HR 1463 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE DEAYALA: Andy passed away on April 21 at the age of 55. He lived an unbelievably vibrant life. He was a big man who lived large in small moments. He was an avid outdoorsman, the life of the party, the star of the show, and the ultimate girl-dad. He was devoted to his community and to his faith. Most of all, Andy enjoyed the love and support of his wife, Laura—the love of his life—and he adored their daughters, Mackie and Ellie, his greatest accomplishments.

Growing up, Andy was passionate about sports and the outdoors. In high school, he took our team to the state championship and earned all sorts of honors and awards. He earned a four-year college scholarship to Rice University where he was a four-year starter and earned all sorts of awards there, including Rice Basketball MVP. He was an accomplished man. He went on to law school at SMU, earned his degree, and became a trial lawyer for a few years. Being board certified and accomplished, he went on to go work at ExxonMobil as an in-house attorney for the next 22 years. His most recent position was general counsel for ExxonMobil risk management.

Andy's family and friends gathered here just two days ago in a packed St. John's Episcopal Church in Houston to pay tribute to and celebrate Andy's life. Beautiful eulogies were delivered by family and friends, including his college teammate and dear friend, Glenn Youngkin, who referred repeatedly to Andy as, "my friend, Andy." Today, the House of Representatives of the 88th Legislature pays tribute to the memory of—to borrow Governor Youngkin's words—my friend Andy Gilchrist, and extend sincere condolences to all who mourn his passing.

HB 3137 ON THIRD READING

(by Isaac, Bumgarner, J. Lopez, Cain, et al.)

HB 3137, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to prohibited local regulation with respect to a firearm or air gun.

HB 3137 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE ISAAC: This bill will prohibit requiring owners of a firearm to obtain liability insurance. I believe there is an unacceptable amendment.

Amendment No. 1

Representative J.D. Johnson offered the following amendment to HB 3137:

Amend HB 3137 on third reading by striking the enacting clause (page 1, line 4).

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE J.D. JOHNSON: This amendment just simply strikes the enacting clause. End of the day, by striking the enacting clause—I, like many of you, are gun owners. I believe in the Second Amendment. I understand the responsibility that comes along with possessing a firearm. This body used to fight for local rights, fight for local municipalities to govern themselves based on the needs of their communities. And we must not preempt municipalities from the governance based on what is needed, or what has happened over 1600 miles away from Texas. I myself, like many of you, used to be the mayor, or on city council. And at no point would we want any state legislator to come into our city and tell us what we should do for our own constituents. This has nothing to do with protecting Second Amendment rights, it has everything to do with protecting citizens in their respective communities. No one in this state would want the federal government to tread on you. We don't want the federal government to tell us what to do, but there are laws that are involved and this is a country of law and order.

REPRESENTATIVE HINOJOSA: Representative Johnson, let me understand the motivation behind your amendment. What you're saying is that this legislation is unnecessary because we don't have instances in our great state where this is a problem?

J.D. JOHNSON: Right. No city in this state has tried to enact this law and like I asked the author yesterday if we were actually legislating nothing—it pretty much is what we are doing. We are legislating nothing that is there. And when we do things like this I think we are overstretching or overusing our powers. It was also said that this was to protect, I think the words were, against a tyrannical government. We ourselves are becoming a tyrannical government. We ourselves, as a body in this state, have decided that we want to go into cities that did not ask us to help, that did not ask us to support. We are telling them what they can and cannot do and that in itself is an overreach of power. I want people to understand this, this bill is not bracketed. I know most of you have recognized that bills have been bracketed for Harris County—this bill is not bracketed for Harris county. This bill is bracketed for the entire state. So all of your city council members—and when I talked to many of you, you always say "Oh, I have to check with my mayor" or "I need to check with my sheriff" or "I need to check with my council member." Well right now, today, you're enacting a law—if you vote for this—that simply says your mayor and your city council no longer matters. Their voice and their power no longer matters. This is an all-out attack on local control. Allow mayors and city council members to make a decision that is in the best interest of their communities.

HINOJOSA: And Mr. Johnson, do you have a problem with an epidemic of gun violence in Harris County like we do in counties all over this state and country?

J.D. JOHNSON: Gun violence is the number one killer of children in this state at this time. There's a lot of talk about fentanyl and fentanyl that's coming over, but the number one killer of children is guns. At some point, for those respective communities, allow them to make the decision that is going to be in the best interest of themselves. Because in every city—cities are different, not every city is the same—small, big. We have to look at cities and how they are created and how they're governed. Just like we as a state are different from other states. What is good for one side is not good for the other. So it's not one size fits all. I think it's important, that while we want to protect Second Amendment—believe me I want to protect my Second Amendment right to be able to possess a gun. But this bill does not take anybody's gun from them, this bill does not stop anybody from getting a gun, it just simply tells city councils, county commissioners, that they cannot make a decision that their constituents asked them to make.

REPRESENTATIVE TOTH: Mr. Johnson, you acknowledge that there's gun violence in our cities—yes or no?

J.D. JOHNSON: Are you asking me?

TOTH: Yes.

J.D. JOHNSON: Yes, sure.

TOTH: You've acknowledged as well, that you respect the Second Amendment rights of all Texans. Is that true?

J.D. JOHNSON: Not all Texans, but yes. Nor do you.

TOTH: Okay, well law-abiding citizens.

J.D. JOHNSON: None of us say every Texan deserves a gun.

TOTH: I stand corrected. But you would acknowledge that law-abiding citizens deserve the right to carry?

