HR 536 - PREVIOUSLY ADOPTED
(by C. Morales)

The chair laid out the following previously adopted resolution:

HR 536, Commemorating Mexican Mother's Day on May 10, 2023.

REPRESENTATIVE C. MORALES: If I could have your attention for just a moment. Many of you—the ladies—have some pins that we left on your desk. I just want to say it's great to honor and recognize Día de las Madres, or Mexican Mother's Day. This will be my third session to recognize this important day in Mexican American culture. This is the first session where I get it right. My first session, I read the entire resolution. And my second session, I did it on a different day than Mexican Mother's Day.

Today is very, very special to me. In an effort to celebrate the rich diversity of our state and to recognize all the mothers of Texas, I want to share with you our Mexican American traditions honoring mothers. This land is our ancestral home with many of our families going back generations here in Texas. A large portion of our state is Mexican American, and Mexican Americans continue to contribute to communities across our state. Día de las Madres is a beautiful tradition where we celebrate mothers. We celebrate this on May 10 every year because the 10th of the month was payday—meaning that families could afford to buy something nice for their mothers and their families. This holiday has been celebrated in countries worldwide since the first official Mother's Day in 1922. Today in Mexico, Mother's Day is celebrated with flowers, meals, mariachis, and celebration. Here in the Texas Capitol, we are celebrating Mexican Mother's Day by thanking all the mothers for their sacrifices.

I do want to say, some of you know I lost my mother 40 years ago. It is hard to celebrate this day sometimes when you don't have your mother. I want us to remember the tragedies over the past few weeks. Let us remember those mothers who have lost their lives and the children who have lost probably the most important person in their lives—their mothers.

But today, we celebrate all the mothers in our lives. Those that raised us, those that nurtured us, and those that made us who we are today. We celebrate plant moms. We celebrate dog moms. We celebrate bonus moms. We celebrate those people who identify as moms and the moms who were dads too. It's a day to recognize contributions that all the strong women have made in our lives and to thank them for all that they have done. Thank you, moms.

The motion prevailed.

The following resolution was laid before the house:

HR 1680, Celebrating the opening of the PGA of America complex in Frisco on the occasion of National Golf Day 2023.

HR 1680 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HOLLAND: Mr. Patterson, the opening of your layout said, "for those of us who love golf." Is it an accurate statement that you love golf?

REPRESENTATIVE PATTERSON: Yes, for those of us that love the game of golf.

HOLLAND: Okay. I've played golf with some of the other members. I've never played golf with you. What is your handicap?

PATTERSON: It's a four.

HOLLAND: A four. Okay. Well, I look forward to playing with you in Frisco and congratulations on helping the PGA come to your district.

PATTERSON: Absolutely, thank you.

HR 1680 was adopted.

GENERAL STATE CALENDAR
SENATE BILLS
THIRD READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read third time:

SB 490 ON THIRD READING

(C.E. Harris, Klick, Frank, Campos, Collier, et al. - House Sponsors)

SB 490, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to itemized billing for health care services and supplies provided by health care providers; authorizing an administrative penalty.

SB 490 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE TURNER: Thank you, Representative Harris, and thank you for the detailed explanation of the bill and your intent. My question is about the amendment yesterday. You said you were adding a perfecting amendment and it was acceptable to the author. That's about all I heard, and I didn't get a chance to ask you anything. Can you just walk through what the amendment did?

REPRESENTATIVE C.E. HARRIS: Absolutely. So because the issues that were brought to me by my constituents and members in this body primarily had to do with hospitals, I worked with Dr. Bonnen and Dr. Oliverson and we came to the conclusion that this really doesn't impact doctors. So we went ahead and took them out of it. The next change is we also took out federally qualified health care centers because most of the time the federal government is covering those costs. Those people may be paying $20 for their health care at the end of the day and so those centers have a hard time providing that care anyway. We want to make sure that we protected those that are helping the most vulnerable amongst us. Then the last provision on here—it takes out the administrative penalty in the bill. And there was some concern that might cause frivolous lawsuits, and so we went ahead and took that language out and made sure that there's still some disciplinary measures in the bill.

TURNER: Thank you for explaining that. I support that amendment based on how you described and explained it. Is it fair to say that you offered this amendment because the requirement for physicians' offices and FQHCs to be included in the bill was—did you feel like it was an onerous requirement to pull them in?

C.E. HARRIS: No, not necessarily. I think the feeling was that you have a lot closer relationship with your doctor than you probably do with the various nurses and doctors and all of the people that are taking care of you in a, let's say, 12-day hospital stay. I mean, I've got my doctor on speed dial, so if I have concerns about any of the medical billing with him, I know I can contact him directly. It's a different story when it comes to hospitals and facilities. That was kind of the reason that we made that change.

TURNER: Okay. And so right now with the amendment then—I want to make sure I understand—the original bill applied to doctors, FQHCs, and hospitals?

C.E. HARRIS: It applied to all providers.

TURNER: All health care providers? Any time you get a medical bill?

C.E. HARRIS: Yes.

TURNER: Okay. And now the bill, as amended, applies only to hospitals?

