The invocation was offered by Representative White as follows:

Father God almighty, in the name of Jesus, we come to you fallen. And because of this, Father God almighty, we just ask you to instill upon us humility and wisdom. The people that we serve back home, they first belong to you. And with that, we need the humility and wisdom to know that these people are first yours, and we need the wisdom to be able to lead them and guide them. Father God, thank you for all these members that are on the floor. Continue to bless the safety of their families here and back home. And Father God almighty, we just want to thank you for blessing us to live in a great state in a great country. In the name of your son and the Holy Spirit, amen.

The chair recognized Representative Neave who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

HB 1535 ON THIRD READING

(by Klick, Dean, Price, Oliverson, Howard, et al.)

HB 1535, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the medical use of low-THC cannabis by patients with certain medical conditions and the establishment of compassionate-use institutional review boards to evaluate and approve proposed research programs to study the medical use of low-THC cannabis in the treatment of certain patients.

HB 1535 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: First of all, I want to thank you for the work that you've done on this, and it's not just this session. This goes back to 2015 and the enormous amount of work you put into this program. I believe since we left the session last time, this program has grown by nearly 500 percent, and I think this bill does a good job in moving us forward. I want to go back and be very clear, though. In the legislation that created this program, there was an instruction to DPS to license not less than three dispensing organizations. Is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE KLICK: That's correct.

MOODY: And is it your intent that they license only three?

KLICK: No, that was a minimum beginning by a certain date because we wanted to speed the program ahead.

MOODY: So the intent was that was a floor not a ceiling?

KLICK: Absolutely.

MOODY: Okay. And I think, as the program continues, you would agree with me that there are other entities out there that are qualified and could seek licenses?

KLICK: That is true. Currently, the patient population is still very small. It's about 5,000 patients.

MOODY: True, and while that is the case, like I said, there was a 500 percent increase in the last couple of years. And I assume that as we continue to move forward, my hope is that DPS understands that the floor is not a cap and that we need to make sure that if the program is going to operate, that it operates in a way that people can access the medical cannabis that this program affords them.

KLICK: Correct.

MOODY: Is it your hope that DPS issues more licenses?

KLICK: As the program and the demand increases, yes. We were never intending to restrict the number of licenses.

MAJOR STATE CALENDAR

CSHB 2622 ON SECOND READING

(by Holland, Paddie, Canales, White, Metcalf, et al.)

CSHB 2622, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the enforcement of certain federal laws regulating firearms, firearm accessories, and firearm ammunition within the State of Texas.

CSHB 2622 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HOLLAND: CSHB 2622 will protect the current rights of law-abiding gun owners in the State of Texas. Any federal statute, order, rule, or regulation that does not exist under the current laws of the State of Texas will not be enforced by Texas law enforcement resources. I believe we have some amendments.

Amendment No. 1

Representative J. Turner offered the following amendment to CSHB 2622:

Amend CSHB 2622 (house committee printing) by striking page 2, lines 16 through 18, and relettering subsequent paragraphs of added Section 1.10(b)(2), Penal Code, accordingly.

REPRESENTATIVE J. TURNER: According to a Dallas Morning News/University of Texas at Tyler poll in 2020, 86 percent of registered voters in Texas support background checks on all gun sales, including at gun shows and for private sales. If you are one of those 86 percent of Texans, then you should support this amendment because this amendment removes universal background checks from being one of the new potential federal laws that our state and local authorities would be prohibited under this bill from helping to enforce. Now, this is not, by the way, just an abstract concept, members, because the U.S. House, with bipartisan support, has recently passed the Bipartisan Background Checks Act of 2021. And that bill, if it were to pass the senate and be signed by the president, would close large existing loopholes in our background checks system and would require background checks for private sales, with a narrow list of exceptions.

Now, I personally happen to be among the 86 percent of Texans according to that poll who supports that idea. Even if you happen to not be, it's one more big step to say that if that federal bill passes the U.S. Senate and is signed by the president, that we're going to prohibit our local governments and police from assisting in any manner and enforcing that law if it becomes law. As I read it, that would mean, for example, that our city police might be made aware of an active venue for illegal gun sales, but they'd be prohibited from informing federal authorities about it. It would mean the district attorneys who uncover violations of the law, if it became law, in the course of their other investigations could not refer the matter to a federal prosecutor, which is something they do regularly, of course, for many federal laws. And it would also complicate, I believe, the many joint federal and state law enforcement and prosecutorial task forces that we have related to crimes that include gun offenses. I actually have something like that in my district. It's a very successful program called Project Safe Neighborhoods.

Members, one last thing. I would say that even if you're among the 14 percent of Texans according to that poll who do not support universal background checks, the best avenue is to simply advocate against the passage of that measure in Congress. If that or other similar legislation does pass the U.S. Congress, for as long as it's in effect we should respect it as a law that was passed for the United States of America by the elected representatives of the American people. We should not make it a law that we prohibit our local police from helping to enforce.

REPRESENTATIVE WU: My understanding of background checks is not that great, but would it be fair to say that a background check would include someone's criminal history?

J. TURNER: That's my understanding.

WU: And would it be reasonable to interpret the legislation that's before us today to say if there was a federal background check that was required and law enforcement added to someone's criminal background—they provided records for a criminal background or they provided a search for a criminal background—that could be considered assisting in a background search?

J. TURNER: Well, Representative Wu, that's an interesting question. I tried to determine that myself in the time that I had to review this bill. I couldn't be sure of the answer, but it seems like it's a legitimate question to ask. Now, the bill by its terms involves new federal laws that might pass. So it basically grandfathers in existing federal background check law, but we might well see universal background checks that cover private sales. And if that's the case, it raises the question, I think, at least, that you raise, which is if state enforcement authorities are assisting in providing information that is used in such a background check, is that assisting in the enforcement of that new federal statute? I think it's a fair question.

WU: Absolutely, and my reading of it is it doesn't carve out any exemptions for law enforcement to provide that type of assistance in background checks. It just says any action, any type of cooperation, even if it is merely providing and adding to someone's criminal history.

J. TURNER: Well, the language is pretty broad, Representative. It says basically that neither a state agency nor "a political subdivision of this state, or a law enforcement officer or other person employed by an agency of this state or a political subdivision of this state" and then . . . may in any "manner provide assistance to a federal agency or official with respect—"

WU: Any manner?

J. TURNER: Any manner.

WU: This says "any manner"?

J. TURNER: Correct.

WU: And your amendment would essentially nullify that and take care of that problem, that ambiguity of what does "any manner" mean in terms of background checks.

J. TURNER: Well, it would with respect to the background checks for a private sale or transfer of a firearm because that's the provision that this amendment would remove.