J.D. JOHNSON: Absolutely.

TOTH: Okay. Well, can you also acknowledge and understand how what you're proposing—what Representative Isaac is trying to prevent—would be discriminatory towards poor Texans? They will not have the right, they will not have the money, they will not have the means to carry this insurance.

J.D. JOHNSON: So carrying insurance is not prohibitive or an impediment to owning a gun. Because if your notion that insurance is an impediment to you owning a gun, it's the same as saying the cost of the gun is an impediment to owning a gun.

TOTH: Do you not understand, though, how a poor person will not be able to protect themselves?

J.D. JOHNSON: So therefore if the cost of insurance is an impediment to owning a gun, then the cost of the gun is also that same impediment.

TOTH: So poor people should not be able to protect themselves. Is that what you're saying?

J.D. JOHNSON: So I would encourage the NRA, instead of spending millions of dollars to get legislators to lobby on behalf of them, why don't they go ahead and just start giving guns away? Why don't the manufacturers just give guns away if that's going to be the case? So let's make sure that we don't use things to our benefit when we think that it is great to say, "Oh, we're trying to protect poor people." No, we're not trying to protect poor people. What we're trying to do is to make sure that we just make guns readily available and no one can be governed on how to use, carry, store, or operate their weaponry that is a killing machine.

TOTH: So what you're basically saying, though, is that if you have a gun in inner city Houston or Dallas or anywhere in a community, that non law-abiding citizens are going to stop and get liability insurance?

J.D. JOHNSON: What?

TOTH: That doesn't make sense to you?

J.D. JOHNSON: No, what you said does not make sense to me.

TOTH: What you're saying is that cities should not be allowed, or disallowed, to implement a policy.

J.D. JOHNSON: First of all, let me say this: I am from Houston—Harris County, Acres Homes, the 44, as it is always affectionately referred to. Not one person from my district, since you want to use my district, has come to me and said, "Hey, Representative, we don't want insurance on guns" or "Hey, Representative, we don't want—." That's not what is being said. No one across this—but if my constituents—

TOTH: No one could ever imagine that we would be imposing the requirement to have insurance for a gun.

J.D. JOHNSON: If my constituents had a problem with that—because guess what I just said? There is no legislation being offered right now to make sure that everyone has to carry insurance. There is no legislation, and so therefore we are legislating nothing.

TOTH: And if Representative Isaac's bill goes into effect, that never will happen, which is why we need to pass this. Thank you.

J.D. JOHNSON: Again, members, I'm asking that you take into consideration—put aside this party line stuff. This is the protection of your community, this is the protection of your city, this is the protection of your mayor, your city council, your sheriff department. Let us stop legislating things that are not there. No one is treading on your rights.

REPRESENTATIVE RAMOS: Representative Jarvis Johnson, I'm reading the bill and as the bill reads, one of the things that the author discussed yesterday about—I don't know, "California-ing her Texas" and the Second Amendment—this bill does not say anything about ownership of a gun, right?

J.D. JOHNSON: It does not.

RAMOS: So it has nothing to do with owning a gun?

J.D. JOHNSON: It does not.

RAMOS: For clarity, were you aware that we have over 1,200 cities in Texas?

J.D. JOHNSON: I do now.

RAMOS: Okay. In these over 1,200 cities, what this bill essentially is saying is that nobody, none of their voices matter in those communities because they will be prohibited from making local decisions—local control decisions—to protect their own communities, correct?

J.D. JOHNSON: That is right. And much like that, if we start legislating things that are not there, if we start saying, "Okay, well we know that there is no bill currently being offered, or an ordinance, or law in these cities currently being offered—what we are going to do is to make sure that we put forth a bill here in this state that makes sure that you never can legislate, even before it happens." This is a dangerous precedent that we are going to start. If we go to West Texas and start saying, "Hey, we are going to start building a dam to cut off the water supply because we don't want these feral hogs or whatever." But there is no problem with feral hogs out there. So why would we start doing things that are not necessary?

This is an extremely dangerous precedent that we will start. Because there is not one city that I have—and I'm on Homeland Security—not one city has come to me and said, "We need to enact a law that protects us from our Second Amendment rights." There's not one citizen, constituent, or organization that has said, "We want to protect ourselves from future, potential, possibly, maybe legislation that California, that's over 1,700 miles away from here, has done. So therefore, we want to do it here." Because when you legislate nothing, then you are doing a disservice to your constituents and to this state. Right now, we are taking away power, control, and authority from local communities. I can't say that enough. I am not going to go into anyone's home. None of us would appreciate somebody coming into our home and legislating what goes on in our own home. The same way no mayor or city council wants us—wants me from Houston, Texas as a state legislator—to regulate something that is down in the Valley that has nothing to do with me. Or something in East Texas, West Texas, or North Texas that has nothing to do with me because no one has come to talk to me about legislation that is not even necessary.

RAMOS: So in this legislation that no community has said they want, in a state with over 30 million people, in a state with over 1,200 cities, this specific legislation—HB 3137—does not infringe on anybody's right to purchase a gun, right? Or any arm, right, to bear any arms? It does not infringe on any of that. However, would you agree that although it doesn't infringe on anyone's Second Amendment right, it does infringe on everyone's rights for local control and to have a local voice, correct? Would you agree?

J.D. JOHNSON: I would 100 percent agree with that.

RAMOS: Thank you. I appreciate your amendment. I think it is a good amendment.

