I encourage college students to vote, and in this bill the territory that's having the election can put a voting machine on every campus, and they can leave it there for the entire early voting period. If you allow this to become temporary and move them around, how do you decide who benefits from that? You know, people work, they have children—everybody has obligations. Everybody has things in their life that make it difficult for them to stop what they're doing, but voting is critically important. It's just as important for those who are employed or taking care of their children as it is for students. And again, this doesn't prevent anybody from having a voting machine on the campus. It just requires that it be there throughout the voting period.

Representative G. Bonnen moved to table Amendment No. 4.

C. TURNER: Members, this amendment is about providing college students access to the ballot box. That's what this is about. And I understand what Dr. Bonnen is saying, that we shouldn't allow certain people to be able to have access to this that others don't. But as I went through in my example of Tarrant County, the temporary early voting sites in Tarrant County are in all geographic areas of the county. They're in urban areas, and they're in suburban areas. They're in democratic areas, and they're in republican areas. They're in heavily minority areas, and they're in heavily Anglo areas. They make it available to everyone because the point is everyone should have the right to vote.

G. BONNEN: Chairman Turner, I appreciate your concern. Now, would you agree with me that if a campus was chosen as an early voting location and it was maintained as an early voting location all day throughout the early voting period that would actually provide greater access for those students to vote?

C. TURNER: Undoubtedly, I do agree with that. And I would love it if on all of the college campuses that I listed a few minutes ago, which is a total of eight, that they had early voting sites for the entire 12 days of the early voting period. However, and we asked the county about this, in the November 2018 election just a few months ago, the temporary sites for two or three days would cost an average of $4,800 to operate those sites. A permanent site for the entire 12 days of early voting costs an average of $14,500. So if you do the math, that's basically an extra $77,000 it would cost Tarrant County to be able to run permanent early voting sites at all eight of those colleges and universities.

So again, I think that giving counties the flexibility where there is a demonstrated need to provide early voting accessibility is an efficient way to do it. And it helps them save taxpayer resources while providing additional opportunities for qualified voters to participate in the election. If we saw that, "Oh, my gosh, Tarrant County's only having early voting available at community colleges in this part of town, but it excluded a community college on the other side of the county"—yeah, that would be a problem. But that's not what they do. They make it available everywhere to everyone. UT-Arlington, TCU—the demographics of those student bodies are very different. I haven't analyzed the election results, but I would imagine that their voting preferences are pretty different as well. But they make it available to both because both should have the opportunity to vote in an election. Why we would take that opportunity away, why we would make it more expensive for our county—in other words, more expensive for the taxpayers that we represent—I'm not sure. So all I'm asking is that we vote no on this motion to table to preserve the ability for a county elections office to provide temporary polling locations during early voting at a college or university. I ask you vote no on the motion to table.

HB 1888 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE ISRAEL: Thank you for allowing me this time to speak. Members, I serve on the Elections Committee, and I'm operating without notes here, but my heart is telling me that you know what this is. This is voter suppression. And it's going against the grain of what mobile voting is intended to be. Mobile voting is intended to be flexible. Mobile voting means the Asian market in my district doesn't need to have full-day early voting there every day of the week. It means the senior citizen center in Manor, Texas, that only has programming on Tuesdays and Thursdays doesn't need a mobile voting site there every day of the week. What's the problem that we're trying to fix here? If there is a problem with some locals, as we heard in committee with some school districts, then take it up with the school district. Why are we bringing in the big bad state to tell Hays County and Grimes County and Smith County that we know better how your voters move and operate? We know where your voters shop. We know where your senior citizens go. We know where your state employees are. When it's election time, there is at least one mobile voting site here in the Capitol complex for a lot of my constituents who are state employees for whom it is convenient. I would love to see the day when the State of Texas is actually working to make it easier for our citizens to make their voices heard instead of doing what we're doing today which is squeezing the life out of them. And yes, it upsets me. Some day we're going to get this right. Today is not the day if you're going to vote for this bill. I will leave it there so that my emotions do not get the best of me.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSENTHAL: Thank you, Dr. Bonnen. I appreciate you taking the time to answer a couple of questions. We both have the distinct honor and privilege of representing a constituency on this house floor. Is that right?