C.E. HARRIS: The language is "facilities," so that would included hospitals.

TURNER: Okay, so it includes all health care facilities, but not doctors' offices? I assume a private practitioner—is that how that's defined?

C.E. HARRIS: Yes, and I'll just go back to—

TURNER: Professional practice including a physician.

C.E. HARRIS: Yes.

TURNER: I guess that's the wording in your amendment. And FQHCs are now out of the bill?

C.E. HARRIS: Yes. And I'll just go back to number one, with the doctors. Our concern was just making sure that these medical errors can be checked. And again, it's a lot easier to either go to your doctor's office and talk to the nurse that helped you or talk to your doctor directly if there's an error. And then with the FQHCs, again, this is the federal government taking care of some of the poorest amongst us and that medical care may amount to $20 in some cases. But those folks are not really on the hook for as much as you probably would be if you were getting care from a health care facility.

TURNER: Okay, thank you. When they have to provide the itemized bill, at what point does that occur? Is that when the patient is discharged from the hospital or do they have some period of time to then send that itemized bill?

C.E. HARRIS: They do have a period of time. The bill says that before someone is sent to collections, they have to receive that itemized bill. That can be after insurance has already kicked in, the facility and insurance have figured everything out, and then it's the final payment that goes to the patient. And so before they send the patient to collections to collect on that bill is when they would have to provide the itemized. Anytime up until they send the person to collections.

TURNER: At any point before a bill goes to collections, that's when the itemization has to be provided, but not before a patient's bill goes to collections.

C.E. HARRIS: No, and we also put language in here that just really clarifies that this is after your care. So there are people that will bundle their services up front, for example, and they'll just pay a lump sum of $15,000 and then go get all the services done—this would not apply to them. This is only applying to folks who have already had their medical care done and they still have some sort of bill to pay to a facility.

TURNER: Thank you for answering my questions, Representative Harris.

(C.J. Harris in the chair)

HB 7 ON THIRD READING

(by Guillen, Raymond, Muñoz, E. Morales, J. Lopez, et al.)

HB 7, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to services and programs in the southern border region of this state to address the effects of ongoing criminal activity and public health threats in that region.

HB 7 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE GUILLEN: Through a variety of programs, HB 7 will assist the judicial system, law enforcement, public services, health and safety, property owners, educational institutions, businesses, and communities on the border region who find themselves bearing the brunt of the current situation on the border.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Walle offered the following amendment to HB 7:

Amend HB 7 on third reading in Article 4 of the bill, in added Section 421.112(1), Government Code, by striking "all persons regardless of age or gender" and substituting "persons who are 10 years of age or older, regardless of gender".

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE WALLE: I appreciate the opportunity to lay out the first of my two amendments. As we debated the bill last night, we had several amendments that were added—long amendments. One of the issues will be that—this amendment would prohibit the detention of children under the age of 10. Currently, our Texas Juvenile Justice Code is actually not in the Criminal or the Penal Code. It's actually in the Family Code. What we don't want to happen, as this bill is implemented, is that we detain children. Children from the age of 10 to 17 are the ones that could actually be charged. So what this amendment would do is it would prohibit the detention of 10-year-olds. Let me repeat that. Members, the detention of babies 10 and under being detained once this operation—this unit—is up and running. We know that when you detain young people through no fault of their own, who are younger than 10, that is a very traumatic experience for that family, but particularly for that child.

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: Mr. Walle, the amendment that we have in front of us is going to prohibit—well, under the bill, why would we need a provision like this? What's the provision that's implicated here?

WALLE: Well, the provision is really—it's kind of disturbing, Chair Moody. What we want to prevent is the construction of jails for children—baby jails.

MOODY: Because in the bill there's grants to build facilities, right?

WALLE: That is correct. And so it does allow for a lot of grants, a lot of infrastructure to be built, and economic development. It's very broad what these state dollars can be spent on with this new HB 7—but also even further, the construction of detention facilities that could hold 10-year-olds.

MOODY: Because currently, statistically the individuals that are being detained under the program now are adult males, right? And we have facilities to be able to address that population?

WALLE: That's correct. As I understand in speaking to folks, the folks that are being detained currently are mostly males. That's been the prerogative of this state to do that. What we don't want to do—look, this is a very serious matter.

And one of the things that really concerns me is—you have children, you have three beautiful children, Representative Moody. I have two boys—young. One that's nine and one that's 12. I don't think this body wants to get in the business of building and constructing baby jails. I don't think this body wants to do that. I know this body doesn't want to do that. And so based on my conversations with folks, I think that this is the right policy. If, as we're going to do in a few minutes, in passing this bill, unfortunately, we want to be able to prevent this state from getting in the business of constructing baby jails.

MOODY: Because the bill as it stands now reads all persons regardless of age or gender.

WALLE: That's correct.

MOODY: So that's all ages—the full gamut. What your amendment does is narrows that and you said you've got to be essentially 10 or older, right? Well, we're just going to carve out all those kiddos under 10.

WALLE: That's correct.

MOODY: And we're not going to permit the use of these funds to build facilities to incarcerate and hold children under 10 years old. That's what your amendment does?