J.D. JOHNSON: Thank you. Members, I ask that you to stay with me on the amendment. This is not necessary at this time—not at this time, not at this place. You do not want to take away control from your local communities. The same way you don't want the federal government coming down and taking away our control as a state. I ask that we strike this bill, move on, and do legislation that is impactful to citizens of Texas now. Let's protect the local control and the communities that we all serve day in and day out.

ISAAC: Members, don't California my Texas. Please vote no.

REPRESENTATIVE CANALES: There's a lot of times that—not just cities, but the state mandates that we have auto insurance. In my experience, even with homeowner's insurance, insurance companies love to charge premiums, but never pay the claims. So what I'd like you to do is work with me next session on abolishing all requirements for insurance in the State of Texas to put out all these thieves that take our money, but don't pay our claims.

ISAAC: That's funny.

Amendment No. 2

Representative J.D. Johnson offered the following amendment to HB 3137:

Amend HB 3137 on third reading as follows:

(1) In SECTION 1 of the bill, in amended Section 229.001(a)(2), Local Government Code, strike "an owner of a firearm" and substitute "a firearm owner who is 21 years of age or older".

(2) In SECTION 2 of the bill, in amended Section 235.023(2), Local Government Code, strike "an owner of a firearm" and substitute "a firearm owner who is 21 years of age or older".

(3) In SECTION 3 of the bill, in amended Section 236.002(a)(2), Local Government Code, strike "an owner of a firearm" and substitute "a firearm owner who is 21 years of age or older".

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE J.D. JOHNSON: Since we're not going to be able to protect local control, let's at least protect our children. This amendment simply says, "for a firearm owner who is under the age of 21."

The reason why I bring this age up is because when you have children, and we all understand sometimes our children are a little more irresponsible—18 and below, 19 and below—insurance for their car is a lot higher because of their irresponsibility because the insurance industry understands that. We saw in Uvalde, where an 18-year-old young man walked into a school and killed 19 children and two teachers. The very least that we can do as a state is to demonstrate that we care about those families because we legislate when there is a problem. When there is a problem in this state, we step up as legislators and as Texans to solve the problem. There are children dying. The number one cause of death for children in this state is by guns, not fentanyl. But yet we have placed so much emphasis and money in trying to stop fentanyl, but we're not stopping the number one killer. We as a state can do better. It is our time and our responsibility to step up and to legislate what the problem is. We need to legislate what the problem is—not what the potential problem could be, but what the problem is. Children are dying and we need to protect them.

And stop with this partisan BS because we're not doing anything. We're hurting every Texan when we don't legislate properly. Because you're blowing me off because I don't have an "R" by my name. It is time to legislate. Children have died in this state and you guys are sitting here joking and playing, thinking this is a joke. This is not a joke. This is real. Children every day are dying. And we said we've got to protect guns, but we haven't done a thing to protect children. At some point, put aside your partisan stuff and legislate properly. And if you want to legislate for your community then legislate for your community. But don't come legislate in my community because I know what my community needs. I would never go to your community and tell you what's best for you. But I'm going to tell you what's best for my constituents because I talk to them every single day. I had to sit there and watch those families cry their eyes out because they lost their children. The only way they could identify their children was by the clothing that they know they put on that morning.

REPRESENTATIVE HINOJOSA: Mr. Johnson, what your amendment would do is limit the applicability of this bill to those over 21 because we know in the State of Texas that it is legal for someone between the ages of 18 and 21 to purchase even an assault-style weapon in this state. And as you referenced, in fact, unspeakable tragedy occurred about a year ago in Uvalde. And so what your amendment would do, am I correct, is to say, "Okay fine, with this bill. But for under 21, those are different circumstances." Is that correct?

J.D. JOHNSON: Absolutely correct.

HINOJOSA: Because at 18 years old, we know that they're still kids. I've got a son who's going to be 18 this summer. Today he had two AP tests—big deal tests today—for his future college and career. I came home after the floor late last night and I needed a snack. It was 11 p.m. and I wanted a piece of fruit. I went to the fruit bowl and what I found was the last orange had been covered in melted wax. That's what my son did who's going to be 18 this summer. Do you know why he did that?

J.D. JOHNSON: I try not to think how 18-year-old kids think anymore.

HINOJOSA: Because he's a kid.

J.D. JOHNSON: That's right.

HINOJOSA: He's a kid with no business possessing an assault-style weapon next year or any time in the near future. He's still a kid. The law may see him as legal for some purposes, but not all purposes. And for this purpose we know; the vast majority of members, the vast majority of Texans know.

J.D. JOHNSON: Statistics and psychologists all across this country have identified that mental illness and mental isolation has become a problem with people under the age of 21. And the problem has been, often times, those children don't know how to speak or talk it out. They know how to react. They anger quick. And that's why the Bible says, "When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought as a child."

REPRESENTATIVE RAMOS: I wholeheartedly agree with you and your passion as you reference the children of Uvalde. Your amendment making the provisions applicable—could you just explain a little more about your amendment?