REPRESENTATIVE SCHAEFER: Thank you, Mr. Turner, for your eloquent comments on this amendment. But members, I would submit to you that the question is not before you as to whether you agree or disagree with background checks. The question before you is who decides—who decides. Right now, we have background checks at stores where you go to buy a gun, and that applies to probably 99 percent of all the purchases in the State of Texas. This bill doesn't change that whatsoever. But what he is talking about is potential changes from the Biden administration and democrats who control Washington so that Texans will have only one option to obtain a firearm legally and that's to walk through a door that is completely controlled by people in Washington.

Members, the question is who decides. Will we allow Washington to close the doors that are available to Texans, to law-abiding Texans, today? Or would we allow, by future action of the Biden administration, the people in Washington to close the door? And so then the only way that you can legally purchase a gun is to come through the door that is controlled by people who we have not voted for—by administrators and bureaucrats at the ATF and the FBI that we have never voted for—to set the rules on who and what and where? The question is, are we going to let Washington decide what the rules of the road are for background checks or are we going to let Texans decide? And ultimately, this bill is about that, and this amendment takes that away from us. This amendment, if passed, says we're going to transfer that decision-making to Washington and not leave it in the hands of law-abiding Texans and the members of the legislature and the governor and the duly elected people of the State of Texas. So I'm going to urge you to vote against this amendment in order to keep that decision-making in Texas and not transfer it to Washington.

REPRESENTATIVE C. TURNER: Representative Turner's amendment makes a very small modification to the bill, does it not? It simply says that this bill won't apply to a new background check law if, in fact, Congress passes it. So my question is, why are you opposed to that when 86 percent of the American people support closing the background check loopholes, including—as far as I know, he still supports it—Lieutenant Governor Dan Patrick? He was quoted as saying that following the tragedies in El Paso and Midland-Odessa in 2019: We need to do something about background checks. This is something we can affirmatively do in this house today on background checks to say that if there is a new background check law passed, we will do our part to see that guns don't fall into the wrong hands. Why would you oppose that?

SCHAEFER: I think Texans should be the ones to decide, not people in Washington that we've never voted for.

C. TURNER: This is our opportunity to decide, isn't it?

SCHAEFER: The power to determine the fate of background checks lies with the legislature and the duly elected representatives in the State of Texas. It should not lie in Washington.

C. TURNER: Are the representatives in Washington not duly elected, Mr. Schaefer?

SCHAEFER: I know what the Biden administration is thinking about doing. I know what the democrats who control Washington are talking about doing. And so, Representative Turner, I do oppose this in order to keep the power here in the State of Texas.

C. TURNER: Are you suggesting representatives in the U.S. Capitol are not duly elected?

SCHAEFER: They're a lot of people up there that are not elected by Texans.

C. TURNER: Well, of course. There's people elected from other states. I think we all know that. But we have a rather large delegation in the United States Congress—the second-largest, in fact. They are duly elected, are they not?

SCHAEFER: They are.

C. TURNER: Okay, but you said in your remarks you had concerns about unelected people making the decisions. You specifically said the FBI and the ATF. Is there a—

SCHAEFER: Rulemaking authority. Rulemaking authority, absolutely.

C. TURNER: Rulemaking authority, sure. Is there a problem with sworn law enforcement officers and the FBI and the ATF making these types of decisions? I mean, these are agents and agencies sworn to keep the American people safe. Is there a concern with them being able to implement laws made by Congress?

SCHAEFER: They're not elected officials. They're rulemaking authorities.

C. TURNER: Well, of course they're not elected. Neither is the Department of Public Safety. Neither is the Department of Licensing and Regulation. Neither is TxDOT. They make decisions every day that affect the people of our state. What is the difference other than they have a badge?

SCHAEFER: The difference is they are not elected and they are under the direction of President Biden who, every time he speaks on the subject of firearms and the Second Amendment, talks about restricting our rights. And so I think there's real reason for Texans to be concerned.

C. TURNER: All right, Mr. Schaefer. How does conducting a background check that keeps a firearm out of the hands of someone who has a criminal history—how does that infringe on your rights or my rights?

SCHAEFER: So that's not the question. The question is—

C. TURNER: Well, it's my question. It's my question right now.

SCHAEFER: The question is who decides. The question is who decides. If you want people in Washington to make these decisions, then support this amendment. If you want to leave that decision-making in Texas, then leave it there, because we have a background check system that's in place and it's going to stay in place after this bill passes. What we're talking about is new restrictions and red tape out of Washington that this bill would resist.

C. TURNER: Mr. Schaefer, a couple of weeks ago we passed a bill of yours, did we not, on this house floor related to firearms?

SCHAEFER: Yes.

C. TURNER: And one of the concerns that was raised in that debate and has been raised by law enforcement officials around the state is that they won't be able to know who's a good guy with a gun and who's a bad guy with a gun because you no longer have to have a license under your bill—a license to carry under your bill—if it in fact becomes law. So if your bill becomes law and we don't adopt the Turner amendment here today, aren't we getting the worst of both worlds here? Because we're going to have people that are going to slide through the background check system because we have background check loopholes, and they don't have to have a license in Texas so we don't get to affirm whether or not they should or should not be able to have a gun based on their background and there's no way for officers in Texas to know. And so doesn't that make our state less safe?

SCHAEFER: The overwhelming number of gun purchases go through a background check.

C. TURNER: But not all of them, right?

SCHAEFER: Let me finish my answer. Persons who are driving on the roads now down their streets are able to carry handguns without a license today. So all those interactions with law enforcement that take place during traffic stops, it doesn't change anything about what they know or don't know about the person because they already are able to, unlicensed, carry a handgun in their vehicle. I would also say that long guns have for decades been permissible to be carried by someone age 18 and older without any kind of permit at all. So these are known factors that law enforcement has been working with for decades.

C. TURNER: Well, and law enforcement continues to oppose that legislation. But on this amendment, again, with nearly 9 in 10 Americans and Texans supporting universal background checks, I'm not sure why you would oppose an effort to ensure that anyone who purchases a gun is legally allowed to purchase a gun and why a robust background check would be so offensive to you, because it doesn't infringe on your rights or my rights or any other law-abiding citizen's rights.

SCHAEFER: This is an amendment about determining who decides. That decision should stay in the State of Texas.

REPRESENTATIVE KRAUSE: Is there anything in this bill, in CSHB 2622, that does not allow the federal government to enact any firearm regulation that they want to?

SCHAEFER: Absolutely not.

KRAUSE: And is there anything in this bill that would not allow the federal government to enforce whatever firearm regulation that they put into place?

SCHAEFER: Absolutely not. The federal government will have all the tools within its federal resources to enforce whatever they are able to pass.

KRAUSE: So really, this amendment that we're debating right now really doesn't have an effect on the law that we're debating today because we're not saying that the federal government can't do whatever they want to on firearm regulations. We're just saying we're not going to use Texas time, personnel, or resources to enforce that law if it's contrary to our stated law.

SCHAEFER: That's right.

