STATEMENT OF VOTE

REASON FOR VOTE

Yesterday, SB 815 passed to third reading without objection because it was for the most part a good bill. I understand that many were opposed to the second reading amendment put on by Mr. Moody. However, because this is a senate bill with house amendments, the ultimate fate of any objectionable amendment could have easily been resolved by the senate under the leadership of Lt. Governor Dan Patrick. Instead, at least for the time being, what could have been turned back into a bill that none thought objectionable at the time of its passage to third reading, is dead. I believe that a no vote may have been short sighted. The senate could have been allowed to correct the issue so many found objectionable. In order to keep a good bill alive so it could be sent back to the senate, I voted for it.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE GRANTED

The following member was granted leave of absence for the remainder of today because of important business:

SUBCHAPTER G. SALES AND USE TAX

Sec. 1061.301. TAX AUTHORIZED. (a) The district may adopt, change the rate of, or abolish a sales and use tax at an election held in the district.

(b) The district may not adopt a tax under this subchapter or increase the rate of the tax if as a result of the adoption of the tax or the tax increase the combined rate of all sales and use taxes imposed by the district and all other political subdivisions of this state having territory in the district would exceed two percent in any location in the district.

Sec. 1061.302. APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAW. Except to the extent that a provision of this subchapter applies, Chapter 323, Tax Code, applies to a tax authorized by this subchapter in the same manner as that chapter applies to the tax authorized by that chapter.

Sec. 1061.303. TAX RATE; CHANGE IN RATE. (a) The district may impose a tax authorized by this subchapter in increments of one-eighth of one percent, with a minimum rate of one-eighth of one percent and a maximum rate of two percent.

(b) The district may increase the rate of a tax authorized by this subchapter to a maximum of two percent or decrease the rate of the tax to a minimum of one-eighth of one percent if the change is approved by a majority of the voters of the district at an election called for that purpose.

Sec. 1061.304. ELECTION PROCEDURE. An election to adopt, change the rate of, or abolish a tax authorized by this subchapter is called by the adoption of an order of the board. The board may call an election on its own motion and shall call an election if a number of qualified voters in the district equal to at least five percent of the number of registered voters in the district petitions the board to call the election.

Sec. 1061.305. ELECTION IN OTHER TAXING AUTHORITY. (a) In this section, "taxing authority" means any entity authorized to impose a local sales and use tax.

(b) If the district is included within the boundaries of another taxing authority and the adoption or increase in the rate of a tax under this subchapter would result in a combined tax rate by the district and other political subdivisions of this state of more than two percent at any location in the district, an election to approve or increase the rate of the tax has no effect unless:

(1) one or more of the other taxing authorities holds an election in accordance with the law governing that authority on the same date as the election under this subchapter to reduce the tax rate of that authority to a rate that will result in a combined tax rate by the district and other political subdivisions of not more than two percent at any location in the district; and

(2) the combined tax rate is reduced to not more than two percent as a result of that election.

(c) This section does not permit a taxing authority to impose taxes at differential tax rates within the territory of the authority.
Sec. 1061.306. TAX EFFECTIVE DATE. (a) The adoption, change in the rate of, or abolition of a tax under this subchapter takes effect on the first day of the first calendar quarter occurring after the expiration of the first complete calendar quarter occurring after the date on which the comptroller receives notice of the results of an election to adopt, change the rate of, or abolish the tax.

(b) If the comptroller determines that an effective date provided by Subsection (a) will occur before the comptroller can reasonably take the action required to begin collecting the tax or to implement the change in the rate of the tax or the abolition of the tax, the effective date may be extended by the comptroller until the first day of the next calendar quarter.

Sec. 1061.307. USE OF TAX REVENUE. Revenue from a tax imposed under this subchapter may be used by the district for any purpose of the district authorized by law.

CSSB 11 ON SECOND READING

CSSB 11, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to policies, procedures, and measures for school safety and mental health promotion in public schools.
Amendment No. 1

Representative G. Bonnen offered the following amendment to CSSB 11:

Amend CSSB 11 (house committee report) on page 28, between lines 18 and 19, by inserting the following appropriately lettered subsection and relettering subsequent subsections of the section accordingly:

(____) A team may not provide a mental health care service to a student who is under 18 years of age unless the team obtains written consent from the parent of or person standing in parental relation to the student before providing the mental health care service. The consent required by this subsection must be submitted on a form developed by the school district that complies with all applicable state and federal law. The student's parent or person standing in parental relation to the student may give consent for a student to receive ongoing services or may limit consent to one or more services provided on a single occasion.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE TOTH: Dr. Bonnen, as I understand the amendment—there's been a lot of dialogue about this bill. Does your bill allow the school to go in and do a health diagnostic on a child?

REPRESENTATIVE G. BONNEN: No, it does not.

TOTH: Why not?