WALLE: That's plainly what the amendment does.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Walle offered the following amendment to HB 7:

Amend HB 7 on third reading in added Section 411.563, Government Code, by striking "personnel" in each place it appears and substituting "commissioned officers".

AMENDMENT NO. 2 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE WALLE: As the night went on and folks who were paying attention or not paying attention—I just want to make sure that as we go through the process that when this Border Protection Unit is implemented—and I'm not going to debate the merits, I respect my colleagues that live along the border. This amendment just plainly strikes "personnel." Because in the bill, as it's drafted, this Border Protection Unit can hire anybody, any personnel, and that's a little vague in my view. What I want to do in this amendment is strike where it says "personnel" and actually place, in that stricken word, "commissioned officers." If we are going to go down this route and build this unit up, then the folks that are working in law enforcement actually have law enforcement training. At minimum, every law enforcement officer in this state—and we appreciate the work that they do, they protect and serve our community, like Representative Frazier. There's a lot of folks on this floor that respect the work that our police officers do. What we want to do is make sure that these folks are actually commissioned officers. Because those commissioned officers have to have a certain minimum standard of academic training, physical and mental health training or counseling, firearms training, and constitutional law training. Because once these officers or personnel start interacting with the public, you want to make sure that these officers—these personnel—are actually commissioned officers by the State of Texas, so that we don't have any problems going down the road as this Border Protection Unit is implemented.

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: Mr. Walle, I know you mentioned that some people were listening to that debate last night and some people weren't. But what I heard during the debate was we wanted to ensure there was a certain level of professionalism, a certain level of training, and a certain level of expertise. And those are the people that we want if we are going to have this. I think you would agree with me. If we're going to have this, do we not want the most trained, the most professional, and the most experienced individuals implementing this program?

WALLE: That's correct.

MOODY: Why do you think that's important?

WALLE: I think it's important that you actually have folks that are trained to do law enforcement activities. In the bill, it mentions "personnel." Personnel is not defined as I read the bill. What you want to do is make sure that you have some basic minimum standards on how to interact with the public. These law enforcement agents throughout the state have those basic minimum standards so that we don't violate folks' constitutional rights, but you also don't violate folks' human rights. Because what is going on at the border is a humanitarian catastrophe. You have folks that are being pushed out of their countries of origin because their own governments cannot provide the educational care, the health care, the economic—the violence that is going on right now within these countries that are pushing these folks out. The reality is they are at our border. That's just a fact. They are at our border. But what we don't want to do is create a situation where we compound the crisis at the border by hiring folks that don't have any training whatsoever.

MOODY: Well, you know as well as I do, even in the best-case scenario when you have training, you have expertise, and you have all those bells and whistles, you're still going to land yourself in positions where—look, people make mistakes. People do things in the heat of the moment. Mistakes happen and rights are violated. So even in the best of circumstances, you can land yourself in a place of litigation where rights have been potentially violated. That's today, even with folks that are commissioned to go through the process. If we lower that bar—which is the way the bill is as it came to the floor today—without your amendment, I think we're going to walk ourselves into an even larger category of opportunity for some of these more bad outcomes for folks and, honestly, more litigation related to violation of rights. You would agree with me, right?

WALLE: I would agree with you. Yes, sir.

MOODY: And have you discussed with the author if he's going to accept this amendment?

WALLE: As I just read his lips, it's acceptable to the author.

MOODY: Fantastic. I'm glad you were paying attention last night and drafted this amendment.

Amendment No. 2 was adopted.

Amendment No. 3

Representative Tinderholt offered the following amendment to HB 7:

Amend HB 7 on third reading in the ARTICLE of the bill adding Subchapter S, Chapter 411, Government Code, by striking added Section 411.553, Government Code, and renumbering the sections of that subchapter and cross-references to those sections accordingly.

AMENDMENT NO. 3 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE TINDERHOLT: Last night's amendment made it so that county commissioners in border counties would have to approve the Border Protection Unit to operate in that area. I don't think it's smart. We just passed a preemption bill recently. Last night, we added an important provision to the legislation about the Border Protection Unit. Unfortunately, part of that amendment restricts these new DPS officers' activities unnecessarily. It restricts their ability to secure our border and state to what the county commissioners are okay with. Members, we don't need to restrict law enforcement's ability to secure our border to what local governments approve or disapprove. We need to be giving DPS and the Border Protection Unit the tools they need to do the job.

REPRESENTATIVE MOODY: Just so I understand, the purpose of the amendment is to strike the provision that would permit the county commissioners courts from inviting the newly created BPU to their jurisdiction to coordinate with them?

TINDERHOLT: Not so much coordinate, but to approve or disapprove on whether they operate. We just passed a preemption bill a couple of weeks ago. I'm afraid that in some of these counties they'll say that they don't want the Border Protection Unit there. But the people of the United States of America and of Texas deserve a quality Border Protection Unit.

MOODY: Do you think law enforcement that comes into an environment where they're not working collaboratively with local officials and other local law—county commissioners oversee the sheriff's department in every one of their counties, do they not?

TINDERHOLT: They do.

MOODY: Do you think it is wise or do you think it is fruitful to have law enforcement coming into a community that is not coordinating and collaborating with local officials?

