The invocation was offered by James Parker, senior pastor, True Purpose Church, Dallas, as follows:

Father, with your love, you saved us; with your power, you raised us; with your blood, you bathed us; with your mercy, you forgave us; and with your grace, you gave us new life more abundantly. Guide this house of representatives to see you more clearly, love you more dearly, follow you more nearly, trust you more surely, and worship you more purely. Guide this house to give to you more cheerfully, obey you more willfully, serve you more skillfully, pray to you more tearfully, and respect you more fearfully.

Psalm 23 says, "the Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want." I shall not want rest, for "he makes me lie down in green pastures." I shall not want drink, for "he leads me beside the still waters." I shall not want forgiveness, for "he restores my soul." I shall not want guidance, for "he leads me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake." I shall not want protection, for "even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thou art with me." I shall not want provision, for "he prepares a table before me even in the presence of my enemies." I shall not want joy, for "he has anointed my head with oil." I shall not want blessings, for "my cup runs overflowing." I shall not want favor, for "surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life." I shall not want anything in this world or in the world to come, for "I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." Amen.

HB 4416 ON SECOND READING
(by Middleton)

HB 4416, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the qualifications necessary for a political party to have the names of its nominees placed on the ballot.

HB 4416 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Martinez Fischer raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 4416 under Rule 4, Section 18(a)(3), of the House Rules. The point of order was overruled and the speaker submitted the following ruling:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER
on House Bill 4416

Announced in the House on May 8, 2019

Representative Martinez Fischer raises a point of order against further consideration of HB 4416 under Rule 4, Section 18(a)(3), on the grounds that the minutes are incomplete.

Mr. Martinez Fischer argues that the minutes for the April 25, 2019, formal meeting of the Committee on Elections are not complete because they do not indicate that "(t)he chair laid out HB 3965 as pending business." Mr. Martinez Fischer does not dispute that the vote for HB 4416, the bill that is the subject of this point of order, is recorded accurately. He also does not dispute that the vote recorded on HB 3965 is accurate.

Furthermore, the error alleged by Mr. Martinez Fischer does not relate to the bill under consideration. Unlike other subdivisions of the cited section, any error in a recorded vote in the committee’s minutes relates only to that bill. Thus, a point of order does not lie against a bill under consideration by the House because of any alleged error on a record vote on another bill that is not under consideration.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

Representative Middleton moved to postpone consideration of HB 4416 until 9:30 p.m. today.

A record vote was requested by Representative Martinez Fischer.

The motion to postpone prevailed by (Record 1163): 78 Yeas, 69 Nays, 1 Present, not voting.

CSHB 3511, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the creation of the Commission on Texas Workforce of the Future.

CSHB 3511 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE LEACH: Representative, I'd like to just ask a few questions for legislative intent if I can on this bill. Representative, it's my understanding that CSHB 3511 would at its core create a new commission to help Texas come up with new solutions to address a workforce shortage that our state is facing. Is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE VANDEAVER: Absolutely, that is correct.

LEACH: And along those lines, are you aware that it's become a commonplace practice for staffing firms in the oil and gas industry to use non-competes in their contracts with independent contractors and that these non-competes are preventing oil and gas workers from taking jobs in various areas of high demand?

VANDEAVER: I have heard that.

LEACH: And then are you aware that Texas is facing a dire workforce shortage in the oil patch, mostly of independent contractors who make up the vast majority of the oil and gas workforce, and if this isn't addressed soon, Representative, it could lead to conditions harmful to our state economy and to national security? I assume you're aware of that as well.

VANDEAVER: Absolutely. And actually, that workforce shortage in the oil and gas industry is one of the issues that led us to create this commission.

LEACH: Well, in your bill under Section 29.956, which deals with recommendations from the commission to the legislature, is it your intent, Representative, that under Subsection (8)—which deals with "recommending statutory changes to the laws governing the public workforce system"—is it your intent under this subsection the commission could be reviewing and making recommendations to the legislature, changes related to the workforce in Texas, and how those mechanisms such as non-competes could be hurting the workforce and the economic engine of the state?

VANDEAVER: Yes, it would be my intent that these are the types of issues that could be studied and addressed by this commission.

HB 2754 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE NEVÁREZ: I know there's been a lot of excitement tonight because we're doing x, y, and z. But I want to focus your attention on what we're doing right now, and I'll be really brief. Ms. Thierry came to me with some concerns about an amendment in the bill. I read it, and I wasn't really paying attention, and I don't think any of us were really paying attention. But if you look at this bill and if you will—I think Representative Canales also had some issues with this, and I'm willing to yield for some questions regarding that.