G. BONNEN: Only a mental health professional may do a mental health assessment and diagnosis and then recommend subsequent treatment. The purpose of the threat assessment team is precisely to assess the level of threat so that should a student or an individual be exhibiting behavior that is worrisome or concerning—that this person may be contemplating harm to themselves such as suicide or a violent act toward other students or teachers—that they can engage with that person to simply learn is this student having a bad day, are they making a bad joke, or is there something that is more serious and underlining that would necessarily require attention.

TOTH: Can they do a diagnostic on the child without a parent's permission?

G. BONNEN: No. It's actually stated in the statute should the threat assessment team find an immediate danger or concern, they are to report it to the superintendent, and the superintendent is actually tasked with immediately attempting to notify the parent.

TOTH: So the superintendent has to notify the parent and ask the parent's permission. Do I understand that correctly?

G. BONNEN: No mental health services will be delivered without parental notification or consent. Now, if they evaluate the student—

TOTH: Can they put the kids on drugs?

G. BONNEN: There is no provision in here whatsoever for any student to be medicated. Period. The one thing I will say is if a student is suicidal or homicidal, then there are protocols developed by the School Safety Center to deal with an immediate, acute threat. So if a student is threatening to kill themselves and it's a legitimate, compelling threat, they don't have to call the parent to prevent the child from harming themselves or hurting someone else.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

on Senate Bill 10

Announced in the House on May 21, 2019

Representative Stickland raises a point of order against further consideration of CSSB 10 under Rule 4, Section 32(c)(2), of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is inaccurate because it fails to adequately analyze the bill’s provisions.
Mr. Stickland identifies two sets of the bill's provisions that are not adequately addressed by the bill analysis. The analysis does not specify the health-related institutions of higher education that are members of the consortium. It also does not address the details of the members who compose the consortium's executive committee and their method of appointment.

CSSB 10 creates the consortium and each element of the bill is related to its duties, operation, and funding. Significantly, the consortium may receive and spend state appropriations and the bill authorizes the consortium, in turn, to use these appropriations to direct spending to its member institutions of higher education.

The sole purpose of the bill is to create the Mental Health Care Consortium. Given the executive committee's authority to spend state money on its own members, specific information concerning the consortium's membership and the composition of its governing committee is material information that a reasonable member would consider critical to casting an informed vote on whether to create the consortium and provide the consortium authority to spend state funds. Because the bill analysis omits this material information, it does not comply with the rule. E.g., 86 H. Jour. 4186-4187 (2019) (sustaining point of order against SB 295).

Accordingly, the point of order is well-taken and sustained.

CSSB 10 was returned to the Committee on Public Health.

CSSB 562 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE PRICE: CSSB 562 addresses the current backlog that exists within our state hospital system. This bill was developed with the help of the Texas Judicial Council. It would ensure that the best facility for a defendant to receive competency restoration is determined at the forefront rather than waiting for the defendant to be sent to a maximum security unit or an MSU before determining the most appropriate treatment setting. CSSB 562 also authorizes HHSC's Dangerousness Review Board to assess the dangerousness of a defendant sent by HHSC to an MSU anytime before the defendant's competency is restored to determine whether another facility is the most adequate place for treatment. The process will be organized in a more efficient manner to ensure review of the defendant occurs earlier to avoid unnecessary and improper placement of an individual into an MSU facility. I believe there's one amendment.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Moody offered the following amendment to CSSB 562:

Amend CSSB 562 (house committee report) as follows:
(1) On page 14, lines 11 and 12, strike "the Code of Criminal Procedure" and substitute "Chapter 46B or 46C, Code of Criminal Procedure".
(2) Add the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumber subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Article 55.01, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsection (a-4) to read as follows:

(a) A person who has been placed under a custodial or noncustodial arrest for commission of either a felony or misdemeanor is entitled to have all records and files relating to the arrest expunged if:
(1) the person is tried for the offense for which the person was arrested and is:
   (A) acquitted by the trial court, except as provided by Subsection (c); or
   (B) convicted and subsequently:
      (i) pardoned for a reason other than that described by Subparagraph (ii); or
      (ii) pardoned or otherwise granted relief on the basis of actual innocence with respect to that offense, if the applicable pardon or court order clearly indicates on its face that the pardon or order was granted or rendered on the basis of the person's actual innocence; or
   (2) the person has been released and the charge, if any, has not resulted in a final conviction and is no longer pending and there was no court-ordered community supervision under Chapter 42A for the offense, unless the offense is a Class C misdemeanor, provided that:
      (A) regardless of whether any statute of limitations exists for the offense and whether any limitations period for the offense has expired, an indictment or information charging the person with the commission of a misdemeanor offense based on the person's arrest or charging the person with the commission of any felony offense arising out of the same transaction for which the person was arrested:
         (i) has not been presented against the person at any time following the arrest, and:
            (a) at least 180 days have elapsed from the date of arrest if the arrest for which the expunction was sought was for an offense punishable as a Class C misdemeanor and if there was no felony charge arising out of the same transaction for which the person was arrested;
            (b) at least one year has elapsed from the date of arrest if the arrest for which the expunction was sought was for an offense punishable as a Class B or A misdemeanor and if there was no felony charge arising out of the same transaction for which the person was arrested;
            (c) at least three years have elapsed from the date of arrest if the arrest for which the expunction was sought was for an offense punishable as a felony or if there was a felony charge arising out of the same transaction for which the person was arrested; or
            (d) the attorney representing the state certifies that the applicable arrest records and files are not needed for use in any criminal investigation or prosecution, including an investigation or prosecution of another person; or
         (ii) if presented at any time following the arrest, was dismissed or quashed, and the court finds that the indictment or information was dismissed or quashed because:
            (a) the person completed a veterans treatment court program created under Chapter 124, Government Code, or former law, subject to Subsection (a-3);
the person completed a mental health court program created under Chapter 125, Government Code, or former law, subject to Subsection (a-4);