TINDERHOLT: I think they'll still coordinate and I think they'll still collaborate. But the problem is going to be when we have county commissioners—

MOODY: So forcing the local government at the law enforcement level to—it doesn't sound very collaborative to me. Collaboration is usually coordinating—in fact, this bill, wherever people stand on it, seems to be pushing an effort to make sure that courts, prosecutors, and law enforcement at all levels are working together. You're familiar with the idea of fusion centers and things like that, right?

TINDERHOLT: I am. But what you're implying is that if I remove this that no collaboration takes place. I think it still does. The provision exists to try to exempt them and stop them from certain counties. There's no other reason that would exist.

MOODY: Wouldn't you agree with me that what the bill builds in, by asking our local elected officials to openly engage in this conversation, is finding a space for all of the folks to come together and have that conversation in a public dialogue? I think it's important. I think it's important for the public back home to be involved in that dialogue. And as a new law enforcement entity—as someone from a community that has a bazillion law enforcement organizations working in my backyard—and by the way, they work very well together. They coordinate and they meet on a regular basis.

TINDERHOLT: And they do that without the commissioners court having to approve it.

MOODY: The commissioners court is very well involved in all of those.

TINDERHOLT: But they don't have to approve or disapprove.

MOODY: They designate folks to go be their liaison for these purposes. Not including them in that decision-making process is hostile.

TINDERHOLT: I disagree.

MOODY: It is a hostile effort. And when you're trying to promote—don't you think the better way to promote collaboration is to bring people to the table and not say, "We're just going to cut your seat out of the table whether you want it or not. Whether you want to talk about it or not, we're going to be here"? How effective do you think that will be?

TINDERHOLT: Currently, DPS doesn't have to get permission from the commissioners court to be where they're at, nor does the National Guard. They're collaborative and they're working. The only reason I believe this provision exists is to stop them from operating in that county. There's no other reason for it because they will be collaborative. They are right now—DPS is and this new unit will be.

MOODY: How much of a collaborative environment do you think you're creating when the bill, as is, creates an avenue by which public participation at the local level can be involved and you remove that?

TINDERHOLT: See, I think, currently—

MOODY: Don't you think the message to folks back home, at least in my community, will be: "We don't want you involved in this process"?

TINDERHOLT: No, I think they're going to think it's exactly like it currently is. DPS is operating in our backyard.

MOODY: It's not exactly how it currently is because it's a brand-new unit of law enforcement. So I do disagree with you on that. This is a very different effort. And if it wasn't a very different effort, it wouldn't be necessary. For communities like mine, who, by the way, regardless of what some people may think, have a vested interest in a secure and functional border and want to be a productive partner in that conversation. Do you think that a county like El Paso doesn't want a secure border?

TINDERHOLT: I think there are some counties that either do or will subvert—

MOODY: I'm asking specifically. I care about El Paso County. Do you think my county doesn't want a secure border?

TINDERHOLT: I don't know and that's not what this is about. This is about now or in the future—

MOODY: Well, you're talking about taking local authority away.

TINDERHOLT: You asked me a question. May I answer the question?

MOODY: Do you think my county—

TINDERHOLT: I think now or in the future there will be county commissioners and county courts that want to stop it.

MOODY: Do you or do you not think that my county has a vested interest in a safe and secure border where legal trade can traverse and where people can traverse safely and legally as well?

TINDERHOLT: Your county may be doing great, but what about the county that's not yours that does not want these units operating in their—

MOODY: Which county is that?

TINDERHOLT: I'm saying now or in the future.

MOODY: Well, which county is that?

TINDERHOLT: I just answered your question. What more do you want?

MOODY: Which county is hostile to this right now?

TINDERHOLT: I'm saying there could be in the future, and I think this is important. Right now, you know DPS does not have to coordinate. It's silly that you're thinking that removing this is going to make no collaboration. They collaborate. They have fusion centers, just like you said. They're going to use all the same tools that they currently use.

MOODY: We do these things in a collaborative way. The nature of this amendment is to send a message to communities like mine that we do not care about your opinion and we do not care about public input and participation in this process with a new unit being stood up in our jurisdictions. If we're going to do this, we should do it in a way that brings everybody to the table in the most amicable way possible. The only way I can read your amendment is that we want them to know that we don't care what they think. We're going to do this anyway.

TINDERHOLT: I'll tell you that I'm sorry that you read it that way. My intent of the amendment is to ensure that no county says no to a Border Protection Unit going to the border to enforce border protection for Texans, period.

MOODY: And I understand your intent. I have no other way to read this than as cutting out public participation for a community like mine. I appreciate you bringing it, but I think the better way to do things, particularly with law enforcement, is to invite and integrate things in a collaborative measure. The more people that participate the better. You've heard of the term community policing?

TINDERHOLT: I have.

MOODY: The theory behind community policing is when you have a great, healthy relationship between the law enforcement and the community they come from and they serve. And this is a new unit being stood up that has never been stood up before and the opportunity for the public to participate—I can wait for you to finish.

TINDERHOLT: Go ahead. I'm sorry.