REPRESENTATIVE CANALES: Representative, is the issue that you have with this bill that the arresting officer, if by his determination he thinks that you're not going to show up, that's now the reason to be arrested?

NEVÁREZ: Imagine that. Yes, because what will happen is you get pulled over, and you're issued a citation, and if for some reason that police officer doesn't like the cut of your jib, he can now gin up the idea that you won't show up. And for that you get thrown in the pokey.

CANALES: Members, if you would please listen to this. The conversation that you just told me is that for a fine-only—it's a fine-only offense, Representative—if the officer thinks you won't show up, he can take you in?
NEVÁREZ: That's exactly right. Imagine that. The arbiter of whether you're going to show up or not when you're issued a citation, is the officer at that very moment. That means that each and every one of us as we're driving home to our districts, if we were to get pulled over—

CANALES: For a traffic ticket?

NEVÁREZ: For a traffic ticket.

CANALES: If he thinks you're not going to show up for that traffic ticket?

NEVÁREZ: You're going to the county jail that night, Mr. Canales. That's where you're going. If that doesn't scare each of you—and I applaud you, Mr. Canales, because you've been a real voice for reason in terms of our freedom and our liberties. I apologize that I haven't been behind you every step of the way, but I'm here right now and the rest of these members should be as well.

CANALES: So just one last time, if I'm driving home and I'm speeding, and the officer believes in his mind that I'm not going to show up, he can take me to jail?

NEVÁREZ: That's right. I don't believe Representative White intended this, but that's exactly what it reads, and it's irrespective of what his intent is now. That's what the language is there, and each and every one of us should be voting no as soon as I get off this mic.

REPRESENTATIVE ZWIENER: Representative Neva´rez, I suspect I am not alone right now in being a little bit out of sequence with what’s going on right now. So can you clarify? Right now, you are speaking against the bill?

NEVÁREZ: I'm speaking against the bill.

ZWIENER: Okay, so an amendment was just removed from the bill. Does the amendment being removed from the bill—is that the source of your concerns?

NEVÁREZ: Look, the amendment needs to be removed, the amendment has been removed, and the bill needs to be removed. We need to vote it down right now. It shouldn't go to the next chamber. It needs to die right here. And it's no offense to Representative White. I think it's well-intentioned, but the intent with respect to the execution here fails, and we need to be conscious of that. And I apologize because I did not listen to Representative Thierry, and I wasn't paying attention. I was lost in every little foible that I'm involved in on this floor. But each and every one of us bears responsibility if a bill like this leaves the chamber.

ZWIENER: So your concerns are not related to the amendment that was removed?

NEVÁREZ: The amendment's gone. Let's not worry about that. We're on the bill now, and I'm concerned about the bill.

ZWIENER: So your concerns are related to the current text.

NEVÁREZ: Yes, ma'am.

REPRESENTATIVE THIERRY: Members, I really would request your attention. I don't get on the back mic often, as most of you know. I do not jump up to speak against people's bills. The reason I'm here today, members, is I caught something in this bill that I thought went against the spirit of what probably most all of us here are fighting for, which is to protect the Constitution and to give people due process. Earlier today, when I looked in this bill, I noticed two things that stood out, and Representative Nevárez just talked about a couple of them. What this bill does, members, is something that has never happened. It is the antithesis of what we voted for. The intent of the bill, members, was to make sure that people didn't have to go to jail for a fine misdemeanor—a misdemeanor that was punishable by a fine. But then it turned right back around and undid it and made it worse by adding something that says, unless the person presents appropriate identification.

The fact pattern that concerned me, members, was—and I'll give you this, if you'll just indulge me. I have an 18-year-old nephew who lives in a very nice neighborhood, and he goes swimming a lot in his gated community. If my nephew were coming back from the swimming pool and didn't have his ID on him and was jaywalking and an officer pulled him over and asked for his ID, he could go to jail if he gave him his Episcopal High School ID because it's not appropriate. He could go to jail if he said, "Well, I have a library card, officers." It's not appropriate. He could go to jail if he said, "I don't have anything because I have on my swimming trunks and my flip flops and I only live over there." So members, I don't think that that was the spirit and the intent of what we were trying to do. Also, in the underlying bill it talks about getting arrested if someone believes that you won't show up.

REPRESENTATIVE DUTTON: Now, the bill says you have to have what's called an appropriate ID. Is that right?

THIERRY: The amendment said that, and there's a part in the initial page of the bill that they're going to study for an appropriate ID. Yes, sir.