G. BONNEN: Yes.

ROSENTHAL: And would you agree that we're both huge proponents of representative democracy, yes?

G. BONNEN: Yes.

ROSENTHAL: Perfect. So since we're aligned on that, I want to ask you about the provision in this bill that allows polling places for early voting in a county of less than 1,000 to be open for a period of three hours. So like they can reduce their voting time to a three-hour period—am I reading that correctly?

G. BONNEN: So it's not a county, and it's not a population. It's under 1,000 registered voters, and it's any territory that's administering an election in which they have fewer than 1,000 registered voters. It doesn't allow them to have a change in the venue or locations, but it does allow them to have fewer hours. It could be three hours instead of eight.

ROSENTHAL: Very good, I appreciate the answer, thank you. So I'm struggling with this time period. How did you come up with this three hours for this?

G. BONNEN: That was a concession to territories that have a relatively small number of registered voters so that they were not required to maintain those locations for eight hours throughout every day of early voting. It's still the same locations throughout early voting, and it's still each day of early voting, but if you have fewer than 1,000 registered voters. And it's discretionary. It's not a requirement, so they still keep them open for eight hours. But if they choose, they could shorten that to three hours each day.

ROSENTHAL: I understand that, and thank you for your answer. Isn't it true that most people who work for a living work periods well in excess of three hours?

G. BONNEN: Certainly.

ROSENTHAL: So doesn't this preclude the consideration that there are going to be some people who will not be able to get to the polls during a three-hour period? That seems amazingly restrictive to me.
G. BONNEN: So the answer to that is that right now they actually would not have to be open every day. They could move the location around during early voting, and that would actually make it more likely that they would not be able to vote. This is an improvement over the status quo, even for those territories with fewer than 1,000 voters.

ROSENTHAL: It's hard for me to see how allowing a polling location to limit its open hours to three is an improvement over anything. So are you saying right now they're allowed to be open for that short amount of time?

G. BONNEN: So what I'm saying right now is that the early voting locations may change throughout the two-week early voting period. So there's not consistency; there's not predictability. And no, they may not be open the entire eight hours.

ROSENTHAL: There's not predictability? So they don't have to file and post the voting locations and schedule ahead of time and all of that?

G. BONNEN: The purpose of this bill is to make it clear that we have the same locations throughout the early voting period, and that those locations are open. And the only exception is if there are fewer than 1,000 registered voters in that territory, they still must have the same locations throughout the early voting period, but they may shorten the hours at their discretion to three hours.

ROSENTHAL: That strikes me as extremely dangerous. I'm sorry to say it like that. But to shorten to three hours—most of the jobs I've worked provide for a break at least once every four hours for at least 30 minutes. I think that's the law of the land. And so what this means is there would be a possibility that some voters could be locked out.

G. BONNEN: Actually what it means is that now because that location has to be open every day, they actually have a greater opportunity to vote.

ROSENTHAL: So if the place is required to be open every day and they choose to be open between 8 and 11, and I have to work from 7 to 12 before I get my first break, does that mean I will not have any opportunity to vote during the early voting period?

G. BONNEN: I think that I can only recite for you what's in the bill so many times.

ROSENTHAL: Okay, I'm not going to take any more of your time. I appreciate you being patient with me. I would urge—I would urge to specify a minimum of eight hours. That's the day that everyone works.

G. BONNEN: So it's actually been pointed out that you're required by federal law to have at least an hour away from work to go and vote.

ROSENTHAL: It is. But does it specify when? Even though that's specified and that's true—and I appreciate that. That's very good, but it's still rural areas we are talking about.
G. BONNEN: So respectfully, again, to speak to your concern, we're actually creating more hours that would be available than what would likely be available under current law.