MOODY: The opportunity for the public to participate and be engaged and involved in it was built into the bill through the provision as it came to the floor today. As someone who has seen—by the way, one of the safest communities in the country of its size, year after year after year, is the city that I'm from. Despite all of the rhetoric about my community, it is one of the safest in this nation of its size every year, year in and year out. That is because there is a healthy and good relationship between the law enforcement and the public that they serve. So I see this component of HB 7 as a key component of preserving that and not being hostile to it. In what way would you disagree with having a collaborative measure for our local government to get involved in this?

TINDERHOLT: I'll state it simply, kind of what I said last night. We had people in politics that wanted to defund the police. And right now at the border there are some people doing some amazing things.

MOODY: I'm not here for catchphrases.

TINDERHOLT: Let me finish. Let me finish.

MOODY: Tell me what's going on for real.

TINDERHOLT: There's amazing things happening at the border, but I'll tell you, as a nation, we're failing miserably. And what I'm saying through this amendment is: No county can say no to a Border Protection Unit to protect Texans and Americans. There's nothing else to infer from my amendment other than that. If there's a county that decides they don't want this unit there, I'm saying we're coming and we're going to protect your community. And if you're an elected official—

MOODY: And we don't care what you think about it.

TINDERHOLT: Well, hold on. And if you're an elected official that says you don't want it, you don't want to protect your community, we're going to protect it anyway.

MOODY: I understand your point. I'm trying to be respectful. To say that a community like mine doesn't care about safety and security or somehow would thumb their nose at safety and security—it is a reality that we live every day. And the situation with the border and immigration in our community is very complicated and it's not a black-and-white issue. It's not just about stacking troops up on the border.

TINDERHOLT: It is. The border is not wide open. If you want Border Protection Units to be able to operate without a local elected official's approving, I would request that you vote with me—do you have questions?

REPRESENTATIVE HARRISON: Mr. Tinderholt, is the purpose of the Border Protection Unit to protect the entire southern border of the State of Texas or only part of it?

TINDERHOLT: The entire Texas border.

HARRISON: Without your amendment, is there any way that we can know, if HB 7 passes, that the entire southern border would be protected?

TINDERHOLT: Absolutely not.

HARRISON: Without your amendment, does HB 7 actually disempower the authority of the State of Texas and subjugate it to local elected officials for the purposes of securing this border?

TINDERHOLT: It absolutely does.

HARRISON: Without your amendment, is the entire point of the Border Protection Unit effectively gutted?

TINDERHOLT: Pretty much. It allows local elected officials that might be liberal—

HARRISON: This is a great amendment. If you support securing the border, vote yes on this amendment.

REPRESENTATIVE GUILLEN: I'm going to leave this up to the will of the house. What this does is it eliminates the ability of the counties to approve or disapprove of the presence of the BPU. I'm going to leave it up to the will of the house.

Amendment No. 4

Representative Bernal offered the following amendment to HB 7:

Amend HB 7 on third reading in the ARTICLE of the bill adding Subchapter S, Chapter 411, Government Code, by adding the following Section to that subchapter:

Sec. 411.5591. USE OF PERSONAL VEHICLE PROHIBITED. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subchapter, an officer or other employee of the unit may not use the officer's or employee's personal vehicle to conduct a traffic stop for any purpose related to the officer's or employee's duties.

AMENDMENT NO. 4 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE BERNAL: I would like everyone's attention because this amendment actually would affect all of you. What the amendment does is it says that the BPU officers cannot use their private vehicles—their own vehicles—for a traffic stop. Let me tell you why that's important: I already know that most of you carry, and there's a guarantee that most of you carry in your cars. So imagine any one of you or I go to the Valley where my family's from and I was born, and all of a sudden some unmarked 4x4, some unmarked car—a Prius—attempts to pull you over. You don't know who they are, you don't know what they want, and you think you and your family's lives are in danger. You're probably going to do something about that and that's a recipe for disaster. That could happen now. Without this amendment—without some guardrails—if we allow these officers to use their private vehicles, the same thing could happen and we wouldn't be accomplishing the goal that we want. All this amendment says is they cannot use their private vehicles for traffic stops. It is acceptable to the author.

Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Amendment No. 5

Representative Morales Shaw offered the following amendment to HB 7:

Amend HB 7 on third reading in the ARTICLE adding Subchapter S, Chapter 411, Government Code, in added Section 411.561, Government Code, by adding the following subsections:

(a-1) The unit chief may not employ an officer or other employee if the officer or other employee:

(1) has been convicted of a violent offense; or

(2) has been dishonorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States or the Texas military forces as shown by the service member's release or discharge documentation.

(a-2) For purposes of Subsection (a-1):

(1) "Texas military forces" has the meaning assigned by Section 437.001.

(2) "Violent offense" means an offense under the law of any state that has as an element the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against any person.

AMENDMENT NO. 5 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE MORALES SHAW: This amendment simply ensures that persons convicted of a crime of violence against another person or dishonorably discharged persons are excluded from participating in this new state militia.

Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

HB 7 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE C. MORALES: I just have a couple of questions. I wanted to know how would a crime be designated as border related? What are the specific offenses?