DUTTON: And does the bill describe what an appropriate ID is?

THIERRY: No, Mr. Chairman, there's no definition. There's no definition in the bill or legal definition for "appropriate."

DUTTON: So it's going to be subjective on the part of person making the stop?

THIERRY: Yes, absolutely.

DUTTON: Well, now, that's not how it works currently, is it?

THIERRY: No, it's not.

DUTTON: No, and so this represents a complete departure from where the law is today.

THIERRY: Yes, I actually mentioned that, Mr. Chairman, when I had my conversations. And members, just so you know, out of respect, this isn't a blind side. I've been having this conversation for about three hours today. I went to Representative White and talked to him about it, and I had a lot of conversation with him. I told him that in my estimation this was turning our Constitution on its head, and I asked him well, what was the intent of the bill? And he may come and speak on it, but he did say it was to lower probable cause.
DUTTON: Well, let me ask you about the other part of the bill which really creates a problem for me. It makes it subjective on the part of the officer as to whether or not he or she believes you might show up for a court date. Is that still in the bill?

THIERRY: That is still in the bill, Mr. Chairman. That is one of the grounds to be able to arrest the person for a misdemeanor that's punishable.

DUTTON: So that's going to put a lot of police officers in jeopardy because they're going to have to make a decision as to whether or not they believe you will show up in court. And let me ask this, what will they use as the basis for making that determination?

THIERRY: That's why this is so important, Mr. Chairman. There is no way. There's nothing in the bill. There's no parameters or metrics to know whether someone is going to show up, and there's no way in life to determine that. I don't know if I could look at any representative in here and know if he or she is coming to court.

DUTTON: If I have a coat and tie on, I guess they will presume that I will show up in court, right?

THIERRY: I wouldn't even go that far. Who knows? Depending on who you are wearing that coat and tie.

DUTTON: So let's say I'm, like I usually do on Saturdays, cutting my yard. I dress appropriately for cutting my yard, but sometimes I go to the service station to get gasoline. I may be on the way back, and I may not have ID either, but I'm dressed not like you've seen me before. So is it likely that I'm going to show up in court based on how I'm dressed?

THIERRY: Well, that's the problem, Chairman Dutton. There's no definition. And I will say this, members, I haven't gotten involved in any criminal justice issues. This concerned me. I walk my dog at night, and I just take my cell phone. I certainly wouldn't want to be blessing a bill and voting for a bill that would allow me to be arrested because I didn't have the appropriate ID.

DUTTON: Whatever that means.

THIERRY: Whatever that would mean, and if I did something such as just walk across the street and jaywalk. I don't think that any member here would support that. This isn't a black, white, democrat, or republican issue. This is a constitutional issue and something that's fair and reasonable.

DUTTON: Well, it certainly infringes on that because it presumes that the law officer can make a better decision about whether you'll show up in court or not, rather than relying on you to make that determination for yourself.

THIERRY: Absolutely, and that's new. That's new in the bill, members. That's something that we didn't have before. The officer will make that unilateral decision if you look like you're going to show up. If not, you'll be arrested.

DUTTON: Do we allow that determination to be made in any other part of the Penal Code or statutes or anything anywhere?
THIERRY: It's my understanding, Mr. Chairman, that if you sign the citation when we get a traffic ticket, the presumption is that by signing that we're promising to appear, and that in and of itself is enough. Members, with that I urge you—we're going to reconsider this bill—and I urge you all to vote two, to vote no, for reasonableness. This goes beyond the scope of anything, I will tell you, that any of us could have fathomed constitutionally.

CANALES: There's been a lot of talk, so I'm just going to illustrate it for you. You're driving home and you're speeding. And instead of signing the promise to appear, the officer says you look like you're not going to appear. You're going to jail—that's your little girl, your son, your niece, your nephew, your aunt, your uncle—just on the officer. Just on something where you normally say, "I'll appear in court," if he thinks you're not going, you're going to jail. If that's the kind of Texas you want to live in, vote for this bill. I urge you to vote against it.