HOLLAND: Members, I think that Chairman Krause said it best. This bill does not change anything about current law. We're freezing the current law in place. The amendment before you, which I am opposing, has to do with striking the background checks portion of the bill for private sale and transfer only. The law at the federal level will not change. You still have to go through background checks; all of the purchase and background checks are still in place. I oppose the amendment. I encourage you to vote no on the amendment. I will be voting no.

J. TURNER: I'll just repeat a number—86 percent according to that 2020 poll by the Dallas Morning News and UT Tyler. That's the percentage of Texans—Texan registered voters in that poll—who said, we support universal background checks. Now, by voting against this amendment, you're taking it one step further. You're not only saying you don't like the idea of universal background checks, you're saying the State of Texas or no local subdivision, no local law enforcement authority, no local police will provide any assistance at all in any manner—that's the language of the bill—to enforce a background check law if it were to be passed by the federal government, a new background check law relating to private sales. Members, we are, of course, Americans here. We have voted for our members of Congress. We have voted for president. It is within Congress' authority to make law in this area. In fact, our current system of federal background checks is federal in nature. We do not have a state background check system other than what you currently have to do if you want to have a license to carry, and we passed a bill on that that would take that away as a requirement as well. It is clearly a matter for Congress to debate, and if Congress passes this law, a valid law, if someone wants to challenge it in court, they can do so. If someone wants to oppose it, they can do so. But we as Americans and as Texans should not be in the position of saying, Congress passed a duly enacted law, but this particular one, we're going to provide no assistance in enforcing, unlike all the other federal laws that our local law enforcement regularly helps to enforce by referring matters to federal authorities, to U.S. attorney offices, to federal agencies. So members, I urge you to vote yes on the amendment.

A record vote was requested by Representative Slaton.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Slaton offered the following amendment to CSHB 2622:

Amend CSHB 2622 (house committee printing) on page 4, between lines 20 and 21, by inserting the following appropriately lettered subsection:

() An individual or entity to whom this section applies may not comply with a court order that would require the individual or entity in any manner to provide assistance to a federal agency or official with respect to the enforcement of a federal statute, order, rule, or regulation described by Subsection (b).

REPRESENTATIVE SLATON: Members, this is a simple amendment that would ensure that this statute is still enforced in this state regardless of any future unforeseen court cases.

Amendment No. 2 - Point of Order

Representative J. Turner raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 2 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules on the grounds that the amendment is not germane. The point of order was withdrawn.

Amendment No. 2 was withdrawn.

Amendment No. 3

Representative Slaton offered the following amendment to CSHB 2622:

Amend CSHB 2622 (house committee printing) by inserting on page 2, between lines 25 and 26, the following:

(b-1) A person commits an offense if the person knowingly enforces or attempts to enforce a federal statute, order, rule, or regulation described by Subsection (b)(2). An offense under this section is a state jail felony.

SLATON: This amendment, it just helps this bill become more strong. Stand up for Texas and Texans standing up for our Second Amendment from out-of-control judges or future rulings that invade and impede on our Second Amendment.

HOLLAND: I'm going to oppose this amendment. I understand what Mr. Slaton's trying to do. I did talk to him about something similar. This is the first time I've seen this amendment. I'm going to leave this up to the will of the house. I will be voting no on this. I encourage you to vote no on this amendment.

SLATON: Members, you know, other states have stood up for their citizens and opposed federal law and they have marihuana. This amendment helps this bill, helps Texans stand up for our Second Amendment from unforeseen rulings and judges. This is a very simple, what I would say, clarifying and strengthening amendment to put Texas first and uphold our Second Amendment. I encourage you to vote one.

Amend CSHB 1607 (house committee printing) as follows:

On page 8, line 11, renumber Section 6 as Section 7 and insert the following:

SECTION 6. Section 35.004, Utilities Code, is amended by amending Subsection (d) and adding Subsection (d-1) to read as follows:

(d) The commission shall price wholesale transmission services within ERCOT based on the postage stamp method of pricing under which a transmission-owning utility's rate is based on the ERCOT utilities' combined annual costs of transmission, other than costs that exceed the allowance described in Subsection (d-1), divided by the total demand placed on the combined transmission systems of all such transmission-owning utilities within a power region.

(d-1) The commission by rule shall establish a reasonable allowance for capital costs incurred to interconnect generation resources and electric energy storage resources described by Section 35.152(a) with the ERCOT transmission system, which must include the costs of the direct interconnection of the generator to the system and upgrades directly caused by the interconnection. Any costs that exceed the allowance must be borne directly by the generation resource or electric energy storage resource receiving interconnection service through the facilities.

Renumber Sections 7, 8, and 9 as Sections 8, 9, and 10.

HB 21 ON SECOND READING
(by Neave, Button, Hunter, Swanson, Minjarez, et al.)

HB 21, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the statute of limitations applicable to a sexual harassment complaint filed with the Texas Workforce Commission.

HB 21 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE NEAVE: I want to thank joint authors Chairwoman Angie Chen Button, Chairman Todd Hunter, Vice-chair Valoree Swanson, and Representative Minjarez. Members, a safe work environment—from a warehouse to the Texas House, Texans deserve to be free from sexual harassment. Our fellow Texans deserve to be treated with dignity and respect. The fact of the matter is when somebody is sexually harassed at work, they rarely come forward for a wide variety of reasons—whether that's embarrassment or shame; future job prospects could be compromised; you need to put food on the table to feed your children or keep a roof over your head—and by the time one is willing to come forward or perhaps learns about their rights, the deadline forced by the strict statute of limitations will have already passed. A hundred and eighty days is about six months. Many civil statutes of limitations are about two years. Breach of contract is about four years. HB 21 will extend the current window for civil sexual harassment claims under Texas law from 180 days from the date of the alleged sexual harassment to 300 days in order to mirror federal law. Fifteen states give victims at least 300 days to file a complaint under their respective antidiscrimination statutes. Members, this legislation is asking us to give survivors a little more time—more time to process trauma, to speak with their families, to make sense of what cannot be sensible, courage to speak up—and today, members, survivors are asking for a little more time to decide.

(by Howard, Neave, Hernandez, Button, White, et al.)

CSHB 2706, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the reporting of sexual assault and other sex offenses, to the emergency services and care provided to victims of those offenses, and to the processes associated with preserving and analyzing the evidence of those offenses.

CSHB 2706 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HOWARD: I am going to take a few minutes to lay this out because one thing is I think you all need to be proud of what we as a body have done here. We've heard from several members this session that in Texas, recent statistics indicated that 6.3 million or over 33 percent of adult Texans have experienced sexual assault at some point in their lives, and the majority of these have actually had multiple assaults. Over the last several sessions, we've passed numerous pieces of legislation that put Texas at the forefront of sexual assault policy reform. I want to thank Chairwoman Neave, Chairwoman Thompson, and Vice-chair Hernandez. I see I have Representative Zwiener here. There's many of you who have been sponsoring and supporting legislation and working to address this important issue.

