The invocation was offered by the Reverend Jakob N. Hurlimann, chaplain, as follows:

Loving Father, near to all who call upon you, incline yourself, we pray, to hear the voices of these your servants. You know us better than we know ourselves, you know what it is that we need better than we do. Help us to see your divine action behind all that we encounter, all those we meet, all that we experience, and realize just how close you are to us, for you love us, and desire that we spend eternity with you. Stay with us, Lord. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The chair recognized Representative Holland who led the house in the pledges of allegiance to the United States and Texas flags.

(Martinez Fischer now present)