(c) the person completed a pretrial intervention program authorized under Section 76.011, Government Code, other than a veterans treatment court program created under Chapter 124, Government Code, or former law, or a mental health court program created under Chapter 125, Government Code, or former law;

(d) [the presentment had been made because of mistake, false information, or other similar reason indicating absence of probable cause at the time of the dismissal to believe the person committed the offense; or]

(e) [the indictment or information was void; or]

(B) prosecution of the person for the offense for which the person was arrested is no longer possible because the limitations period has expired.

(a-4) A person is eligible under Subsection (a)(2)(A)(ii)(b) for an expunction of arrest records and files only if:

(1) the person has not previously received an expunction of arrest records and files under that sub-subparagraph; and

(2) the person submits to the court an affidavit attesting to that fact.

SECTION ____. Section 1a, Article 55.02, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by adding Subsection (a-2) to read as follows:

(a-2) A trial court dismissing a case following a person’s successful completion of a mental health court program created under Chapter 125, Government Code, or former law, if the trial court is a district court, or a district court in the county in which the trial court is located may, with the consent of the attorney representing the state, enter an order of expunction for a person entitled to expunction under Article 55.01(a)(2)(A)(ii)(b) not later than the 30th day after the date the court dismisses the case or receives the information regarding that dismissal, as applicable. Notwithstanding any other law, a court that enters an order for expunction under this subsection may not charge any fee or assess any cost for the expunction.

SECTION ____. Article 102.006(a), Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended to read as follows:

(a) In addition to any other fees required by other law and except as provided by Subsections [Subsection] (b) and (b-1), a petitioner seeking expunction of a criminal record in a district court shall pay the following fees:

(1) the fee charged for filing an ex parte petition in a civil action in district court;

(2) $1 plus postage for each certified mailing of notice of the hearing date; and

(3) $2 plus postage for each certified mailing of certified copies of an order of expunction.

SECTION ____. Article 102.006(b), Code of Criminal Procedure, as amended by Chapters 693 (HB 322) and 1149 (HB 557), Acts of the 85th Legislature, Regular Session, 2017, is reenacted and amended to read as follows:
The fees under Subsection (a) or the fee under Subsection (a-1), as applicable, shall be waived if the petitioner [:

(1) seeks expunction of a criminal record that relates to an arrest for an offense of which the person was acquitted, other than an acquittal for an offense described by Article 55.01(c), and the petition for expunction is filed not later than the 30th day after the date of the acquittal [:

(2) is entitled to expunction under Article 55.01(a)(2)(A)(ii)(a) after successful completion of a veterans treatment court program created under Chapter 124, Government Code, or former law].

SECTION ____. Article 102.006, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by adding Subsection (b-1) to read as follows:

(b-1) The fees under Subsection (a) shall be waived if the petitioner is entitled to expunction:

(2) under Article 55.01(a)(2)(A)(ii)(b) after successful completion of a mental health court program created under Chapter 125, Government Code, or former law.

SECTION _____. Section 125.001, Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 125.001. MENTAL HEALTH COURT PROGRAM DEFINED; PROCEDURES FOR CERTAIN DEFENDANTS. (a) In this chapter, "mental health court program" means a program that has the following essential characteristics:

(1) the integration of mental illness treatment services and mental retardation services in the processing of cases in the judicial system;

(2) the use of a nonadversarial approach involving prosecutors and defense attorneys to promote public safety and to protect the due process rights of program participants;

(3) early identification and prompt placement of eligible participants in the program;

(4) access to mental illness treatment services and mental retardation services;

(5) ongoing judicial interaction with program participants;

(6) diversion of potentially mentally ill or mentally retarded defendants to needed services as an alternative to subjecting those defendants to the criminal justice system;

(7) monitoring and evaluation of program goals and effectiveness;

(8) continuing interdisciplinary education to promote effective program planning, implementation, and operations; and

(9) development of partnerships with public agencies and community organizations, including local mental retardation authorities.