Last session, this body unanimously passed HB 1590 and created the Sexual Assault Survivors' Task Force led by the Office of the Governor, the Children's Advocacy Centers of Texas, and the Texas Association Against Sexual Assault. The task force convened with an ambitious set of goals and objectives that were focused on identifying critical improvements to current systems, policies, and procedures, which has resulted in several things. Over 150 recommendations were made to the Texas Evidence Collection Advisory Board, the attorney general's office, HHSC, and DPS's Crime Lab Service Manual Committee. Working with the State Auditor's Office, a report was conducted assessing the prosecution rates for crimes of sexual violence across the state. Working with the Institute on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault, they created a comprehensive statewide sexual assault survivors' resource inventory. The first phase of the task force focused on objectives that get to the core of some of the most difficult challenges and barriers facing our state. And though we've made great strides, there's more work to do as usual.

The task force will be taking a closer look at systemic challenges related to the prevention and prosecution of sexual violence. I want to take this opportunity to thank Aimee Snoddy and Hillary England with the Office of the Governor; Justin Wood with CAC Texas; and Elizabeth Boyce, Kristen Lenau, and Katherine Strandberg with TAASA for their tireless advocacy. They led the steering committee of this task force. I also want to thank the 18 other members of the task force for their hard work. They met over 50 times during this interim and up to now to improve current systems, to review and identify solutions to the most difficult challenges facing survivors, and to provide consensus and survivor-centered policy recommendations to the legislature. I just have a little bit more here, members, but before I continue, there are two amendments that I need. The first one is going to be an amendment from the author.

And I want to explain that the fiscal note here is not part of GR. It comes out of the Crime Victims' Compensation Program, which is funded with court fees. Right now, that has not built up as it normally does because of COVID, but there's full expectation and assurances from the AG's office that these funds will be provided. This is to pay for the forensic exams to make sure that the victims and survivors are not charged those costs. So this is doable. There's nothing here that's problematic for the budget. I just wanted to point that out.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Howard offered the following amendment to CSHB 2706:

Amend CSHB 2706 (house committee printing) as follows:

- (1) Strike page 1, line 7, through page 3, line 17.
- (2) Strike page 9, lines 2-9.
- (3) Strike page 9, line 27, through page 11, line 27.
- (4) On page 17, line 16, strike "annually" and substitute "quarterly [~~annually~~]".
- (5) On page 17, line 25, following the underlined period, insert "The term does not include a program operated by a health care facility, as defined by Section 323.001.".
- (6) Strike page 21, lines 15-25.
- (7) Renumber the SECTIONS of the bill accordingly.

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

Amendment No. 2

Representative A. Johnson offered the following amendment to CSHB 2706:

Amend CSHB 2706 (house committee report) as follows:

- (1) On page 13, line 8, strike "and (a-1)" and substitute ", (a-1), and (b)".
- (2) On page 13, between lines 26 and 27, insert the following:
 - (b) A health care facility providing care to a sexual assault survivor shall provide the survivor with:
 - (1) subject to Subsection (b-1), a forensic medical examination in accordance with Subchapter B, Chapter 420, Government Code, if the examination has been requested by a law enforcement agency under Subchapter F, Chapter 56A, Code of Criminal Procedure, or is conducted under Subchapter G, Chapter 56A, Code of Criminal Procedure;
 - (2) a private area, if available, to wait or speak with the appropriate medical, legal, or sexual assault crisis center staff or volunteer until a physician, nurse, or physician assistant is able to treat the survivor;
 - (3) access to a sexual assault program advocate, if available, as provided by Subchapter H, Chapter 56A, Code of Criminal Procedure;
 - (4) the information form required by Section 323.005;

- (5) a private treatment room, if available;
- (6) if indicated by the history of contact, access to appropriate prophylaxis for exposure to sexually transmitted infections; ~~[and]~~
- (7) the name and telephone number of the nearest sexual assault crisis center; and
- (8) if the health care facility has shower facilities, access to a shower at no cost to the survivor after the examination described by Subdivision (1).

(3) On page 15, strike lines 9-11 and substitute the following:
crisis centers statewide; ~~[and]~~

- (7) information regarding postexposure prophylaxis for HIV infection;
- (8) information regarding the period for which biological evidence collected from the forensic medical examination will be retained and preserved under Article 38.43, Code of Criminal Procedure; and
- (9) a statement that the survivor has the right to access a shower for free after the forensic medical examination, if shower facilities are available at the health care facility.

(4) Add the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumber subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Chapter 38, Code of Criminal Procedure, is amended by adding Article 38.435 to read as follows:

Art. 38.435. PROHIBITED USE OF EVIDENCE FROM FORENSIC MEDICAL EXAMINATION PERFORMED ON VICTIM OF SEXUAL ASSAULT. Evidence collected during a forensic medical examination conducted under Subchapter F or G, Chapter 56A, may not be used to investigate or prosecute a misdemeanor offense, or an offense under Subchapter D, Chapter 481, Health and Safety Code, alleged to have been committed by the victim from whom the evidence was collected.

SECTION _____. Article 38.435, Code of Criminal Procedure, and Section 323.004(b)(8), Health and Safety Code, as added by this Act, apply to a forensic medical examination that occurs on or after the effective date of this Act. A forensic medical examination that occurs before that date is governed by the law in effect on the date the examination occurred, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

HOWARD: Those of you, members, who were up here with me, I really appreciate your support on this. I am very proud of the work that we have done as an entire body on this. I hope you are as well. This has been a major effort on the part of many people in this house, and we are seeing results because of that. And with the passage of this bill and with Representative Neave's bills, we will have implemented, through our legislation, all 11 policy recommendations coming out of the Sexual Assault Survivors' Task Force and the governor's office.

CSHB 769 ON SECOND READING
(by Middleton, Hunter, Lozano, Dominguez, et al.)

CSHB 769, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the administration of the Texas Windstorm Insurance Association.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Hunter offered the following amendment to CSHB 769:

Amend CSHB 769 (house committee report) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTIONS to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Section 2210.351, Insurance Code, is amended by amending Subsection (d) and adding Subsection (f) to read as follows:

(d) The association may use a rate filed by the association without prior commissioner approval if:

(1) the filing is made not later than the 30th day before the date of any use or delivery for use of the rate;

(2) the filed rate does not exceed ~~[405 percent of]~~ the rate in effect on the date on which the filing is made; and

(3) ~~[the filed rate does not reflect a rate change for an individual rating class that is 10 percent higher than the rate in effect for that rating class on the date on which the filing is made; and~~

~~[(4)]~~ the commissioner has not disapproved the filing in writing, advising of the reasons for the disapproval and the criteria the association is required to meet to obtain approval.

(f) The association may not file a rate under this section that exceeds the rate in effect on the date on which the filing is made unless two-thirds of the board of directors votes to approve the rate.