J.D. JOHNSON: It's just simply says anybody under the age of 21—if in fact a city decides that they may want to legislate at some point—this bill would simply say that they can legislate how they deem fit for under the age of 21, if in fact they need to. It doesn't preclude or stop anyone from owning a gun, it just simply says. But I will give you this statistic since we keep talking about California. California spent over $992 million paying out for gun deaths and for people who got shot. The cities had to pay. If something happens in one of our cities, the taxpayers of that city will have to pay, not the State of Texas. If something happens in some of these small cities, like Needville or Palestine, where someone gets shot that city is going to have to pay. That city will pay, not the State of Texas. But what we have decided to do up here right now with this bill is to say, "No, no, no, we're not going to take responsibility. We're going to put it on the city's, but we're going to take away your ability to legislate yourself, to govern yourself." So that's what this is. If some cities did want to protect itself, because there was a proliferation of more gun violence in their particular city and they wanted to protect the citizens then they could. But unfortunately, what we're trying to do right now is stop cities from protecting their own selves, but there is no city trying to do that right now. But we're going to take away that option.

RAMOS: And we did hear the author saying this is not even applicable to Texas, but should it possibly be in the future, maybe, we want to do this now and silence the 30 million people in Texas. Were you aware that my daughter is a teacher? Have I shared that with you? A few weeks ago my daughter, who is in Dallas—she's actually in Representative Bryant's district—they had a lockdown because they thought there was an active shooter on campus. Have I shared the story with you? My daughter called me crying about 30 minutes, an hour later. My daughter's 31. She called me crying—

REPRESENTATIVE ISAAC: Members, please vote no on this amendment.

HB 3137 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE J.D. JOHNSON: It can get emotional up here sometimes and I'm not going to apologize for my emotion because that's why I was brought to this house: to be emotional and to work as hard as I can, and give as much as I can, to my constituents. And as much as I can help you and your city, I will do my best. But I will never, ever infringe upon your rights as a legislator. I would never silence your voice, because the same way we want to protect our Second Amendment rights is the same way I want to protect my First. And your Second Amendment right to own that gun does not trump my ability to live and to allow others to live. I'm not here to pass legislation based on a bumper sticker slogan. I'm not treading on anybody. I want to protect Texas. I want Texas to be as strong as it can, but I don't think that we should be legislating for cities that did not ask us to legislate. I really hope that you guys think long and hard.

If you pick up your phone right now and ask any mayor—and it's not just about this bill. It's not about just this bill. This is an ugly precedent that we are starting. This is potentially about anything. And if that's the case—if we're going to start being the end-all be-all, and providing all rules and all laws then we may as well start telling all mayors, city councils, and county commissions to go away, because we got you. We're going to take care of your city, we're going to take care of your county, and we're going to take care of your school. You are rendering your city councils and your mayors ineffective and moot. I'm asking you simply—allow them to have a voice to allow them to legislate for their constituents. You cannot legislate from South Texas to Houston. You can't legislate from West Texas to Houston, to Dallas. And you would be upset if someone tried.

I'm asking you not to vote your party, I'm asking you to vote your district. Because that's what I hear over and over again, vote your district. Your district includes your mayor, your city council, your county commissioners—that's your district. You need to make sure you take them under consideration when you're about to pass a bill that tells them they no longer have the authority to make decisions in the best interest of their constituents. I ask that you don't worry about a scorecard; that you don't worry about how this bill is going to impact you, because you're not voting against guns. If—and California has already said that bill is not going to stop anyone from owning a gun—the same way insurance doesn't stop you from owning a car or anything. We have insurance on everything just simply to protect. We are trying to protect not only families but we're trying to protect the economics of these cities that are having to pay astronomical amounts of money. But again, I don't even want to get into the insurance part because there's no city doing it. This is simply about local control and I'm starting to see over and over again the tyranny that you have all feared is actually what you have become. The tyranny that you say that you don't want people doing to you, or us as a state, you are actually doing it to the smaller cities that don't have the power or the authority. I ask that you vote what is right and not what is partisan.

REPRESENTATIVE RAMOS: As I was sharing with you all—what this bill would do for a community like mine, my daughters community. As a teacher, having active shooter—not drills, but really thinking and believing because there was somebody in the community that was armed and putting the children at risk. My daughter calls me a couple of hours after this is finalized. She called me crying. She's a seasoned teacher, she's been teaching for about six years. She calls me crying saying, "Mom, I couldn't fit the 25 kids in the closet, I didn't know what to do. I let one of my baby girls go to the bathroom and I didn't know where she was at or if she would run into the active shooter. I didn't know what to do."

I know some members are laughing because it's funny to them, but it's not funny to my daughter and to those students for whom it was traumatizing. She mentioned to me that the third grade students all armed themselves. They got their scissors, these little ones, eight and nine years old. They got their scissors to protect themselves if the shooter came in. That's what these third graders are thinking. Another group of kids started writing their names on Post-its so their body could be identified.

What this bill does—and I encourage everybody in the audience, "Oh don't California my Texas, don't take away my guns"—please, take out your phones and Google "Texas HB 3137." Read that bill. You must read because what you are being told is not the truth. Read the bill. The bill says nothing about gun ownership. This bill says nothing about taking away your guns. We are responsible gun owners in my home. This bill says nothing about that. This bill simply says—what this bill does is deny you the decision in your community to choose whether you want gun owners to have liability insurance or not so you can protect your children. Because if this bill passes, another massacre—like that in Uvalde—it would deny those families any type of compensation from the perpetrator. This bill would deny any community of the 30 million Texans that we have in over the 1,200 cities, including yours, from making the decisions locally, implementing local control and making decisions for what is right for you and your community. This bill strips that away and says you have no voice. It has nothing to do with your gun ownership, nothing at all. It just says you have no voice to protect your constituents or your community members in giving them protections through liability insurance. That's what this bill is about. I encourage you all, members, to be truthful in talking to your constituents. This has nothing to do with gun ownership, it has everything to do with protections for your community. I encourage everyone to vote against this bill.

