REASON FOR VOTE

Representative Rodríguez Ramos submitted the following reason for vote to be printed in the journal:

I am proud to vote against SB 2, and my heart is heavy for the children of Texas. With this vote, the legislature has determined to defund our public schools and give a taxpayer-funded handout to families who are already sending their children to private schools. We can expect the same result that we've seen in every single state where voucher scams like this have passed: Public schools lose resources, working families lose options, and the wealthy get another tax break. We proposed dozens of commonsense amendments to bring accountability and equity into the voucher system. Every single one of them was tabled without a real vote. We proposed basic protections for children and taxpayers. Instead, the majority party showed they care more about appeasing their governor, president, and their billionaire donors than about doing right by Texas families. It's a betrayal of every educator, every parent, and every student who depends on our public schools.

I voted against SB 2 because I will never stop fighting for public schools that serve all of us and because I believe in a future where every child deserves the freedom to learn in a beautiful, fully-funded public school, regardless of their race, income, or zip code. As a final note: When I contemplated this piece of legislation, I often sat with the weight of HB 235 from 1957, the original voucher bill born from Governor Shivers' Advisory Committee on Segregation in the Public Schools. The bill before us today echoes the same agenda from the 1950s, often using the same language and arguments designed to divide our students into two unequal systems of education. While the consequences of this vote will take years to uncover, I fear the legislators of the session of 2093 will look back on SB 2 with the same disdain I hold for 1957's HB 235.

Representative Rodríguez Ramos submitted the following reason for vote to be printed in the journal:

Texans know our public schools deserve full funding not half measures. While HB 2 includes much-needed raises for teachers and puts some dollars into our schools—and I voted in favor of it—I need to be clear: It didn't go nearly far enough. Our kids deserve schools that meet, at the very least, the national average in per-student funding. Representative John Bryant offered thoughtful, commonsense amendments to do just that and to ensure school funding keeps pace with inflation. Every single one of them was voted down. During a historic state budget surplus, it is unconscionable that we will remain one of the worst states in the nation for student funding and teacher pay. We are not fooled. This chronic underfunding is part of a long game to starve our public schools and push vouchers that benefit the wealthy few. We need permanent, inflation-indexed investments in education. HB 2 is a small bandaid on a gaping wound. My fight continues past this vote. I will continue to push for better legislation until every Texas child, no matter their zip code, has a fully funded public school and a teacher who's paid what they're worth. Every Texas child, from Brownsville to Amarillo, deserves the bright future that only a fully-funded education can provide.

COMMITTEE MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

The following committee meeting was announced:

Trade, Workforce, and Economic Development, scheduled to meet upon final adjournment today, has been canceled.

ADDRESS BY REPRESENTATIVE HOWARD

Representative Howard addressed the house, speaking as follows:

After a late night on the floor toward the end of the 2019 Legislative Session, I got a call while walking back to my office that would change my life forever. My husband had suffered a cardiac arrest and an anoxic brain injury. He was then my 24-7 duty for the next year and a half until he died. Two sessions ago, the morning after another contentious debate, similar to the one we had last evening, I came to the front microphone to share my profound appreciation for this body who gave me so much love and support. And I said that even though we vehemently disagree on certain issues, at the end of the day we are family. I consider you my family. Each of us represents a piece of this great state, and our constituents equally deserve to feel represented in this body. We all deserve the opportunity to come before this chamber to recognize, celebrate, and warn our constituents and know that we, and they, will be met with the utmost respect. That is what I expected when I filed HR 236. I expected to have the opportunity to honor my former constituent and be met with the respect that moment commands.

Our political backgrounds and beliefs may differ, but we cannot allow those differences to cross the line of common decency. Especially when it comes to honoring the lives of those we have lost, because that is what I was trying to do here today. This was not to make a political statement. I am standing before the chamber today to honor the life of an incredible woman who was a colleague, friend, and sister to many of us, Cecile Richards. However, unlike other families who have had the opportunity to come to the Capitol to memorialize their loved ones, the Richards family was denied that opportunity. Due to the online controversy over this memorial resolution and the potential—which turned out to actually happen—that members of this body would disparage or speak ill of Cecile, her family chose not to join us today. And I am actually very grateful that they were not present to experience the hurt that would have been inflicted on them.

Members, this is the people's house. The Richards family should have felt comfortable coming to their house to honor their loved one. Cecile Richards, like all of us in this room, dedicated her life to serving others and advocating her beliefs. Like her mother, Governor Ann Richards, Cecile fought to ensure every Texan had equal access to a quality education, affordable health care, and opportunities to realize their version of the American dream. She is known by many for her tenacity, grit, wisdom, and heart. Her work through the Texas Freedom Network, Planned Parenthood, and Supermajority has made a positive change on the fabric of our state and nation, and she is clearly continuing to have an impact today. Many of us in this room knew Cecile personally. Our lives were changed through her counsel and friendship. Cecile, like her mother, Ann, led a remarkable and historic life that deserves to be honored and recognized, and I appreciate the opportunity to have had this time with you today to honor my friend and constituent—former constituent—Cecile Richards.