SECTION _____. Section 2210.352, Insurance Code, is amended by amending Subsection (a-1) and adding Subsection (a-3) to read as follows:

(a-1) The association may use a rate filed by the association under this section without prior commissioner approval if:

(1) the filing is made not later than the 30th day before the date of any use or delivery for use of the rate; and

(2) the filed rate does not exceed ~~[105 percent of]~~ the rate used by the association in effect on the date on which the filing is made~~]; and~~

(a-3) The association may not file a rate under this section that exceeds the rate in effect on the date on which the filing is made unless two-thirds of the board of directors votes to approve the rate.

SECTION _____. Sections 2210.351 and 2210.352, Insurance Code, as amended by this Act, apply only to a rate filed by the Texas Windstorm Insurance Association with the Texas Department of Insurance on or after the effective date of this Act. A rate filed with the Texas Department of Insurance before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law as it existed immediately before that date, and that law is continued in effect for that purpose.

CSHB 3315 ON SECOND READING
(by Crockett and Morales Shaw)

CSHB 3315, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the creation of a pretrial intervention program for certain youth offenders; authorizing a fee.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Crockett offered the following amendment to CSHB 3315:

Amend CSHB 3315 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) On page 3, lines 10-11, between "shall" and "establish", insert ", subject to Subsection (d),".

(2) On page 3, immediately following line 27, insert the following:

(d) The commissioners court of a county is not required to establish a specialty court in accordance with this chapter. A program that is operated by a community supervision and corrections department and that substantially complies with this chapter is considered to be a youth pretrial intervention program for purposes of this chapter.

(e) Notwithstanding Subsection (c), the attorney representing the state may request, in writing, that the court in which the criminal case is pending refuse to allow an eligible defendant to proceed through the youth pretrial intervention program. If the court determines that the attorney representing the state has shown that adequate good cause exists, the court shall require the defendant to proceed through the criminal justice system.

(3) Add the following appropriately numbered SECTION to ARTICLE 1 of the bill and renumber subsequent SECTIONS of that article accordingly:

SECTION _____. Section 509.011, Government Code, is amended by adding Subsection (a-1) to read as follows:

(a-1) The supervision by a department of a participant in a youth pretrial intervention program under Chapter 127 or other law constitutes supervision by the department pursuant to lawful authority for purposes of Subsection (a).

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

POSTPONED BUSINESS

The following bills were laid before the house as postponed business:

CSHB 19 ON SECOND READING

(by Leach, Ashby, Meyer, et al.)

CSHB 19, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to civil liability of a commercial motor vehicle owner or operator.

CSHB 19 was read second time earlier today, postponed until 1:30 p.m. today, postponed until 3:15 p.m. today, postponed until 4:30 p.m. today, and was again postponed until this time.

CSHB 19 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE LEACH: Members, I appreciate your patience today as we've been working through the final details on CSHB 19. Members, it's my pleasure to lay this bill out to you today. I'm going to try to be brief and to the point, but I do want to explain why we filed this bill, what the bill does, and then we've got just a couple of amendments. At the outset I do want to thank the many stakeholders, experts, attorneys, citizens, and legislators—many of you—and namely the members of the House Committee on Judiciary and Civil Jurisprudence who have worked so diligently to improve and strengthen and perfect this important bill.

Members, this bill before us today, CSHB 19, is the result of countless hours of communication, listening, deliberating, and wrestling together with an important issue relating to our civil justice system. I'm very confident, members, that this bill that is in front of you today represents strong, sensible, and commonsense public policy that we should all be confident and comfortable in supporting. Members, you're going to hear some legal jargon today, although I'm going to try to keep it to a minimum, but I just want to be very simple about what this bill does. This bill is designed to address not just a possible or a potential threat. This bill is meant to address a very real and present threat to our state's economy. This is a problem that exists right here, right now, and the legislature has an opportunity with CSHB 19 to address it and to address it in a real and meaningful way.

Members, at its core, this bill is about justice and fairness in our courts. I want to be very clear, members, about something that maybe some of you have been misinformed on. But as the author of the bill and as your colleague, I want to make something very, very clear to this body. I can unequivocally state and commit to you that this bill that's in front of you today provides full protections for any injured Texan—for every injured Texan, actually—who is in an accident with a commercial motor vehicle on a Texas roadway. This allows every and any injured Texan to be made whole and to seek justice from drivers of commercial vehicles and from the employers who send them out onto our roadways. So despite what you might have heard, the bill ensures that full protection for those injured Texans and their families.

The bill also ensures that negligent drivers and the companies that employ them will be held liable for accidents that they cause. At the same time, this bill installs a legal and procedural framework that will protect Texas businesses of all sizes from abuses in our justice system, from abusive lawsuits that are threatening the very existence of many of our small businesses. The facts are very clear, members. As a result of an abusive lawsuit environment in Texas and many nuclear verdicts that we are seeing across the state, commercial vehicle insurance is skyrocketing and it is becoming unaffordable and unattainable for many Texas companies and employers. Owners and operators of commercial vehicles in Texas are simply dealing with an unsustainable lawsuit environment, and we've got to fix it.

In closing, I want to make sure you also know that this is not just about big trucking companies. That's what you see on billboards. That's what you see on TV ads. Those are the images you've seen that have been placed on your desk and brought to your offices. But get this, that 90 percent—90 percent—of commercial vehicle owners in Texas have less than 10 trucks. Most are mom and pop businesses. Most are small businesses. It's your local plumber, your local landscaping company, your nursery that has a delivery service, maybe your favorite restaurant that delivers. Any commercial vehicle—not just the big 18-wheelers—but any vehicle in this state that is a commercial vehicle is affected by this bill.

And so, members, that's why over 500 businesses across the state are supporting CSHB 19. And businesses of all sizes, major trade associations, folks you and I know and regularly work with, they see this problem and they believe that CSHB 19 is the answer to the problem. And so again, I want to thank you, members, for your work, your diligence, and your input in working to perfect this bill. I know right now I'm the only thing standing between you and dinner. So hopefully I've outlined what the problem is to you. I'm happy to get into the details of the bill, and I'm happy to take questions. I would appreciate your favorable consideration on the bill.

REPRESENTATIVE J. TURNER: I'd like to follow up on that invitation you just made just to talk a little bit about some of the areas of the bill, maybe a few that have received a little bit less attention than others. But one thing I understand about this bill is that it says that an employer defendant is entitled to make certain stipulations, and if they do make those stipulations—and this is in Section 72.054—if they make those stipulations, their liability for certain kinds of negligence claims will be limited to respondeat superior liability, correct?

LEACH: That is correct.

J. TURNER: And so if I understand correctly, they gain a benefit in essence by limiting their liability if they make those stipulations. Is that correct?

LEACH: I would not put it that way, no.