(Flores now present)

HB 3137 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative J. Jones raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 3137 under Rule 8, Section 1, of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill caption is inaccurate. The point of order was withdrawn.

HB 3137 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE DUTTON: As I read the bill, and I heard your conversation and discussion about the bill, is it true that the Second Amendment is what underlies the basis for your bill?

REPRESENTATIVE ISAAC: I believe this is an infringement on our Second Amendment rights, and I also believe it creates an illegal gun registry.

DUTTON: I guess I'm really not sure I understand you. But is the basis for the bill the Second Amendment?

ISAAC: To protect our Second Amendment, yes.

DUTTON: And your bill doesn't do any more or any less than what the Second Amendment proscribes?

ISAAC: It infringes upon our right. It makes it harder to have a gun. If you put something in between your ability to buy a firearm, that is infringing upon our right. So if you require someone to buy insurance, you're making it harder for someone to exercise their Second Amendment right.

DUTTON: And that's what I'm trying to understand. Your bill assumes that the Second Amendment is what provides the security for what you're trying to do?

ISAAC: Correct.

DUTTON: Is that right? I'm just trying to understand it. My next question, though, is: If that's true, a law that contravenes the Second Amendment, or any amendment for that matter, is either void or voidable. Would you agree with that?

ISAAC: Well, it's being done right now in the United States of America. This is being done right now in another state. And this bill is to prevent that, a preemption.

DUTTON: And your argument, though, in the bill is that is in contravention to the Second Amendment?

ISAAC: It infringes on our Second Amendment.

DUTTON: Again, so that I understand, the whole basis for the bill is the protection provided by the Second Amendment?

ISAAC: To protect that right for everyone, even people who may not be able to afford insurance.

DUTTON: I'm not sure—you probably answered it, and I probably don't understand it. But what you're doing with the bill is going from the Second Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. You're not expanding the protections and you're not limiting the protections. You're just assuming that the Second Amendment provides the protections that you're talking about?

ISAAC: I'm protecting our Second Amendment right.

DUTTON: Okay. And what leads me to try to understand more is a city can't, or a state couldn't do anything that was in contravention of the Second Amendment, or the First Amendment, or any amendment for that matter.

ISAAC: They don't have the right, but they're doing it.

DUTTON: And has it been challenged on the basis that it's a violation of one of those constitutional rights?

ISAAC: It's happening in California right now.

DUTTON: Okay. And I'm not sure what you mean by "it's happening." What's happening in California?

ISAAC: They're requiring people who have firearms to have insurance on their firearms.

DUTTON: And you think that is in contravention to the Second Amendment?

ISAAC: An infringement. It prevents some people from being able to exercise their Second Amendment right because they can't afford it, and it also creates an illegal gun registry.

DUTTON: And all of those things that you're naming are in contravention to the Second Amendment?

ISAAC: I don't understand your question. Say that again.

DUTTON: Well, I'm trying to understand if—you're describing things that I believe the bill suggests, and you did also, that they're in contravention of a person's Second Amendment right. And if I understand the bill and what you said, your bill is not expanding any of the rights under the Second Amendment. Nor is the bill limiting any rights under the Second Amendment. If I understand it correctly.

ISAAC: Yeah, you said that a minute ago. We're protecting our Second Amendment. I don't understand.

DUTTON: I understand the protection, but I'm trying to figure out whether there's a—I guess that's called conversing with your counsel.

ISAAC: I don't understand your question. I asked her, "Do you understand what he's asking me?" Because I don't understand what you're trying to say.

DUTTON: I'm not sure I understand. Let me see if I can ask it this way: The Second Amendment provides certain rights to gun ownership, is that correct?

ISAAC: The right to carry and bear arms, yes.

DUTTON: So it provides a certain right. And that right that a person has—the bill that you have is not expanding those rights, is that correct?

ISAAC: I'm going to say it for the fourth time, I think, now. It's protecting our Second Amendment right. And I was just told that SB 413—Senator Gutierrez is carrying a bill right now to require insurance on firearms, right here in the Texas Senate.

DUTTON: You keep saying "protecting" it and I'm not sure if that answers my question or not because my question is—

ISAAC: If you can't afford insurance then you can't afford—in San Jose, California, you would not be able to have a firearm.

DUTTON: Okay, I understand that, but I'm trying to be sure that falls within the context of your bill and also the Second Amendment, because my question is whether or not your bill—

ISAAC: It doesn't expand, no.

DUTTON: —expands the rights in the Second Amendment?

ISAAC: No, it protects the rights.

DUTTON: It doesn't limit the rights in the Second Amendment.

ISAAC: It doesn't limit; it doesn't expand. It protects.

DUTTON: So it relies, essentially, on the premise of the Second Amendment in terms of the protections that you're trying to afford all of us.

ISAAC: I'm sorry. I'm distracted. Say that last sentence again.

DUTTON: Your bill is designed to just bring more light to the Second Amendment. Let me see if I can say it that way and maybe you'll understand what I'm saying—that it's not adding any more light to it, it's not darkening it. It's just illuminating it, making the Second Amendment, as we in the law profession say sometimes, make it come alive to everybody. Is that what the bill does?

ISAAC: Well, evidently, Senator Gutierrez wants to demand that if you have a firearm, you have insurance.

DUTTON: Mr. Gutierrez. I thought it was your bill?