(b) If a defendant successfully completes a mental health court program, after notice to the attorney representing the state and a hearing in the mental health court at which that court determines that a dismissal is in the best interest of justice, the mental health court shall provide to the court in which the criminal case is pending information about the dismissal and shall include all of the information required about the defendant for a petition for expunction under Section 2(b), Article 55.02, Code of Criminal Procedure. The court in which the criminal case is pending shall dismiss the case against the defendant and:

(1) if that trial court is a district court, the court may, with the consent of the attorney representing the state, enter an order of expunction on behalf of the defendant under Section 1a(a-2), Article 55.02, Code of Criminal Procedure; or

(2) if that trial court is not a district court, the court may, with the consent of the attorney representing the state, forward the appropriate dismissal and expunction information to enable a district court with jurisdiction to enter an order of expunction on behalf of the defendant under Section 1a(a-2), Article 55.02, Code of Criminal Procedure.

SECTION____. Chapter 125, Government Code, is amended by adding Sections 125.0025 and 125.005 to read as follows:

Sec. 125.0025. ESTABLISHMENT OF REGIONAL PROGRAM. The commissioners courts of two or more counties may elect to establish a regional mental health court program under this chapter for the participating counties.

Sec. 125.005. PROGRAM IN CERTAIN COUNTIES MANDATORY. (a) The commissioners court of a county with a population of more than 200,000 shall:

(1) establish a mental health court program under Section 125.002; and

(2) direct the judge, magistrate, or coordinator to comply with Section 121.002(c)(1).

(b) A county required under this section to establish a mental health court program shall apply for federal and state funds available to pay the costs of the program. The criminal justice division of the governor’s office may assist a county in applying for federal funds as required by this subsection.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), a county is required to establish a mental health court program under this section only if:

(1) the county receives federal or state funding specifically for that purpose; and

(2) the judge, magistrate, or coordinator receives the verification described by Section 121.002(c)(2).

(d) A county that does not establish a mental health court program as required by this section and maintain the program is ineligible to receive funds for a community supervision and corrections department from the state.

SECTION____. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of this section, the changes in law made to Articles 55.01 and 55.02, Code of Criminal Procedure, apply to the expunction of arrest records and files for a person who successfully completes a mental health court program under Chapter 125, Government Code, or former law before, on, or after the effective date of this Act, regardless of when the underlying arrest occurred.
(b) The change in law made by this Act to Article 102.006, Code of Criminal Procedure, applies to the fees charged or costs assessed for an expunction order entered on or after the effective date of this Act, regardless of whether the underlying arrest occurred before, on, or after the effective date of this Act.

(c) For a person who is entitled to expunction under Article 55.01(a)(2)(A)(ii)(b), Code of Criminal Procedure, as amended by this Act, based on a successful completion of a mental health court program under Chapter 125, Government Code, or former law before the effective date of this Act, notwithstanding the 30-day time limit provided for the court to enter an automatic order of expunction under Section 1a(a-2), Article 55.02, Code of Criminal Procedure, as added by this Act, the court may, with the consent of the attorney representing the state, enter an order of expunction for the person as soon as practicable after the court receives written notice from any party to the case about the person's entitlement to the expunction.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: I know we're at a late hour, but I also know this is a 10-page amendment, so I don't want anyone to think that we're sneaking anything through here. I want to make sure that you understand that this is vetted policy that landed in the senate. It has some issues we've got to resolve over there, but in the meantime, we can certainly attach it here. This is actually the language from HB 1320, which passed 9-0 out of the Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence and also on this house floor passed out 131-7. So that gives you the legislative history of it. It's a bill that updates our mental health specialty courts to have the same dismissal and expunction on completion and sets in mechanisms that have proven effective in our drug courts and makes them mandatory for large counties. Now, I want to come back to that because there was some consternation about that in committee that we were able to resolve. Because the language looks like it's mandatory and if it's not complied with then the county could lose funding. So I do want to address that to allay the fears of some folks in the counties because that's not the intent nor is that what the language of the legislation accomplishes.

Chairman Coleman and I have worked on this for some time, but before I got here, Chairman Coleman created these mental health courts. And if you're familiar with typical drug courts or specialty courts of that nature, this is a similar function and a similar construct to that in that if there is a mental health issue that's distinctly tied to the commission of the offense and the district attorney—and this is important because a key component of all these specialty courts, because there's a pretty solid carrot at the end of the road there, is that the DA has the gatekeeper function. So if they don't say you get into it, you don't get into it. But if they say you get into it and you complete the programs and you're monitored—it's essentially like an intensive probate.
Representative NEVÁREZ: Representative Moody, you were talking about specialty courts and what the DA—and maybe I didn't hear you correctly—but what you're talking about is the DA actually diverting to a specialty court or have it be placed in a regular court of general jurisdiction. Maybe I wasn't following that correctly. Can you tell me again?