REPRESENTATIVE GUILLEN: Let's see. I think you're referencing the border-related crimes that would be dealt with by the OCA and the court system? What are you referencing?

C. MORALES: Yes, with the court system.

GUILLEN: The border-related crimes would be anything dealing with drugs, human trafficking, and those types of things.

C. MORALES: How would a case be identified as including an operative or transnational cartel? Would that criteria alone be enough?

GUILLEN: I'm not following the question.

C. MORALES: Let me go on to another question. What definition of "transnational cartel member" does this bill follow?

GUILLEN: I am not sure we have a definition in the bill. I think it might already be in statute.

C. MORALES: I have another question because we are approaching Mother's Day. Today is Mexican Mother's Day. What about people living with someone who may be tied to a gang? Is someone's grandmother at risk of committing a border-related offense because their grandchild may be involved with criminal activity?

GUILLEN: Right. I think you're referencing something that we already have in statute that exempts anybody from those types of crimes that are within two degrees of consanguinity.

REPRESENTATIVE CANALES: What I would like to talk to you about is the money part. You and I have had many discussions over this session. So that the members know what we're talking about, for instance, Hidalgo County, where I'm from, we're housing 500 inmates that are Operation Lone Star related. Since the inception of border security, my county has had to open three additional county courts at law. They've had to open three additional district courts, and the Office of Court Administration says we're short. We have roughly calculated, with some degree of accuracy, that Hidalgo County has an unfunded mandate—my county—of approximately $17 million a year. I will repeat that because if anybody's county in here has an unfunded mandate of $17 million a year, you'd probably be up here complaining. I'm not complaining, but what I'd like to know is with your grant programs and the money that's supposed to be allocated, do we have any idea what the funding is going to look like for counties like mine that have a $17 million unfunded mandate?

GUILLEN: You'd have to ask the Appropriations Committee about that. What we are doing in the bill is trying to address those problems. The amount of money would be a question for the Appropriations Committee.

CANALES: Have you had any discussions with the Appropriations Committee?

GUILLEN: Absolutely.

CANALES: Do you have any idea what it is they're looking at with respect to counties such as mine?

GUILLEN: That's a question, again, for them.

CANALES: One of the things, and I know that there was much of CSHB 20 and elements of it that were amended. Was the third-degree felony amended onto your bill for trespass?

GUILLEN: No.

CANALES: Are you aware that, right now, the legislation that was passed out of this house with respect to trespass—I think last session or the session before last—that in Hidalgo County, we can't even house those people?

GUILLEN: What we do have in this bill is we are trying to address those things. We have a Border Region Court Grant Program, and we are also directing OCA to study and report border-related crime and to identify the problem areas to try to interject and address them through this program. We also have a criminal justice facilities fund to fund construction and maintenance of criminal justice facilities to try and address what you're talking about.

CANALES: I appreciate your hard work and I also know you've done your best. One of the things that also concerns me and that I think the body should recognize is that with the increased presence of law enforcement, some of the arrests have nothing to do with—in fact, a large part of the arrests from the Department of Public Safety in my region have nothing to do with border security crime, which I'm all right with. I love the presence of DPS in my hometown. I love the fact that they're patrolling and keeping the place safe. But we've got a 40 percent increase—the last numbers, I think that was six or seven years ago—in DWIs. Those are not border-related crimes as it pertains to your bill. Those are the kind of crimes, because of increased law enforcement presence, that I'm asking if there is anything in your grant funding formulas or potential ones that we might get from Appropriations that covers the offenses that are not border-related crimes, but are incidental to the increased law enforcement presence that Operation Lone Star and the border security effort creates?

GUILLEN: I understand what you're pointing out, and I think the answer is no, but I do agree with you that there are some unrelated increases in expenditures. Indirectly, we have that in HB 7 in that we're having them study the issue—what have been the increases in their docket as a result of these things and we're trying to address those here.

CANALES: You think, as part of your bill, that portions of your bill are to study things that are incidental, but not necessarily border-related crimes?

GUILLEN: Yes.

CANALES: When is the result of that study supposed to come back to us?

GUILLEN: Before the next session of legislature.

CANALES: I hope that you would agree to work with me when we get the results of that study, and they show the increased arrests that are unrelated to border security but are directly correlative to the increased law enforcement presence—to help me fund the unfunded mandate. My sheriff says I have 500 inmates that are related to border security, but not border security-related crimes. When you put that together, that's about a $10 million to $11 million cost annually. In fact, we just leased a jail in Willacy County, completely outside our facility, for $10 million a year. Those are the things I'm concerned about. I ask you if you'll work with me next session after we get the results?

GUILLEN: Absolutely.

CANALES: Thank you for your responses, Chairman, and thank you for your efforts.

HB 3782 ON THIRD READING(by Guillen, Raymond, E. Morales, Muñoz, J. Lopez, et al.)

HB 3782, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to establishing the Border Security Advisory Council and the Border Protection Task Force.

HB 3782 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE NEAVE CRIADO: Can you let us know who is on the council?