ISAAC: Right now this is happening in the senate, so I'm preventing that from happening here in Texas.

DUTTON: I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

ISAAC: Protecting people who cannot afford insurance to be able to exercise their Second Amendment right.

DUTTON: Does Mr. Gutierrez have something to do with this bill?

ISAAC: I've been asked: Why are you doing this? Why are you doing this? Why are you doing this?

DUTTON: Oh, okay.

ISAAC: Well, this is why.

DUTTON: You're trying to answer that.

ISAAC: It's been done in California and I didn't know it was being done right here in Texas. But, evidently, they're trying to do it right here. Someone is trying to do this right here in Texas.

DUTTON: Can a state pass a bill that contravenes any of the constitutional amendments?

ISAAC: No, the state will not infringe upon our constitutional rights.

DUTTON: And the state can't do that, and a city couldn't do that either, right?

ISAAC: A city is a subdivision of the state. No, they cannot.

DUTTON: And so the city would be limited in its response to the Second Amendment, to what's in the Second Amendment, I suppose.

ISAAC: Yes, they cannot infringe either.

DUTTON: Right. And so that would almost appear as if—since your bill is not expanding those rights and it's not limiting those rights—it would raise the question of whether this bill has any effect at all?

ISAAC: This bill is protecting our Second Amendment right.

DUTTON: I think I heard you the third time, thank you.

ISAAC: Oh, thank you.

CSHB 5066 was read second time on May 4 and was postponed until 10 a.m. today.

CSHB 5066 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE KACAL: Although the main campus at Texas A&M is located in Representative Raney's district, I hope we can agree that the A&M system is a key priority for the state in technology, education, and research, correct?

REPRESENTATIVE GEREN: That's correct.

KACAL: Were you aware that through The Texas A&M University System the State of Texas has made a substantial investment in a new research campus known as the RELLIS campus?

GEREN: Yes, sir.

KACAL: The RELLIS campus is in the process of recruiting key public and private defense and technology industries to locate on the new research campus, but we have a problem. The local utility is unable to serve a significant amount of the new load on the new RELLIS campus due to the remote location on the transmission network and unreasonable limitations on transmission capacity. In fact, we just can't build transmission quickly enough to interconnect these new customers in a timely manner.

Is it the intent of your bill that customers, like the RELLIS campus of The Texas A&M University System and its local utility, will receive relief under the provisions of your bill?

GEREN: Absolutely, Mr. Kacal.

KACAL: Thank you, Representative Geren.

CSHB 5066 was passed to engrossment.

SB 1484 ON SECOND READING (Holland - House Sponsor)

SB 1484, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to a border operations training program for peace officers employed by local law enforcement agencies.

SB 1484 was considered in lieu of HB 1675.

SB 1484 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HOLLAND: SB 1484 provides law enforcement the opportunity to receive border operations training and assist DPS with its efforts on the border.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Moody offered the following amendment to SB 1484:

Amend SB 1484 (house committee printing) on page 2, between lines 5 and 6, by inserting the following appropriately numbered subdivision and renumbering subsequent subdivisions and cross-references to those subdivisions accordingly:

() training on international human rights law and federal immigration law, including asylum procedures relevant to operations on the Texas-Mexico border;

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: The bill as it comes to us on the floor has a number of things that have to be included in the training program: Looking at criminal activity, understanding drug trafficking and other trafficking issues that happen in and along the border. Understanding cartels and transnational gangs, and trying to identify certain types of activity. So given those tools available to those folks going through this training, what this amendment would do is add to that training an understanding of some other important, critical components that come into play when working on these issues. That's international human rights law and federal immigration law, that includes silent procedures that are relevant to the processes that are going on in and along the border. If we're going to train folks on these issues, we should make sure that we have a holistic approach to the way that they're being trained, and that they have an understanding of these very complex areas of law as well.

REPRESENTATIVE M. GONZÁLEZ: Chairman Moody, as you know as a representative from the border, when people are coming to the United States sometimes they have complex history, stories, a lot of them seeking asylum. I appreciate your amendment because it ensures that if we're going to provide training, that we also provide holistic training. When you hear about people coming to the United States, what are some of the stories and the reasons for your amendment?

MOODY: This is an issue, obviously, that you and I live on a daily basis in El Paso and it is a complex one. It's one that needs multiple lanes of conversation and communication. Is there nefarious activity going on in and along the border relating to drug trafficking and human trafficking? Absolutely. We've engaged heavily in discussions about how to deal with that. At the same time, we also know that there is safe, legal trade and that there are people coming to this country for different reasons that have different legal claims as they go through that process. There's also just general principles with federal immigration law that would be helpful for folks to know when they're going to engage in these types of border operations. Giving someone all the tools—also going to help you avoid litigation in case you violate somebody's rights. The difficulty that law enforcement has, and this is what this bill is about, is law enforcement training. They're always going to be held to a pretty high standard when it comes to whether they respected someone's rights. That interaction with law enforcement and the individual is highly litigated, and we want to make sure that they have these training tools as well because the stories at the border are various, and could be very complex and are maybe not as black-and-white as some people would make them out to be.

REPRESENTATIVE HOLLAND: Chairman Moody did come talk to me. We thought we were going to have a little bit longer of a debate today, and so I did not have a chance to see this amendment until just about three minutes ago. This bill—the objectives of the training program is an eight hour course peace officer response training for use-of-force objectives, anti-human smuggling and trafficking objectives, criminal mischief, criminal trespass, helping with our situation down at the border, and giving DPS a little bit more assistance with local law enforcement agencies. It's completely voluntary and the agencies would be using their force to help with DPS at the border. So I am going to oppose this amendment. We believe that the training—it's an eight-hour training program. I can respect what Mr. Moody's objective is, but I will be opposing it.