MOODY: So some crime comes down the way, you're charged with it, and—let's take the example of veterans courts. We have those in a myriad of counties today. So someone has a service-connected disability that then also has a nexus to the crime that they're being charged with. Maybe it's a drug-related crime—and that typically is the case. Maybe it's a violent crime that's tied to substance use disorder that somehow tied to the service-connected disability—traumatic brain injury or whatever it is. The DA gets to say, "I see the nexus. I agree that there is some connection between the two. So I'm going to allow you to participate in the program." Because once they allow you to participate in the program, the carrot is if you successfully complete, you can actually end up at the end of the road with an expunction and a clean record as it pertains to that official offense.

NEVÁREZ: Now, take it one step further, Representative Moody. And I hope you know the answer to this.

MOODY: Me, too.

NEVÁREZ: May a judge make the call and say, "You know what, Mr. Prosecutor? Your defendant may benefit from being in this type of court for the reason that I see the nexus and maybe you don't see it." Is that possible?

MOODY: I think there's a healthy discussion. I know at least in the jurisdiction that I'm from, there's a healthy discussion between the judges of these specialty courts and the DA's office because as a part of the program there is a representative from the prosecutor's office at the table in these specialty courts. In fact, when I was at the DA's office in El Paso, I served as the representative on various occasions in the DWI drug court in the misdemeanor world. So there is certainly a healthy dialogue between the DA’s office and the judges that manage these dockets.

NEVÁREZ: I might posit to you, Representative Moody, that we can also have police involved in that because they might be a little bit closer to identifying the nexus, since they're the ones actually investigating the offense from the ground level up, and be able to make a recommendation at some point. It's a good discussion to have in the future at some point that they're the ones that can actually do that. Do you think that might not be something we can consider? Maybe not tonight but some other time.

MOODY: I certainly think that that's an important part of the discussion. Under the constructs that we have now, law enforcement does play a role, but to your point, it's kind of after the fact. Right? Someone's already in the specialty court. So involving them at the front end in being able to identify those issues—and we're starting to do that. We're training our officers. I know that in El Paso we have a new program where we're getting mental health experts in the field with our law enforcement. I think actually various jurisdictions have this. These are the crisis intervention teams. So we're starting to fold that decision-making in at the front end. It's certainly not statewide yet, and so this is a way that at least in the large counties if you've got a docket of individuals that may have mental health issues and that bears a nexus to the crime they're being charged with, we might be willing to give them an opportunity to get their record cleared. Because as you well know, and we've had discussions over the last four years during the last couple of sessions, we've dealt with mental illness, unfortunately, by just throwing them into the criminal justice system. I see Chairman Coleman behind you, and he'll be the first to tell you that the largest provider of mental health care services in this state is the Harris County jail system. We need to stop that, and that's what this is aimed to do.

NEVÁREZ: You would agree with me that Representative Price has done a lot of work not just overall in mental health, but he's done a really good job of branching out in the different areas that we need to look at the last few sessions. I think this is a good continuation of that, and I think your amendment is good.

MOODY: If you're looking for me to compliment Mr. Price, I'm happy to do that. I think he's done an outstanding job in this arena.

REPRESENTATIVE KRAUSE: Just looking over your amendment, are you creating these mental health specialty courts in this amendment? Are those already set up or is this something new we're creating?

MOODY: No, the construct exists, and the gentleman standing behind you is the one that actually created them long before we got here—not too long, sorry. So the construct exists. The problem is we have no real incentive to make counties do that. So what this does is it says that you've got to go look for grant funding. And this goes back to the point when I laid this out, where the counties were worried that it was an unfunded mandate. I know we're very conscious of not doing that. So let's be very clear. This is not an unfunded mandate. What this says is we're going to require you to do one thing—go look for grant funding to pay for this and if you find it, then you have to do it. And so the only instance—and it's not even unfunded—the only instance in which this becomes a mandate is if a county goes out, puts a plan together, finds the money, and then goes, "Well, we're not going to do it." And I just don't think that's reality. I think what will happen is they'll go find those funds—and they exist at the federal level and state level. They find those funds, and then they put together a program that works for folks. So I want people to know because the concern was raised in committee, but I think you should take note of the committee vote. The concern was addressed because they understand that the only mandatory thing we're making them do is to go try to find the funding. That's it.

REPRESENTATIVE COLEMAN: Representative Moody, first of all, you looked at the mental health courts, both felony and misdemeanor courts, and saw they weren't being used as much as they could be. Is that correct?
MOODY: That is correct. It is a construct some counties have done very well with, but I know—and I know you know this better than I do—that if we give people the opportunity, we push them along a little bit, and they're able to find funds for this, this could really pay dividends in their community.