REPRESENTATIVE GUILLEN: It's led by the lieutenant governor and the speaker. Then we have four senators, four state representatives, and then the non-voting members are the executive heads from the Department of Public Safety, Texas Military Department, Texas Division of Emergency Management, Parks and Wildlife Department, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Office of Court Administration, and a representative of a border county, a sheriff of a border region, a representative of a border region municipality, a border region police chief, and a representative of the border region business community. Other non-voting members are determined by the governor.

NEAVE CRIADO: What are the duties of this council?

GUILLEN: To conduct an in-depth examination of border security initiatives and programs in the state. That includes an assessment of cost-effectiveness, and identification of critical border safety problems, and a determination of the state's long-range border safety needs. Finally, to advise the legislature and the governor's office on ways to solve border safety issues so they can prioritize long-term needs, to coordinate efforts among local and state agencies, to streamline decision-making, increase transparency, and to make legislative recommendations.

NEAVE CRIADO: And apart from that, are there any other roles that the council plays in coordinating with the governor?

GUILLEN: I think I mentioned them all.

NEAVE CRIADO: What state agencies are in the bill?

GUILLEN: Do you mean department heads of those state agencies?

NEAVE CRIADO: Or which state agencies?

GUILLEN: DPS, TMD, TDEM, TPWD, Texas Department of Criminal Justice, and the Office of Court Administration.

NEAVE CRIADO: Thank you.

GUILLEN: Members, this establishes a Border Security Advisory Council and task force.

Amendment No. 3 - Point of Order

Representative Tinderholt raised a point of order against further consideration of Amendment No. 3 under Rule 11, Section 2, of the House Rules. The speaker sustained the point of order, announcing his decision to the house as follows:

Mr. Tinderholt raises a point of order against further consideration of the E. Morales of Maverick Amendment (Amendment No. 3) under Rule 11, Section 2, on the grounds that the amendment is not germane.

The joint resolution would legalize casino gambling and sports betting in Texas. It proposes a comprehensive scheme for the regulation of these forms of gambling, including the establishment of a Texas Gaming Commission to oversee license holders. It also authorizes the governor to conduct good-faith negotiations with any of Texas's three federally recognized Indian tribes for tribal-state compacts, which are required under Federal law to permit a tribe to conduct the Class III forms of gambling legalized by the proposed constitutional amendment.

Mr. Morales of Maverick's amendment would expressly allow the Kickapoo tribe to operate a Class III casino on owned or leased land within 300 miles of its reservation boundaries and allow the tribe and the secretary of state to regulate that casino.

The amendment seeks to compel an action the joint resolution requires to be negotiated. Further, the amendment seeks to create a new regulatory scheme that bears no resemblance to the proposed regulatory scheme.

While it is permissible to place limits on discretionary authority, see 8 Cannon § 3022, an amendment may not completely negate the discretion to be granted. Cf. 120 Cong. Rec. 5436 (1974) (limitations on discretionary authority are germane only if they further delineate the authority to be exercised). Additionally, any regulatory method proposed by an amendment must be closely aligned to that of the main measure, see 5 Hinds § 5909, which is not the case here. The major purpose of the amendment is to constitutionally impose a Class III compact between Texas and the Kickapoos for purposes of Federal law. The amendment is not germane.

Accordingly, the point of order is well-taken and sustained.

The ruling precluded further consideration of Amendment No. 3.

Amendment No. 4

Representative Gámez offered the following amendment to CSHJR 155:

REQUEST TO GRANT COMMITTEE PERMISSION TO MEET

Representative Buckley requested permission for the Committee on Public Education to meet while the house is in session, at 9:15 p.m. today, in E2.036, to consider pending, referred, and committee business.

PERMISSION TO MEET REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE BAILES: Chairman Buckley, I know we gave a long speech about how we handle bills about decorum in the body on the Herrero Amendment and such. You plainly stated that when we have bills, especially those that are very substantial, that it's important that we give those thoughtful consideration and that we have proper time for deliberation for full transparency to the body. Is your intention to bring a bill in a sizable committee substitute, somewhere to the tune of 80 pages?

REPRESENTATIVE BUCKLEY: We're going to take up pending business in the committee, if the house grants permission.

BAILES: Is an 80-page substitution part of your intention?

BUCKLEY: There is a bill that is comprised of multiple subjects that we've had hearings on over the last several weeks—including 16 hours on one subject alone.

BAILES: I'm very aware. I was able to listen to that actual testimony. Of that 80-page bill that you have, that committee substitute, starting on page 50—are you aware of what the top line of page 50 actually states?

BUCKLEY: I don't have the bill in front of me, and I don't think that's an appropriate question.

BAILES: I'll help you read that. It's Article 3, Education Savings Account Program. Is it your intention to bring this bill forward as a vehicle to bypass the hearing process—to present this as a committee substitute and then force the body to take a vote on that without the same transparency that you have demanded that this body give to other bills?

BUCKLEY: The component of that section was heard, discussed, and had witness testimony for 16 hours—April 11.

BAILES: Last I checked, you had several bills that actually dealt with education savings account vouchers. What is the status of those bills? Have you voted any of those bills out of your committee to be deliberated on the floor?

BUCKLEY: Those bills are still pending in committee.