M. GONZÁLEZ: Hi, Representative Holland. Just out of curiosity, how far do you live from the border?

HOLLAND: I live in Rockwall County, Texas, near Dallas.

M. GONZÁLEZ: For those of us who live on the border, we get to live it every single day. And I think what Chairman Moody's amendment does is ensure that we aren't just looking at the supports that maybe some communities want to offer and not have them prepared. Because we are the ones who have to experience the aftermath when folks come to the border and try to support border initiatives. I think that what he's asking for is reasonable—to make sure that we don't disturb anybody's rights, citizens and noncitizens, so that we can make sure that we are holistically approaching the situation. Can you explain why you wouldn't want to ensure that we were not hurting people's rights, both citizens and noncitizens?

HOLLAND: Thank you for the question, Ms. González. I feel very confident that both TCOLE and DPS, in their developing of the curriculum for the course work, will follow the law, follow human rights, they will follow human dignity, and they will teach this class in a way that you would be proud of. And I don't think we need to tell them that on this amendment.

M. GONZÁLEZ: I mean, I love TCOLE. I fund them in my budget articles, and I appreciate all of our law enforcement officers. But you do outline things like anti-smuggling et cetera. Why would it be harmful to list one more thing if you want to ensure that we are doing this?

HOLLAND: I haven't seen the amendment. It has some language in it that I'm not sure exists in statute, in the Texas statute. I'm going to oppose the amendment. I really appreciate your back-and-forth commentary, though.

REPRESENTATIVE CANALES: This is actually a bill that furthers—and actually helps law enforcement collaborate and makes sure that they're all working in sync. Is that what you're trying to do here?

HOLLAND: Yes, sir. Chairman Canales, we have our DPS stretched all throughout the state, and many times people are pulled off of their post on the highways up in the areas where I do live and they're sent to the border. I have, in fact, DPS officers that live in my neighborhood that go down to the Del Rio area for three weeks at a time or four weeks at a time and come back. This will allow us to take the strain off of DPS a little bit to allow some of our officers in sheriff's departments and municipal police forces to have extra training towards their TCOLE certifications to help with that down in the border region.

CANALES: And just for the record, you—and I agree with you because as the chair of the Transportation Committee, we've got members from all over that have asked for their sheriff's department and their constables to have commercial vehicle inspection. Because most of our Department of Public Safety, right now as we speak, are on the Rio Grande border conducting safety inspections. And we're all for that, but either we need to beef up DPS's budget so that they can cover the rest of the state, if they're going to dedicate these troopers down in the Valley—which is not a bad thing—but we can't leave parts of your state, or everybody's districts, without troopers. Because what we're seeing is an increase in accidents, we're seeing an increase in lack of inspections. And that's what you're trying to do here, right?

HOLLAND: Yes, sir, Chairman. That's precisely my point and thank you for your support of the bill.

CANALES: So just to cover this up, you believe in enforcing the rule of law?

HOLLAND: Absolutely.

CANALES: Okay, so we've got immigration law. So when you're saying they're going to work collaboratively—you would hope, and for legislative intent—that when they work collaboratively under the rule of law they're going to teach them what the rule of law is with respect to federal immigration or what the people are working with. Wouldn't you assume?

HOLLAND: Yes, sir.

CANALES: And you also believe in rights? In the laws regarding human rights, I would imagine?

HOLLAND: Yes, sir.

CANALES: Okay and you would assume with me, for legislative intent, that they're going to learn—hopefully, under your legislation, when they work collaboratively—that they're going to learn about human rights laws as well when that happens. Wouldn't you agree?

HOLLAND: Yes, sir. That's correct.

CANALES: Thank you for you answers, I appreciate you.

REPRESENTATIVE ORTEGA: Looking at the bill, it seems to me that the whole purpose of this training is actually to learn more about the border, about the various laws, and to assist with any law enforcement agency, which I see as it is written out on the bill. Is that correct?

HOLLAND: Yes, ma'am, you are correct.

ORTEGA: Then it also says—it indicates in the bill itself that it's also supposed to be assisting with border patrol agents, anybody that is actually guarding the border, in order for it to be more effective.

HOLLAND: The intent of the bill is to establish and administer a border operations training program for peace officers employed by local law enforcement agencies that will prepare the officers to collaborate and assist with law enforcement agencies in the interdiction, investigation, and prosecution of criminal activity in the Texas-Mexico border region.

ORTEGA: And would that include U.S. Border Patrol agents since they are considered enforcement?

HOLLAND: Well, by nature of the law enforcement relationships at the border, Texas DPS does cooperate with Immigration and Customs Enforcement, as well as border patrol in their day-to-day operations.

ORTEGA: Chairman Moody's amendment, basically, is asking for three things—that is for part of the training to include human rights types of training. Is there anything wrong with including that as part of the training since they are going to be dealing with people?

HOLLAND: Well, you may not have heard the exchange between Chairman Canales and I, but we believe that the curriculum that will be developed in collaboration with Department of Public Safety and TCOLE will be more than sufficient to cover the subject of this amendment and I will oppose the amendment.

ORTEGA: Well, does the subject of your amendment include finding out and learning about federal immigration laws—which would be very important if you are going to try to enforce any activity along the border?