COLEMAN: Yes, and you know that if somebody has a mental illness, has committed a crime, and ends up in a court, the worst place for them to be is in jail. Isn’t that correct?

MOODY: Yes, and typically in those situations you're just going to exacerbate the issues that they're suffering from. We have for a very long time dealt with mental health and substance use issues by jamming people into the criminal justice system. We're starting to turn away from that. We talk about ending the stigma, and we talk about treating the mental health care crisis like a health care crisis and not a criminal justice crisis. So we're starting to turn that corner. We're certainly getting there, but we're not there yet. This would be one way to extricate some of those individuals from the criminal justice system.

COLEMAN: And Ms. Thompson did the first drug and alcohol courts because people who had drug and alcohol problems weren’t going to get better in jail, right?

MOODY: I've represented clients that if they have a substance abuse issue, the quickest thing they want to do is take jail time and get back out and go about their business. But you do have an obligation as a defense attorney to try and represent their interests. This is a human being. You certainly see that those folks could be better served being in a program like that, maybe helping lift themselves up from the substance use disorder or if they're suffering from mental illness get the right treatment, get to the right professional.

COLEMAN: And you would agree—and I heard someone mention it earlier—that for our veterans that have been in combat and other situations, that the veterans courts that deal with both mental health and substance abuse issues and particularly post traumatic stress disorder and trauma, have worked extremely well.

MOODY: Oh, absolutely. And I guess I'm a little bit biased. You know my dad was here the other day. He actually presides over the veterans court in El Paso, and the success rates there are amazing. I've been to their graduations. I know some of you have probably been invited to the veterans court graduations in your jurisdictions. Lives are being changed. And maybe it’s just one life at a time, but that makes the difference to that person on that day.

COLEMAN: Well, thank you for bringing this amendment on mental health courts and showing people the pathway to get funded.

MOODY: Well, thank you for showing us the way on how to get it done in the first place.

A record vote was requested by Representative Stickland.

Amendment No. 1 was adopted by (Record 1594): 144 Yeas, 0 Nays, 2 Present, not voting.
PRICE: Members, I appreciate your indulgence on this. CSSB 562 would allow for the competency restoration to defendants who need it most at the outset rather than at the back end where these individuals are deteriorating in jail. I would appreciate your favorable consideration, and I move passage.

REPRESENTATIVE LARSON: Four, we were talking about this earlier, about the condition of the state hospital system. In San Antonio, obviously, we've made some changes. We've moved some of the populations in and consolidated. Can you sort of give me or give everyone an understanding of the status of our state hospital system?

PRICE: So why this bill is necessary and how it affects the state hospital system is demand for inpatient psychiatric care—including competency restoration and treatment for persons who are found guilty by reason of insanity—that exceeds the existing capacity of the state hospitals and other state-funded facilities. So what happens is in all of our county jails what we end up with is certain individuals who need mental health treatment. They need restoration, but they don't have space in the state hospitals, and so they languish for, in many cases, hundreds of days before they can be transported to a state hospital. And in some cases the legal criteria rather than the clinical necessity is what's determining which facility they go to. So there's already in statute a laundry list of crimes that if they are alleged to have committed, they will go to Vernon because it is a maximum security unit. And so what we do now is we wait for a space to open up. We send them to Vernon, and then they're clinically evaluated. And if they're not dangerous—if they committed an aggravated assault, for example, but they don't need to stay in a maximum security unit—then they will transfer them to another one of our state hospitals. And that's a very cumbersome system. It's an archaic statute.

What we're doing with CSSB 562 is saying, let's evaluate them clinically on the front end. If they never need to go to Vernon then we can get them out of the county jail. We can take them to a facility or state hospital somewhere where they can be treated correctly and their competency restored, for instance. We don't have to send them to Vernon just because they committed one of these seven or eight offenses. And so it really will help reduce the backlog not just at Vernon but in all these other state hospitals and move patients into the places where they can get the treatment better and quicker. I think it will be more effective. It'll help our county jails, too.

LARSON: And the Bexar County model—I know that you brought the committee down twice over the last few years looking at the diversion programs and looking at how we've set up the mental health aspect of it, along with job training in the private sector integrated with some facilities right there as well—I believe that was part of the solution that you've got built into this.

PRICE: It makes a difference, and seeing how that is affecting some of our local counties—just the cost to house some of the individuals for an extended period of time. I know folks here from Harris County will say that their county jail is the largest mental health treatment center anywhere, and that shouldn't be the way it is. So this is just one incremental step. It's not going to totally solve the problem, but it is going to make a big difference This is something that the Judicial Council wants. It's something we've talked to a lot of leaders in mental health about, but we've also talked to law enforcement and sheriffs, and it's a bill that's widely supported.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Coleman moved to print all remarks on CSSB 562.

The motion prevailed.

CSSB 562 - REMARKS

COLEMAN: Also, I have just a brief question. Bexar County has been a leader in these areas hasn't it?