REPRESENTATIVE WHITE: Thank you so much, members, for staying with me on this bill throughout this entire session to include this morning. Now, let me just tell you how we got here. It's just really as simple as this. I understand all the drama about the amendment. I withdrew the amendment, took the amendment off. It doesn't—well, this is what it does without the amendment. If you look on page 2, my friends, it says: "Notwithstanding Subsection (a) or (b), a peace officer or any other person may not, without a warrant, arrest an offender who commits only one or more offences punishable by fine only, other than an offense under Section 22.01(a)(2)—I believe that deals with family violence—"or (3) or 49.02, Penal Code"—which deals with assault—"or Chapter 106, Alcoholic Beverage Code." And yesterday I added Class C voyeurism. And then it goes on to read, "unless the officer or person has probable cause to believe." The person that is stopped in this scenario—the situation is already a Class C misdemeanor. What this bill is trying to accomplish is to limit arrest and detention on fine-only Class C misdemeanors. Now, it goes on to read on page 2, "failure to arrest the offender creates a clear and immediate danger to the offender or the public; the failure to arrest the offender will allow a continued breach of the public peace; or"—and I think this has become the next flashing point—"the offender will not appear in court in accordance with the citation." That is what we passed yesterday, and it was in some of the same language I had this morning.

Now, how do you get into that situation? Real quick. So if someone is pulled aside by law enforcement for failure to signal changing lanes and the officer asks for their identification and maybe they left their identification at home. And then let's say the officer says, "Well, what is your name?" And the involved person says, "My name is James White." Then the officer returns to his vehicle to authenticate that I am James White, maybe with my address and date of birth, and that doesn't come up in the officer's computer in his vehicle. Along with some other situations, if you cannot be identified appropriately, with probable cause—evidentiary standard—the officer has the discretion to say "the offender will not appear in court in accordance with the citation."

Now, before I take questions from the nice lady at the back mic, I will say this here—how did we get here? And it's important to understand this. This is how we get here. Here we are at 8:51 p.m. My wife is back home. She's a school teacher. She probably had to take some kids home after the theater practice and maybe she makes a mistake and she changes lanes. Going back home, she changes lanes without signaling. I don't want to be on the house floor and get a call that my wife is in the Tyler County jail, and you shouldn't want your wives in that position either, because the officer took the discretion to carry her down to the jailhouse. That's what this bill is about. So I'll tell my friends that had their concerns, I have stripped the amendment. The amendment is stripped. That's what this bill is about.

REPRESENTATIVE COLLIER: Chairman White, I just want to get some clarification because this is a bill that we heard in the Criminal Jurisprudence Committee, and I wanted to make sure that we understand the intent behind this bill. So on page 2, which you went over, Section (c), you're talking about whether or not an officer can arrest somebody for a fine-only offense. And one of the sections was Section (3). My question is, in order to do that, what is the standard for an officer that they have to reach? What's the threshold that they have to reach in order to exercise that option?

WHITE: Probable cause.

COLLIER: Probable cause. So it's not like a hunch?

WHITE: Absolutely.

COLLIER: They have to have probable cause in order to arrest somebody. So is it probable cause to believe or is it actual probable cause?

WHITE: Articulable facts.

COLLIER: Okay, so it's not to believe. The "believe," is that in there for grammatical purposes? It's not to emphasize the intent because what you expect out of this bill is actual probable cause.

WHITE: Yes.

COLLIER: Okay, so even though the reading says "probable cause to believe" that the person may not appear, the intent behind that is that you have to prove this with probable cause. The threshold is having probable cause.

WHITE: Yes.

COLLIER: All right. And so that is what differentiates the amendment in this actual section of the bill, because this is a higher standard.

WHITE: Absolutely.

COLLIER: This is a higher standard. So let me ask you some questions because there have been concerns about what does it mean that the officer—what is the officer looking for when they're thinking about may "not appear in court in accordance with the citation"? I think this has something to do with their ID, which you were just trying to explain.

WHITE: Or just simply being able to simply identify. Simply that they can be sure that the person that they're talking to is actually the person that's standing in front of them. Yes, that they're engaged with.
COLLIER: So the concern is how is that—because that seems subjective to other people—so is there some objective factors that would be considered by law enforcement?

WHITE: And Chairwoman, I would say they can already do this now. So again, let's say it's 11 p.m. at night, and I need to run out to go get a jug of milk. I'm in a rush. I may grab my billfold with the money in it, but mistakenly, I didn't take my ID. I'm pulled over on a fine-only misdemeanor. Evidently it becomes a fact that I don't have my identification with me. The officer says, "Well, who are you?" I say, "My name is James White. I live here. My date of birth is 7-16-64." They go back to their vehicle. They run it through their computer, and they find out that I am actually James White, 7-16-1964, and they can definitely identify me. If the officer still wants to ticket me, he can ticket me. But as far as the level of probable cause, that I will not appear in court in accordance with the citation, is not there. Because he can identify that I'm the person and that I will appear in court with that citation.

COLLIER: Okay, so I think what people have been articulating is that they're concerned that an officer can just make this determination that you will not appear in court. But again, you said you have to have probable cause in order to believe that offender will not appear in court.