ROSENTHAL: Under current law, are they allowed to limit the period that they're open to three hours in any location, at any place, at any time?

G. BONNEN: They can limit the days, and they can move the locations.

ROSENTHAL: I'm sorry, what?

G. BONNEN: They can move the locations.

ROSENTHAL: Right. No, so my direct question was under current law, are they allowed to limit their open hours to just three under any particular day?

G. BONNEN: Yes.

ROSENTHAL: Under current law, they are right now?

G. BONNEN: Yes, I believe that's correct.

ROSENTHAL: Okay, well, that answers my question.

ANCHIA: I'm trying to understand the construction of the bill really quickly. So in Sections 1i and 2 of the bill, you are amending Section 42.0621(a) of the Election Code, right? And so there you are limiting the uniform election dates to just the November date. Is that correct? And what exactly are you limiting just to those November election dates?

G. BONNEN: I'm not a lege council drafter, so I'm not prepared to speak to the drafting of the legislation. The intent of the bill is to say during any election that is held—whether it's a bond election, whether it's a general election, whether it's a primary election—during the two weeks of early voting, any number of locations may be chosen. Those locations may be at the discretion of the territory, but they must be held constant, and they must remain open for eight hours unless there are fewer than 1,000 registered voters, in which case they may choose to limit the hours to three hours.

ANCHIA: So I get the hours. I see where in Sections 3, and 4, and 5 you're discussing the hours of operations. But what I'm trying to understand is in Sections 1i and 2, the subject of those is to limit something to November. What is this something that we are limiting to November?

G. BONNEN: And again, understanding that I'm not a lege council attorney drafting this bill, we are actually amending existing statute, and I think without putting all of it together it can be difficult to read these words and then interpret it without the context of the current statute.

ANCHIA: I guess what I'm trying to understand is why not May elections? And why have you limited it in Sections 1i and 2 to November? Because I think that's a different subject that is unrelated to the polling hours.

G. BONNEN: I don't think we're limiting it to November elections.
ANCHIA: Okay, but in Sections 1 and 2, it specifically says "held on November uniform election date." So "held on November uniform election date" as opposed to May, and I'm trying to understand what that limitation is. Because I think that's a different subject than relating to the polling place.

G. BONNEN: I think it's part of the broader context of the existing statute.

HB 1888 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Anchia raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1888 under Rule 8, Section 1, and Rule 8, Section 3, of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill caption does not give adequate notice of the bill's subject and the bill contains more than one subject.

HB 1631 ON SECOND READING
(by Stickland, Collier, Burrows, S. Thompson, et al.)

HB 1631, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to prohibiting the use of photographic traffic signal enforcement systems.

HB 1631 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Blanco raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1631 under Rule 8, Section 1(a)(1), and Rule 8, Section 3, of the House Rules and under Article III, Section 35, of the Texas Constitution. The point of order was overruled and the speaker submitted the following ruling:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

on House Bill 1631

Announced in the House on May 7, 2019

Representative Blanco raises a point of order against further consideration of HB 1631 under Article III, Section 35, Texas Constitution, and Rule 8, Sections 1(a)(1) and 3, of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill contains more than one subject and the caption fails to give reasonable notice of the bill's subject.

Representative Blanco argues that the bill's repeal of Section 542.405, Transportation Code, creates an impermissible second subject because that section is not limited to "photographic traffic signal enforcement systems" but instead embraces all "traffic control signals." The bill also repeals Section 542.406 and 544.012 of the code. Reading all three sections together, it is plain that Section 542.405 is the civil enforcement mechanism for photographic traffic signal enforcement systems (also known as "red-light cameras") and its repeal is necessary to implement the bill's provisions completely prohibiting local operation of the cameras.

This reading is supported by the fiscal note, which expressly notes that the bill "repeal[s] provisions that authorize government entities to impose a civil penalty for certain traffic violations recorded by camera" in the identical amounts authorized under the complained-of section.