PRICE: Yes, Bexar County has been very much at the forefront along with Harris County in many aspects such as creating step-down treatment centers. The spectrum of care is being completed in a very productive way, I think. They've created diversion programs long before a lot of counties had the ability to do that or think about it. And so it's helped not only law enforcement and helped them focus on what they want to do, but it's helped folks who don't need to be in the criminal justice system get treatment. So I think it's been a win-win.

COLEMAN: Well, thank you for all your work and the rest of the work of the people here in the house and senate on these important issues.

SB 1995 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE C. TURNER: Thank you for visiting with me about this bill throughout the course of the day and talking through some of the concerns I had earlier. I just wanted to visit with you about a few things for the purposes of legislative intent, if that's all right. We agree, I believe, that it’s good public policy to have subject matter experts serve on state licensing boards, that their expertise is invaluable to the missions of those boards. Is that right?

REPRESENTATIVE PADDIE: Absolutely. I think the public members are valuable and also those that are market participants. Obviously, no one knows their business better than them.

C. TURNER: But right now, as the result of a Supreme Court case a few years ago, people who agree to serve on these state licensing boards could be sued individually, sued personally. Is that not right?

PADDIE: That is the concern and what we're trying to remedy.

C. TURNER: Right, and so my understanding is that this bill, SB 1995, will attempt to fix that. And it's in response to some recent federal action in the courts I mentioned and also modeled on some actions other states have taken to try to address this issue. Is that right?

PADDIE: Absolutely. I think it addresses the two key points of that. I think it shows that we have a policy in place to prevent this anti-competitive activity, and it shows that we have active control over these boards.

C. TURNER: Am I right that this stems out of a case from North Carolina where a licensing board took action against some folks who were doing teeth whitening? They were told to cease and desist since they were operating outside a dentist's office. And those individuals sued the state agency and the board members individually, and they won. Basically, that was the genesis of all this.

PADDIE: That's kind of where it all started. Yes, sir.

C. TURNER: Okay, and the bill is narrowly tailored, right? It creates a third party review process but not for all rules—if I understand it right—that a licensing board adopts but only for those related to market competition. Is that correct?

PADDIE: That is absolutely correct. And so if there is something that's outside the bounds of that, that maybe we've debated on this floor very contentiously, those are not the types of things that could come up. It would be very specific and narrowly tailored to market competition.

C. TURNER: Some would say, well, why didn't the legislature just review these types of rules and make these decisions? But that's not really practical, is it?

PADDIE: Well, no. As you know and as the body knows, we're just here every other year for five months. There are a whole lot of rules being made mostly as a result of the things that we do in this body, and we're not here to provide oversight for that. So it's more appropriate to do it this way.
C. TURNER: So to be perfectly clear, the bill provides a process for active state supervision and a final authority review process to ensure that no conflict of interest could result in an individual serving on a state board and being sued as a result of subsequent litigation. Is that right?

PADDIE: Right. It does provide that protection.

C. TURNER: And it's very similar, I believe, if you serve on a neighborhood homeowner's association board. Those board members are protected from being sued as individuals, and basically this applies that same logic to our state licensing boards.

PADDIE: As I understand it, I think it would be a similar situation.

C. TURNER: Representative, thank you for answering my questions on this and addressing some of those concerns. I think this is a good bill that we need to pass.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative C. Turner moved to print remarks between Representative Paddie and Representative C. Turner on SB 1995.

The motion prevailed.

SB 1995, as amended, was passed to third reading.

(c) In streamlining the Medicaid provider credentialing process under this section, the commission may designate a centralized credentialing entity and shall require [may]:

(1) that the credentialing entity and the entity serving as the state's Medicaid claims administrator share information to reduce the submission of duplicative information or documents necessary for both Medicaid enrollment and credentialing [in the database established under Subchapter C, Chapter 32, Human Resources Code, with the centralized credentialing entity]; and
(2) [require] all managed care organizations contracting with the commission to provide health care services to Medicaid recipients under a managed care plan issued by the organization to use the centralized credentialing entity as a hub for the collection and sharing of information.

(e) Subject to Subsection (f), the commission shall enroll a provider as a Medicaid provider, without requiring the provider to separately apply for enrollment through the entity serving as the state's Medicaid claims administrator, if the provider is:

(Thierry, Walle, and S. Thompson - House Sponsors)

SB 2150, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the reporting of certain information on maternal mortality to the Department of State Health Services and the confidentiality of that information.

Amendment No. 1 (Committee Amendment No. 1)

Representative Price offered the following committee amendment to SB 2150:

Amend SB 2150 by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION ___. Chapter 1061, Special District Local Laws Code, is amended by adding Subchapter G to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER G. SALES AND USE TAX

Sec. 1061.301. TAX AUTHORIZED. (a) The district may adopt, change the rate of, or abolish a sales and use tax at an election held in the district.
(b) The district may not adopt a tax under this subchapter or increase the rate of the tax if as a result of the adoption of the tax or the tax increase the combined rate of all sales and use taxes imposed by the district and all other political subdivisions of this state having territory in the district would exceed two percent in any location in the district.