WHITE: Yes, it can't just be a feel, like "I feel like it." Absolutely.

COLLIER: And does it apply to all fine-only offenses or just these offenses under 21.17, 22.01, or 49.02?

WHITE: It would be just in that engagement with the officer.

COLLIER: Okay, so it doesn't matter if it's not a 21.17 offense?

WHITE: Absolutely.

COLLIER: It could be any offense?

WHITE: Right. Because the point is here, if you read how the sentence is constructed, they can do the offense under Section 22.01(a)(2) or (3). They can do the offense under 49.02, Penal Code. And they can do the offense under Chapter 106 of the Alcoholic Beverage Code.

COLLIER: Okay. I think that what the concern is, again, that "the offender will not appear" is subjective, and there's a lack in trust in law enforcement's decisions on how that would look.

WHITE: Madam Chair, I'm telling you right now, and of course, you know this. What the purpose of this bill is is to stop that subjectiveness. And the point is right now we have 50,000 warrantless, fine-only misdemeanor arrests now and detentions now. Okay?

COLLIER: And your purpose is to eliminate that.

WHITE: Or at least to limit it. Yes.
REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Collier moved to print all remarks on HB 2754 after the vote was reconsidered.

The motion prevailed.

REPRESENTATIVE GUTIERREZ: Here’s our problem, Chairman. The situation is this, and I'm going to couch this in the terms of what happens during the course of a criminal proceeding. Let’s take a DWI. You have a reasonable suspicion to make a stop. Someone was maybe weaving, so the officer forms a reasonable suspicion to make the stop. You understand that, right?

WHITE: I'm listening.

GUTIERREZ: And I know that you're the chair of this committee.

WHITE: I'm listening.

GUTIERREZ: Okay, you're listening. Now then, what arises out of that reasonable suspicion is sometimes if they do a field sobriety test, there's bloodshot eyes, there's watery eyes, there's people that cannot do the walk and turn, and so on. And those are elements of what makes up probable cause of a crime that has happened right then and there, not about a crime that may or may not happen in the future. Probable cause is exactly that. It's not about stopping some potentiality of a crime into the future, and that's where the subjectivity comes in. Do you understand what we're trying to say and what the concern is? I mean, can you address that?

WHITE: I'm listening. I'm listening.

GUTIERREZ: Well, maybe you could address that. Because potentiality of a crime—well, that just not fair.

WHITE: No, I'm not talking about the potentiality of a crime. Could I just share something with you, Representative Gutierrez?

GUTIERREZ: Yes, sir.

WHITE: When I think about this bill in the very simplest standpoint, I think about the encounter Ms. Sandra Bland had in Waller County, and I think about it in the context of this bill. And in the context of this bill, if the procedures were followed that afternoon in Prairie View, Sandra Bland would not have been in the Waller County jail, and she would not have passed away in the Waller County jail. That's the standard that I'm looking at in this instance, and that's the standard that I'm taking in the scenario. Thank you.

GUTIERREZ: And Representative, I'll tell you this. I'll submit this to you. You and I are both people of color.

WHITE: Yes.

GUTIERREZ: And there has existed in this State of Texas "driving while black." There has existed in this State of Texas the ramifications of SB 4. All of those things are what concern us, and we feel that what's going to happen in this legislation is exactly the opposite of what you're trying to achieve.
WHITE: And you have the opportunity to vote for or against it. Move passage.

CSSB 1152 - POINT OF ORDER
Representative Dutton raised a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 1152 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2), and Rule 4, Section 32(c)(5), of the House Rules. The point of order was overruled and the speaker submitted the following ruling:
RULING BY THE SPEAKER
on Senate Bill 1152
Announced in the House on May 8, 2019

Representative Dutton raises a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 1152 under Rule 4, Sections 32(c)(2) and (c)(5) on the grounds that the bill analysis is inaccurate.

Mr. Dutton argues that the analysis section of the bill analysis does not contain a summary of the fee calculation that is set forth in the bill and mischaracterizes the municipalities to which certain provisions of the bill apply. Mr. Dutton further argues that the portion of the bill analysis that compares the substantial differences between the committee substitute and the original bill does not describe certain language contained in the committee substitute that was not in the Senate engrossment.

The bill analysis is a summary analysis and accurately and consistently describes both the sections that Mr. Dutton complains of and the substantial differences between the substitute and the Senate engrossment in a manner that gives the reader reasonable notice of the bill’s provisions. Thus, the bill analysis is neither substantially nor materially misleading.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

A record vote was requested by Representative Stickland.