BAILES: You have chosen not to give any of those bills an actual vote and vote those out. However, you're trying to bring an 80-page substitution to this body and force a vote without that thoughtful deliberation, that transparency, and that same committee hearing for public input that you have so deliberately requested on future bills?

BUCKLEY: We have heard the subject matter for 16 hours on April 11. And to include 80 additional hours of testimony on many of the subjects covered in the committee substitute, that could be—

BAILES: If we heard testimony on those bills, then you should be able to vote those bills out. Are any of these bills in their entirety here? Or have you actually picked and chosen the particular language that you want brought together when there's been no collective hearing on a bill which would be the same as the 80 pages you are asking this body to vote on?

BUCKLEY: The committee will take up the committee substitute if the house grants permission for us to meet this evening.

BAILES: Members of this body, if we stand for anything, it is for doing what is right. We give bills the opportunity to be heard in committee. We give the public an opportunity to give their input. We're able to have that conversation. We're able to know what their feelings are and what their thoughts are. There were extensive hearings that the Education Committee heard to handle such bills as ESAs—education savings accounts, also known as vouchers. The committee chose not to give any of those bills a vote because there were problems with those bills. The numbers, quite simply, didn't add up. So we have a motion now to force this body to accept—this is the 80 pages. This is the 80 pages, and I plainly asked, is it the chairman's intention to force these 80 pages which are unvetted and unheard in committee? This is not the right way to do this and we are better than this in this committee. Our kids matter in the State of Texas. They are better than backroom, shady dealings—which is what this is right here.

REPRESENTATIVE CANALES: So I'm not part of the committee, but I want to ask you a question. I'm trying to understand what exactly is transpiring here. The permission to meet for the Committee on Public Education to consider this bill, and this bill is 80 pages different than the original bill?

BAILES: Correct.

CANALES: And the bill with that hearing was held—is there going to be an actual hearing with witnesses on this bill?

BAILES: There is no intention to have a hearing. If there was a hearing, then I think as a body and as a chairman, I will never stand in the way of transparency and the ability to have a hearing and let the public be heard. That is not the intention of this motion.

CANALES: You're not asking that this bill not be heard, you're asking that a hearing be held so that witnesses can actually come forward and testify and actually comment on the compilation of what's now before you?

BAILES: That is correct. I have no objection whatsoever to this bill being heard.

HB 463 ON SECOND READING (by Hull and Noble)

HB 463, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to medical examinations for certain children entering the conservatorship of the Department of Family and Protective Services.

Representative Hull moved to postpone consideration of HB 463 until 10 a.m. Thursday, June 1.

HB 463 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE HULL: I move to postpone further consideration of HB 463 until June 1, 2023, and I'd like to take a moment to briefly explain why. This bill was attempting to clarify existing law regarding medical exams for children removed by DFPS. For six years, DFPS decided to misinterpret this law. Commissioner Muth said, after reviewing current law and the legislative history, that the department's implementation was not consistent with existing law and they would change their processes to align with current law, which is currently underway and will be effective September 1.

Thank you to Chair Klick and Chair Frank for your leadership and work on this for the past six years. It is frustrating when we pass laws here and agencies do not implement those with fidelity. Thank you to Commissioner Muth for her leadership, and DFPS for their willingness to make sure the agency is faithfully implementing state law without the need for additional legislation.

The motion prevailed.

HB 408 ON SECOND READING (by Collier)

HB 408, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the eligibility requirements for a license to carry a handgun.

HB 408 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE COLLIER: If you can just indulge me for a moment, because I need to take a little time to explain this bill.

Individuals who successfully complete deferred adjudication for the charge of non-aggravated robbery or burglary of a habitat can constitutionally carry under current law. However, there is a discrepancy in our law regarding the impact of completing deferred adjudication for certain offenses. The Texas Penal Code allows courts to place a person on deferred adjudication for certain offenses, and if that person successfully completes all of the conditions of that court's order, their charge does not result in a final conviction. However, if we move over to the Local Government Code, we see that even if a person successfully completes the condition of the court's order of deferred adjudication—with 10 years of no disqualifying behavior—they are still considered to be convicted for the purposes for obtaining a license to carry, thereby making them ineligible.

Now, there are instances where Texans seeking employment opportunities need to have a license to carry, but because of the way the word "conviction" is interpreted in the Local Government Code, the law does not afford them that opportunity. I have to continue to read this because I want it to be very clear what we are doing. If a person was given deferred adjudication for the offense of non-aggravated robbery or burglary of a habitat, the state believes that person has the ability to be rehabilitated. But this is nearly impossible if barriers are still in place that prevent them from providing for themselves and/or their family. If this bill does pass, we are still saying deferred adjudications for aggravated robbery and felony burglaries in the first degree are excluded for the purposes of handgun license eligibility.

So here's the bottom line: If someone can live 10 years without committing a disqualifying offense, they should qualify to enter the handgun license program. And to be clear—clear as I possibly can—this bill would not expand access to firearms, as these individuals already are eligible to carry under the constitutional carry. But it does open the future possibilities for those individuals it impacts.

HB 408 was passed to engrossment. (Dean and Shine recorded voting no.)