HOLLAND: This is Chairman Moody's amendment, ma'am, not mine. Like I said I just saw it right before I laid the bill out.

ORTEGA: Well, I understand that and I recognize that sometimes it's difficult when you don't see something until the last minute, but I guess my question is a little bit simple. If you are dealing with border issues, as we deal with them day to day since I come from a border community, wouldn't you want to know if you are trying to enforce any kind of laws or any type of procedure—wouldn't you want someone to be familiar with the federal immigration laws that might come into play when you are acting and playing in this role?

HOLLAND: I believe the spirit of the amendment will already be covered in the trainings program.

ORTEGA: So do you think they are going to be trained in federal immigration laws?

HOLLAND: They'll be trained by DPS on border operations.

ORTEGA: But that's different from federal law. I guess you are telling me that you're not sure whether they are.

HOLLAND: I'm not advised to the specifics of your question, but the bill directs DPS and TCOLE to develop a program to allow local law enforcement agencies along the border to assist with DPS in patrolling those areas.

ORTEGA: All right. There is one more item that the chairman is asking in this amendment and it is being familiar with the silent procedures. Do you know whether or not the training is going to include that?

HOLLAND: The training will be developed, after the passage of this bill, in collaboration with TCOLE and DPS.

ORTEGA: Okay, so is it something that this type of training—what he is requesting—could be included in the training?

HOLLAND: For legislative intent purposes—and like I said Chairman Canales and I had a good exchange before you came up that was pretty similar, I think, to what you are getting at. I do think that DPS is listening, TCOLE is listening and also, I have a lot of trust and faith in our DPS and police officers, as well as TCOLE, in developing both the licensing and education requirements for our peace officers and protecting our state. We're very proud. I would agree. Are you proud of our DPS in Texas?

ORTEGA: I'm not saying that I don't have any trust or that I don't have any faith. I'm just saying that when you give them additional instruction that it's helpful. That's all this amendment is doing—it's saying that some of this should be included in their training. I sure hope that you are not against it and that it is included in your bill.

HOLLAND: Thank you for your opinion.

MOODY: I talked to Mr. Holland before I came up here, obviously. I thought we would have a little bit more time to discuss this for a little more time on the floor as well, so not trying to rush this. I'm not trying to get up over the top of someone on this. It's just pretty straightforward and it's important that we recognize what we are doing here.

This is local law enforcement, this isn't DPS that has been involved in border operations. It's not the federal agencies. These are local law enforcement folks that are going to be working alongside those others on border operations and the training program we put in place for them. So what is it we want them to know? I certainly have no objection to saying positive things about TCOLE or DPS and their training, that's great, and agencies will come up with training programs all the time. We direct them to do it all the time. This is our opportunity, though—as Mr. Holland said—this is our opportunity to, when this bill passes—what does the training need to include? It may shock you to find out that sometimes you ask agencies to do something and they don't actually do it. I don't know if anyone has ever had that experience as a member of the legislature, but I know I have. So this is our opportunity to really kind of shape the training and still give them latitude on how to actually implement it, but these are important legal principles that anyone dealing with folks at the border should know or have some working knowledge of. Because their actions are going to be litigated if they violate these. So let's prepare folks better. Let's save folks from unnecessary litigation. When you arm them with facts, when you give them knowledge, and we shape the training program here as a legislative body before we hand this off to the agency, we can do this in a more complete way. It's what the amendment does. I certainly respect my colleague Mr. Holland and his opposition to this, but this is just attempting to make sure that our education protocols for the folks that are in these very complex and difficult situations have all the information they need to be able to do their job within the confines of the law.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Neave Criado offered the following amendment to SB 1484:

Amend SB 1484 (house committee printing) on page 2, line 5, between "activity" and the underlined semicolon, insert ", including the provision of services to victims of trafficking".

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE NEAVE CRIADO: This amendment specifically deals with—if we're going to be having training—to ensure that it includes the provision of services to victims of trafficking. That can include human trafficking, sex trafficking, and it's acceptable to the author.

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Amendment No. 3

Representative Wu offered the following amendment to SB 1484:

Amend SB 1484 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) On page 2, line 8, strike "and".

(2) On page 2, line 11, between "Protection" and the underlined period, insert the following:
; and

(4) training on the prohibition under Subsection (d)(2) of racial profiling or discrimination based on race, ethnicity, national origin, or immigration status

(3) On page 2, strike lines 18 and 19 and substitute the following:
operations as described by Subsection (c):

(1) is not entitled to compensation from the department for the assistance provided; and

(2) may not engage in racial profiling or discrimination based on race, ethnicity, national origin, or immigration status.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE WU: This a very simple amendment that you can see on your screen. Because of the nature of this work, we're asking that the members who will be trained in this area under this bill be trained in the issues of racial profiling, discrimination based on race, ethnicity, national origin, or immigration status, and also that this type of action be prohibited. This reflects what federal agents—hired ICE agents and other agents at the border—are required to be trained on in their 20-week basic training course. The course that they have to attend includes training on examination of immigration law, firearms training, multicultural communication, and specifically, the avoidance of racial profiling. This is a simple restriction, a simple requirement, that would help make sure that what we're doing on the border and anywhere else in Texas is according to the existing law. I hope it's acceptable to the author.

REPRESENTATIVE HOLLAND: I oppose this amendment. I encourage you to vote no.

WU: I'm asking you to vote yes on an amendment to prohibit racial profiling and racial discrimination. I urge you to vote yes.