J. TURNER: I'm sorry?

LEACH: I would not put it that way, that the company's limit liability is limited under this bill. What this bill does is it provides a judicial framework, judicial management, of the case, if the defendant elects, whereby there will be two phases to the trial, a bifurcated trial. The first phase will actually be about the accident under a negligence standard. And then the second phase, if necessary, could be about more than that. So that's what this bill in essence does, but I don't think in any way it limits the ability of Texans to hold companies liable and responsible under Texas law.

J. TURNER: Well, what I'm getting at, if we look—if you have the bill, I'm on page 5 of the bill. At the bottom of page 5, where it starts with Section 72.054(a), it says: "In a civil action under this subchapter, an employer defendant's liability for damages caused by"—and then to skip down a little bit—

LEACH: Well, Representative, don't skip down too fast because the next few words are the key operative words in that section.

J. TURNER: Okay, well, that's fine, Representative. Let's go through them—"an employer defendant's liability for damages caused by the ordinary negligence of a person operating the defendant's commercial motor vehicle shall be based only on respondeat superior if the defendant stipulates," and then it goes on to talk about what the stipulations are. Correct?

LEACH: That's only half correct. In the first phase, the defendant's liability under an ordinary negligence standard, Representative, is limited to respondeat superior. Now, we are going to have an amendment that is going to subsequently follow, and I think that will clear up some of what you're talking about. But there is no question that the accident will be in the first phase and then any direct claims against that defendant employer—say, for hiring, training, supervision—would be under a gross negligence standard in the second phase of the trial.

J. TURNER: Okay, so the stipulations that we are talking about are listed on the next page, correct? They would stipulate that the person operating the vehicle was the defendant's employee and was acting within the scope of employment, correct?

LEACH: That is traditional respondeat superior law, yes.

J. TURNER: Now, there can be cases, obviously, in which an employee who is driving a company vehicle might be doing so outside the scope and course of employment. Do you agree?

LEACH: That's correct, yes.

J. TURNER: Such as if they took a detour from their assigned route and they went to go visit their favorite restaurant or something like that—something that was not authorized—not in the course and scope, correct?

LEACH: That can happen and would be a fact issue, but it can happen.

J. TURNER: The question I have is, is there anything in the bill that would prohibit a company from stipulating that the driver was acting within the course and scope of employment when in reality the driver was not?

LEACH: Representative, if you could restate your question before I answer, I just want to make sure that I'm understanding exactly what you're asking.

J. TURNER: Yes, so I'm trying to figure out, is there anything in the bill that would prohibit or prevent an employer defendant from making the stipulation that the driver was acting within the course and scope of employment when in reality the facts might show that the driver was not acting within the course and scope of employment?

LEACH: Well, the stipulation here to respondeat superior in the course and scope of employment and that the defendant, the driver, was actually the employer's employee, as opposed to someone who might have stolen the commercial vehicle and was not the defendant's employee, that's only relating to the election of the bifurcation here. So if you stipulate respondeat superior liability here, the employer would then—that is a precedent, if you will, a prerequisite to opting in to the bifurcation, which is what this bill provides for.

J. TURNER: And I guess what I'm driving at there is, let's say an employer defendant finds it desirable to opt in to the bifurcation and have the limitation on ordinary negligence liability that is provided here when, in reality, the facts might show that the driver was acting outside the course and scope of employment but that nonetheless the employer wants the benefit of this protection and therefore makes that stipulation. Is there anything in the bill that would prevent an employer defendant from doing that?

LEACH: The bill doesn't speak to traditional respondeat superior law. That is simply a—this bill is providing a judicial framework, judicial management, of the case. I don't believe that this bill speaks to your specific question.

J. TURNER: So as far as we can tell, there is nothing that would stop such a stipulation from happening. And I know as you're an attorney as well, as am I, sometimes parties will stipulate to facts even if—or stipulate to an issue one way or another and the court doesn't typically do an independent inquiry into that stipulation. That is usually how it works, correct?

LEACH: This bill is limited to the situation—is meant to address, Representative Turner—the situation in which a defendant employer is stipulating that the employee was the defendant's employee and is acting within the course and scope of his employment and therefore elects the bifurcation. That's what this bill is dealing with.

J. TURNER: Let me, if I can, shift to the previous section of the bill, 72.053. This is the one that involves possible failure to comply with "regulations and standards." Do you follow which section I'm in now?

LEACH: Yes.

J. TURNER: Now, if I understand correctly, under the bill, the jury would only hear evidence of a failure to comply with regulations or standards in phase one of the trial if certain conditions are satisfied, correct?

LEACH: Correct.

J. TURNER: And the regulation or standard is a defined term in Subsection (a) of 72.053, correct?

LEACH: That is correct.

J. TURNER: And just so the body can follow along here, it says in this section, "'regulation or standard' includes a statute, regulation, rule, or order regulating equipment or conduct adopted or promulgated by the federal government, a state government, a local government, or a governmental agency or authority." Correct?

LEACH: Yes.

J. TURNER: But it does not attempt to list out those specific statutes and regulations or rules here in the bill, is that right?

LEACH: No. The text says what the text says, Representative Turner.

J. TURNER: Right, and so the question I would have is, how would you say the parties are going to be able to determine which regulations or standards we are talking about here?

LEACH: Well, if a driver runs a red light, I think we're fairly certain what regulation or standard was violated. If a driver speeds and causes an accident, I think we're fairly certain what regulation or standard or rule or law was violated. The purpose here is for that regulation or standard, if it's approximate cause of the accident, could be brought up in the first phase of the trial. I don't think there is any question about in that case what's going to—

J. TURNER: Are you comfortable that parties would be able to determine which regulations and standards existing in federal law, local government law, state law would apply here?

LEACH: When it comes to the actual accident and the purpose of this bifurcation, let me be very clear, Representative—and I appreciate your questions; I think they're good questions and reasonable. But this is about the first phase is the accident—what caused the accident, who caused the accident, what damages did the accident cause, what compensatory damages should be awarded. And then the second phase is then about was there on the employer defendant's part, the company's part, were they grossly negligent in hiring, in training, in supervising. And so what we want to do by way of this bill is make sure that the jury's attention is brought to the actual accident itself. And so if there is a regulation or standard that is actually proximate cause of the accident itself, that's going to be brought up in the first phase of the trial. And I'm fairly certain that our attorneys on both sides of the bar and our judges across the state are going to be able to ascertain, like they do normally in current trials, what regulations or standards where actually violated.

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: This is an issue that I've been approached on by a lot of folks from my district in Laredo. We have a lot of trucks in Laredo, a lot of trucking industry, because of our trade with Mexico in particular, and so I have a great interest in it. I want to ask you if you can sort of—I know you talked a little bit in your opening about how you've been continuing to work on this bill during the day. Is that correct? And I think there are some amendments coming?

LEACH: That's correct, yes.