Section 542.405 is on the same subject as the bill. And because the section is on the same subject as the bill, the caption gives reasonable notice of the bill's subject.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Martinez offered the following amendment to HB 1631:

Amend HB 1631 (house committee report) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:
SECTION ___. (a) The repeal by this Act of Sections 542.405 and 542.406, Transportation Code, and provisions of Chapter 707, Transportation Code, does not affect the validity of a proceeding initiated or a civil or administrative penalty imposed under those provisions before the effective date of this Act. A proceeding initiated or a civil or administrative penalty imposed under those provisions before the effective date of this Act is governed by the applicable law in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this Act to the contrary, if before the effective date of this Act a local authority had enacted an ordinance to implement a photographic traffic signal enforcement system under Sections 542.405 and 542.406, Transportation Code, or Chapter 707, Transportation Code, and entered into a contract for the administration and enforcement of the system:

(1) the local authority may continue to operate the system under that ordinance and under the terms of that contract until the expiration date specified in the contract as the contract existed on the effective date of this Act; and

(2) the photographic traffic signal enforcement system, and any proceeding initiated or civil or administrative penalty imposed after the effective date of this Act are governed by the applicable law in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

Amendment No. 1 - Point of Order

Representative Cain raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 1 under Rule 11, Section 3, of the House Rules on the grounds that the amendment changes the original purpose of the bill.

The point of order was withdrawn.

MESSAGES FROM THE SENATE

Amendment No. 2

Representatives Cain, Clardy, and Landgraf offered the following amendment to Amendment No. 1:

Amend Amendment No. 1 by Martinez to HB 1631 as follows:

1. On page 1, strike lines 4-13.
2. On page 1, line 14, strike "(b)" and substitute "SECTION _____. (a)".

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HUBERTY: Representative, when you offered this, the intent was perhaps that you could extend these contracts for a longer period of time, correct?

REPRESENTATIVE MARTINEZ: That is correct, yes.

HUBERTY: So now you’ve said—agreeing with Mr. Cain who’s now said that he’s going to vote for your amendment, at least that’s what he told us up at the front mic—that the purpose of this now is to say that if the city needs to unwind their contract they can do it in an orderly fashion, which is the whole premise of what you’ve spoken to, right? Is that correct?

MARTINEZ: Yes, sir, that is correct.

HUBERTY: So from a legislative intent, it's your intent with this amendment that if they have a term left on their agreement—four years, five years, whatever it would be—during that period of time that they have the ability then to unwind that contract. Correct?

MARTINEZ: Absolutely. Yes, sir, that’s correct.

Amendment No. 4

Representative Tinderholt offered the following amendment to HB 1631:

Amend HB 1631 (house committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION ____. Beginning on the effective date of this Act, a local authority that operates a photographic traffic signal enforcement system under an ordinance permitted by this Act shall send all revenue derived from civil or administrative penalties collected by the local authority under that ordinance to the comptroller for deposit to the credit of the designated trauma facility and emergency medical services account established under Section 780.003, Health and Safety Code.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE ZWIENER: Mr. Tinderholt, when you were speaking on this amendment, you described it as where the profits of this programs would go, but your amendment reads "revenue." And so I'm wondering if this potentially creates an unintentional problem where a jurisdiction would have to send all of the revenue over to this fund and not have any funds left to cover the cost of implementing the program, of fulfilling the terms of the contract they're under. Is that a potential concern here?

REPRESENTATIVE TINDERHOLT: It's not for me. We just had this drafted over here. Right now, in statute it specifically says that it's all profits from it, so their operating expenses are not included. But if you think that needs to be fixed, I would certainly be open to a clarifying amendment to specifically clarify that in here if you think that's an issue. I don't think it's an issue, but I'm open to it.

ZWIENER: So you are not clear on this, right now, if this might create a situation where cities actually lose funds from implementing these programs. Is that correct?

TINDERHOLT: I don't personally believe that's going to do that, no. But like I said, if you want to clarify that, I'm open to an amendment to the amendment.