Sec. 1061.302. APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAW. Except to the extent that a provision of this subchapter applies, Chapter 323, Tax Code, applies to a tax authorized by this subchapter in the same manner as that chapter applies to the tax authorized by that chapter.

Sec. 1061.303. TAX RATE; CHANGE IN RATE. (a) The district may impose a tax authorized by this subchapter in increments of one-eighth of one percent, with a minimum rate of one-eighth of one percent and a maximum rate of two percent.

(b) The district may increase the rate of a tax authorized by this subchapter to a maximum of two percent or decrease the rate of the tax to a minimum of one-eighth of one percent if the change is approved by a majority of the voters of the district at an election called for that purpose.

Sec. 1061.304. ELECTION PROCEDURE. An election to adopt, change the rate of, or abolish a tax authorized by this subchapter is called by the adoption of an order of the board. The board may call an election on its own motion and shall call an election if a number of qualified voters in the district equal to at least five percent of the number of registered voters in the district petitions the board to call the election.

Sec. 1061.305. ELECTION IN OTHER TAXING AUTHORITY. (a) In this section, "taxing authority" means any entity authorized to impose a local sales and use tax.

(b) If the district is included within the boundaries of another taxing authority and the adoption or increase in the rate of a tax under this subchapter would result in a combined tax rate by the district and other political subdivisions of this state of more than two percent at any location in the district, an election to approve or increase the rate of the tax has no effect unless:

(1) one or more of the other taxing authorities holds an election in accordance with the law governing that authority on the same date as the election under this subchapter to reduce the tax rate of that authority to a rate that will result in a combined tax rate by the district and other political subdivisions of not more than two percent at any location in the district; and

(2) the combined tax rate is reduced to not more than two percent as a result of that election.

(c) This section does not permit a taxing authority to impose taxes at differential tax rates within the territory of the authority.

Sec. 1061.306. TAX EFFECTIVE DATE. (a) The adoption, change in the rate of, or abolition of a tax under this subchapter takes effect on the first day of the first calendar quarter occurring after the expiration of the first complete calendar quarter occurring after the date on which the comptroller receives notice of the results of an election to adopt, change the rate of, or abolish the tax.
(b) If the comptroller determines that an effective date provided by Subsection (a) will occur before the comptroller can reasonably take the action required to begin collecting the tax or to implement the change in the rate of the tax or the abolition of the tax, the effective date may be extended by the comptroller until the first day of the next calendar quarter.

Sec. 1061.307. USE OF TAX REVENUE. Revenue from a tax imposed under this subchapter may be used by the district for any purpose of the district authorized by law.

SECTION ____. Section 1061.151(b), Special District Local Laws Code, is amended to read as follows:

(b) The proposed budget must contain a complete financial statement of:
   (1) the outstanding obligations of the district;
   (2) the cash on hand in each district fund;

      previous year;
   (4) the money available to the district from all sources during the ensuing year;
   (5) the balances expected at the end of the year in which the budget is being prepared;
   (6) the estimated revenue and balances available to cover the proposed budget;
   (7) the estimated ad valorem tax rate required; and
   (8) the proposed expenditures and disbursements and the estimated

Amendment No. 9 - Point of Order

Representative Stickland raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 9 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules. The point of order was overruled and the speaker submitted the following ruling:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER
on Amendment No. 9 to Senate Bill 11
Announced in the House on May 21, 2019

Representative Stickland raises a point of order against further consideration of the Zerwas Amendment to the Allison Amendment to CSSB 11 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules on the grounds that the amendment is not germane. The subject of the amendment is student mental health and resources for ensuring that health. The subject of the amendment to the amendment is the establishment of a consortium of the state’s medical schools to provide resources for the mental health of children and adolescents, i.e., students. A primary rationale for the amendment and the amendment to the amendment is that provision of student mental health resources has a direct bearing on providing safe school environments.
The amendment to the amendment is on the same subject as the amendment and therefore is germane.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.

Amendment No. 9 - Point of Order

Representative Stickland raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 9 under Rule 11, Section 3, of the House Rules.

(Anchia now present)

The point of order was overruled and the speaker submitted the following ruling:

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

on Amendment No. 9 to Senate Bill 11

Announced in the House on May 21, 2019

Representative Stickland raises a point of order against further consideration of the Zerwas Amendment to the Allison Amendment to CSSB 11 under Rule 11, Section 3, of the House Rules on the grounds that the Zerwas Amendment changes the original purpose of the bill.

The Zerwas Amendment is not amending the bill, but rather another amendment. Thus, it does not come within the ambit of the rule.

Accordingly, the point of order is respectfully overruled.