RAYMOND: So the big thing that I get from Laredo is this—I'm talking about from the actual businesses, people that own trucking companies, not so much from bankers and others who aren't as familiar with the business—but the big focus is cost of insurance, right, insurance rates going up. And their thought is we need to do something to bring insurance rates down. You've heard that, right?

LEACH: There is widespread concern about skyrocketing insurance rates, yes.

RAYMOND: So what I've told them is I very much want to help them. I'm not on this committee. I was on this committee for 10 years. I wish I was in it now. If I could be on three committees, I'd be on this one if the speaker let me. But I want to ask you, when you were continuing to work on this bill, will there be provisions put into this bill that are going to assure that insurance rates are going to go down?

LEACH: So it's a great question, and there's no question that a main motivation in this bill—not the only motivation, but a main motivation—is the very real and serious concerns about the affordability of commercial vehicle insurance. And it's not just the trucking companies in Laredo. It's businesses of all sizes who, Representative, have no accident history whatsoever. In some cases, folks are—over the past four to six years—are paying 100 percent more without any accident history, and a large part of that is due to the abusive lawsuit environment. So can I guarantee and ensure by way of this bill? Can we manipulate insurance cost in this body? I don't believe we can control or do that. That's not what this bill is meant to do. Do I believe this is going to have a major, meaningful effect? Yes, I do. And in fact, Representative Smithee has an amendment that's coming up that will actually—I'm going to let him talk about it—that will require TDI to do a study on the impact of C SHB 19 on commercial vehicle—

RAYMOND: It's my understanding that Chairman Smithee bill's is going to be simply a study, and we'll talk about that, because he referred to a past effort or studies that we've asked of TDI that weren't very effective. So I'm asking you because I do believe, by the way, I believe that if we wanted to, we could assure that insurance rates go down. And I'm asking you because it's very important. Maybe not to other members—I don't know; I can't speak for others—but for me, it is super, super important because that is the issue for us in Laredo. That is the issue for my district. If we're going to do something, we need to guarantee, and with all due respect, Chairman, we can guarantee insurance rates going down if we put it into this bill. That is a fact. We can guarantee it. We can pass a law. And if we're going to pass a law like this and do some of the things that you want to do, we need to guarantee insurance, in my view and the view of a lot of the people from Laredo that are interested in this. Because otherwise, you know—I mean, it's a big issue.

LEACH: We actually don't directly regulate insurance rates in Texas, Representative.

RAYMOND: We can.

LEACH: Well, I respectfully disagree—

RAYMOND: No, no, we can. We can.

LEACH: But let me restate what I said or maybe put it a stronger way. I believe strongly and sincerely that—and there's a lot of other folks who believe the same thing—that with passage of this bill, we will see commercial vehicle insurance rates fall in this state, possibly substantially.

RAYMOND: If we will, then let's guarantee that, Mr. Leach.

LEACH: I believe that the bill written as-is—and there's people a lot smarter than me who have been doing this a lot longer than me who agree—that with the framework that we're putting in place with the bill as-is, it will have a major and meaningful impact on the commercial vehicle insurance rate market across Texas.

RAYMOND: Well, let me ask you this. Let's just assume, for the purposes of the discussion, that they're off on that. Because we have had other experiences like MedMal and all and insurance rates didn't go down. We've passed significant reforms. And you've heard the saying "Fool me once, shame on you. Fool me twice, shame on me." You've heard that, right?

LEACH: I have. But I've also talked to doctors in this very chamber, Representative, who reap the benefits of the passage of those laws and their MedMal insurance. So those bills did have a very real impact on the affordability of insurance.

RAYMOND: So let me ask you—if, in fact, let's say this bill passes, Chairman, in the form that you wanted it to pass and we see with time that the insurance rates not only didn't go down but actually went up—would you feel bad about that?

LEACH: No.

RAYMOND: You wouldn't feel bad if they went up?

LEACH: My hope is that they will fall, but I'll never apologize or feel bad about providing more justice and fairness and a level playing field in our courts all across this state whether it's on commercial vehicle lawsuits or otherwise. And that's what this bill is meant to do.

RAYMOND: Well, with all due respect, Chairman, I think that we ought to consider maybe a sunset on this bill so we can—either it's proved up or it isn't. So if you feel confident and others feel confident that insurance rates are going to drop, let's put a sunset on it. Because when that sunset is up, if it's going well, you—if you're still here—will pass another bill or someone else will. We'll all be for it at that point. But if it goes the other way, then you feel like the other side is dealing in bad faith.

LEACH: No, I don't think that at all. That's not what I'm—I don't think I've said that. That's certainly not what I'm implying. I think that this bill—I have full confidence. Representative, this is the first you and I have spoken about this bill, but we've been working on this bill for many months. There's been attorneys and experts who've opined on this bill, and they believe that it's carefully crafted to have a positive impact on the commercial vehicle insurance rate. That's why so many businesses—Representative, over 550 businesses are supporting this bill.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Leach offered the following amendment to CSHB 19:

Amend CSHB 19 (house committee printing) as follows:

- (1) On page 2, line 17, strike "an" and substitute "the".
- (2) On page 2, line 20, strike "an" and substitute "the".
- (3) On page 2, strike lines 23-27 and substitute the following:

action. The term includes a plaintiff, counterclaimant, cross-claimant, third-party plaintiff, and an intervenor. The term does not include a passenger in a commercial motor vehicle unless the person is an employee of the owner, lessor, lessee, or operator of the vehicle.

- (4) On page 3, line 5, between "vehicle" and "used", insert "being".

- (5) On page 3, line 5, strike "primarily".

(6) On page 3, lines 10-11, strike "an "employee" as defined by 49 C.F.R. Section 390.5" and substitute "a person considered to be an employee under state or federal law".

- (7) On page 4, line 5, strike "any" and substitute "a".

(8) On page 4, line 7, strike "not later than" and substitute the following:
on or before the later of:

(1)

(9) On page 4, line 9, between "answer" and the underlined period, insert the following:

; or

(2) the 30th day after the date a claimant files a pleading adding a claim or cause of action against the defendant bringing the motion

(10) On page 4, line 21, between "defendant" and "that", insert ", such as negligent entrustment,".

(11) On page 5, line 17, between "damages" and "relating", insert "under Chapter 41".

(12) On page 5, lines 18-19, strike "as provided by Chapter 41".

(13) On page 6, line 6, between "defendant" and "that", insert ", such as negligent entrustment,".

(14) On page 6, strike lines 13-15.

(15) On page 6, line 16, strike "(2)" and substitute "(1)".

(16) On page 6, line 17, strike "another claim that" and substitute "a claim, such as negligent maintenance, that".

(17) On page 6, line 22, strike "(3)" and substitute "(2)".

(18) On page 6, line 22, strike "arising from" and substitute "under Chapter 41 for".

(19) On page 6, lines 24-25, strike "as provided by Chapter 41".

(20) On page 7, line 3, between "accident" and the underlined period, insert "that is the subject of the action".

(21) On page 7, line 6, between "accident" and "is", insert "that is the subject of a civil action under this subchapter".

(22) On page 7, strike line 9 and substitute an underlined period.

LEACH: This Floor Amendment No. 1 is a perfecting amendment after the committee substitute was voted out of our Judiciary and Civil Jurisprudence Committee. Many members in this chamber and various stakeholders pointed out a few technical problems with the bill. This amendment addresses those technical issues. I don't want to go through it in great detail. It should be on your screens in front of you. But for example, we changed the word "an" to "the" in a couple of places. We made clear that the law is not talking about any accident but the accident that is the subject of the lawsuit. There are other several minor wording changes. In addition, I will mention this. The committee substitute exempted passengers and buses from the bill. This amendment exempts all passengers in a commercial vehicle except employees of the company that owns or operates the vehicle. We believe there was another amendment that allowed a defendant to file a motion to bifurcate the trial within 120 days after filing the answer. That created the ability for gamesmanship, and we removed that as well.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Lucio offered the following amendment to Amendment No. 1:

Amend Amendment No. 1 by Leach to CSHB 19 by adding the following appropriately numbered items to the amendment and renumbering subsequent items of the amendment accordingly:

() On page 5, line 22, strike "In" and substitute "Except as provided by Subsection (d), in".

() On page 6, line 3, strike "If" and substitute "Except as provided by Subsection (c), if".

() On page 6, at the end of line 10, immediately after the underlined period, insert the following:

This subsection does not prevent a claimant from presenting evidence allowed by Section 72.053.

() On page 6, between lines 10 and 11, insert the following:

(c) In regard to an employer defendant who is regulated by the Motor Carrier Safety Improvement Act of 1999 (Pub. Law 106-159) or Chapter 644, Transportation Code, and the defendant's employee, a party may present any of the following evidence in the first phase of a trial that is bifurcated under Section 72.052 if the evidence is applicable to the defendant:

(1) whether the employee who was operating the employer defendant's commercial motor vehicle at the time of the accident that is the subject of the civil action:

(A) was licensed to drive the vehicle;

(B) was disqualified from driving the vehicle under 49 C.F.R. Section 391.15 or the corresponding law of this state;

(C) should not have been allowed by the employer defendant to operate the vehicle under 49 C.F.R. Section 382.701(d) or the corresponding law of this state;

(D) was medically certified as physically qualified to operate the vehicle under 49 C.F.R. Section 391.41 or the corresponding law of this state; or

(E) was operating the vehicle when prohibited from doing so under 49 C.F.R. Section 382.201, 382.205, 382.207, or 382.215 or the corresponding law of this state;

(2) whether the employer defendant had complied with 49 C.F.R. Section 382.301 or a corresponding law of this state in regard to controlled-substance testing of the employee who was operating the employer's commercial motor vehicle at the time of the accident that is the subject of the civil action if the employee was impaired because of the use of a controlled substance at the time of the accident;

(3) whether the employer defendant failed to comply with 49 C.F.R. Section 382.201, 382.205, 382.207, 382.215, 382.701(d), 390.13, 391.15, 391.21, 391.23(a), 391.25, 391.31, 391.33, 391.41, or 383.51 or the corresponding law of this state; and

(4) whether the employer defendant failed to comply with 49 C.F.R. Section 395.3 or 395.5 or a corresponding law of this state if the employer defendant had knowledge of the failure to comply at the time of the accident that is the subject of the civil action.

(d) If a civil action is bifurcated under Section 72.052, evidence admissible under Subsection (c) is:

(1) admissible in the first phase of the trial only to prove ordinary negligent entrustment by the employer defendant to the employee who was driving the employer defendant's commercial motor vehicle at the time of the accident that is the subject of the civil action; and

(2) the only evidence that may be presented by the claimant in the first phase of the trial on the negligent entrustment claim.

(e) Nothing in this section may be construed to create a new rule or regulation or subject a person to a rule or regulation not applicable to the person without regard to this section.

() On page 6, line 11, strike "(c)" and substitute "(f)".

() On page 7, strike lines 16-20 and substitute the following:

SECTION 7. This Act takes effect September 1, 2021.

REPRESENTATIVE LUCIO: So in this bifurcated trial structure, one of the things I was concerned with is that in phase one of that bifurcated trial in the circumstances where the employer defendant did not act responsibly, that the jury would get to consider, evidence would be presented, that they did not meet basic, commonsense public safety standards. That was what I brought to the stakeholders and brought to the chairman for consideration. And to his credit, he listened, but we wanted to root that prudent operator standard in something that could be consistently applied in every jurisdiction, in every case. So what we decided to do was root that in federal and state law. So in phase one of the trial, as the bill is written, all that is considered is the defendant driver's negligence. My amendment would allow for consideration of the employer defendant's negligence, and we enumerated, over five and a half hours of review, specific sections in the Transportation Code that made sense that we thought were good public policy and public safety standards in order for that consideration to take place. So now, with my amendment, negligence or responsibility can be allocated in phase one of the trial to the employer defendant, and I think that that is very responsible. A couple of things—we also added a September 1 effective date, and we added and made sure that my amendment applied both to intrastate and interstate commerce or operators. So if you take truckloads from Brownsville, Texas to Dallas, this amendment will make you subject to this bill even if you don't cross state lines. I want to thank Chairman Leach for listening and sitting down and going over every one of these in the Transportation Code to make sure that we pick those that are truly representative of prudent operators. And I believe it is acceptable to the author.

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Amendment No. 1, as amended, was adopted.

Amendment No. 3

Representative Smithee offered the following amendment to CSHB 19:

Amend CSHB 19 (house committee printing) by adding the following appropriately numbered SECTION to the bill and renumbering subsequent SECTIONS of the bill accordingly:

SECTION _____. Subchapter A, Chapter 38, Insurance Code, is amended by adding Section 38.005 to read as follows:

Sec. 38.005. COMMERCIAL AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE REPORT. (a) The department shall conduct a study each biennium on the effect, for each year of the biennium, on premiums, deductibles, coverage, and availability of coverage for commercial automobile insurance of HB 19, Acts of the 87th Legislature, Regular Session, 2021.

(b) Not later than December 1 of each even-numbered year, the department shall submit a written report of the results of the study conducted under Subsection (a) for the preceding biennium to the legislature.

(c) This section expires December 31, 2026.

REPRESENTATIVE SMITHEE: We've been told throughout this process that the purpose of this bill is to make commercial truck and auto insurance more affordable and accessible. So what this amendment does is it directs TDI to conduct a study and present the legislature with a report biennially every December prior to session for the next three sessions after this, and that will tell us whether the legislation is having the desired effect or not. It will give us a picture of the impact that the legislation is having on the insurance market here in Texas. The amendment is acceptable to the author.

Amendment No. 3 was adopted.
